Durham brothers plead guilty to trafficking aliens

http://www.wral.com/news/news\_briefs/story/9403747/

NEW BERN, N.C. — Two Durham men pleaded guilty Wednesday to bringing immigrants illegally from Mexico for their home construction business, federal authorities said.

Jose Lopez and Juan Antonio Lopez own J&A Framers Carpentry Inc., which has about a dozen eight-person framing crews. The brothers notified people in their hometown that they needed workers and loaned people money to cover the cost of being smuggled into the U.S., authorities said. The brothers also rented rooms to the illegal workers.

The operation ran from 2004 until last December, authorities said.

The brothers each pleaded guilty to conspiring to conceal, harbor and shield illegal aliens. As part of the pleas, they agreed to forfeit $250,000 to the government.

They will be sentenced later, when they face up to five years in prison and a $250,000 fine.

Illegal immigrant caught trafficking cocaine in Iredell County

<http://statesville.wbtv.com/news/crime/illegal-immigrant-caught-trafficking-cocaine-iredell-county/61234>

STATESVILLE - A two-month investigation by detectives with the Iredell County Sheriff's Office Narcotics Unit ended with the arrest of a Jonesville man accused of trafficking cocaine.

Jorge Mendez Martinez of the 500 block of South Mineral Springs Drive sold undercover officers three and one half ounces of cocaine worth $24,500 over the course of the investigation, Iredell County Sheriff Phil Redmond said.

Officers with the Iredell County Narcotics Unit and Jonesville Police searched Martinez's home and found another half ounce of cocaine valued at $3,500.

Martinez is being held at the Iredell County Detention center under a $75,000 secured bond.

Sheriff Redmond said there will likely be more charges against Martinez.

Martinez is facing a mandatory prison sentence of 35 months if convicted, in addition to deportation due to his not being a legal United States citizen.

Detectives anticipate more arrests in the case.

Illegal Alien gets 20 years in plot to kidnap 2

<http://www.charlotteobserver.com/2011/04/06/2200689/man-gets-20-years-in-plot-to-kidnap.html>

A man who plotted to kidnap two girls in Cornelius and use ransom notes to demand money from their family has been sentenced to 20 years in federal prison.

Ruben Garcia-Rosario, 26, an illegal immigrant from Mexico, was sentenced to 20 years in prison after pleading guilty in 2009 to attempting to kidnap the children.

Prosecutors said Garcia-Rosario drove his car to an elementary school bus stop in Cornelius several times in September 2009 and watched the two children as they waited for their bus.

He sought help for his plans from his wife, Linda Gonzalez, who was living in Edinburg, Texas. He wanted help writing a ransom note that would threaten to kill the girls if their family didn't pay a ransom, prosecutors said, and he promised to pay his wife $10,000 for her assistance. He tried to get a translator to help him communicate with the family, prosecutors said.

Authorities learned of the plot when a "good Samaritan" contacted police with information about Garcia-Rosario's plans, said U.S. attorney Anne Tompkins.

"As a result, the lives of two innocent children were protected and a family was preserved," Tompkins said.

When Garcia-Rosario was arrested, authorities said they found several ransom notes, a loaded pistol, duct tape, latex gloves, a ski mask, two Mexican passports and a cellphone photo of both children.

Cocaine Seized From DWI Suspect

<http://www.wtsbradio.com/pages/localnews.html>

A Benson man is facing serious charges after being stopped by Smithfield Police on Highway 210 Saturday afternoon. Officers said they pulled over a Chevy Tahoe reportedly driven by 33 year-old Erasmio Ibarra Lopez of Stephenson Road.

Lopez was arrested for driving while impaired. Lt. Keith Powell said Lopez registered .15 on the Breathalyzer, nearly double the legal limit of .08. While being processed into the Johnston County Jail, a tenth gram of suspected cocaine was found in his baseball cap, Lt. Powell said. Lopez was confined in the Johnston County Jail under an $11,000 bond, charged with felony possession of cocaine and driving while impaired.

Lopez's immigration status is being checked by Immigration and Customs Enforcement to see if he is in this country illegally.

Killer gets probation in Palomino slaying case

<http://www.fayobserver.com/articles/2011/04/09/1085275?sac=Crime>

A man charged with murder avoided prison Friday, in part, because he agreed to pay roughly $75,000 to the family of the man he killed.

Carlos Javier Serrano was sentenced to five years probation in the killing of 31-year-old Alejandro Gonzalez Reyes in early 2009 outside the former Palomino nightclub.

Serrano avoided an active sentence after Cumberland County Senior Resident Superior Court Judge Gregory Weeks ruled there were extraordinary circumstances to mitigate the sentence. Among them was the fact Serrano had already paid the mother of Reyes' children $25,000, and he was willing to pay $50,000 in restitution.

Reyes was killed outside the nightclub on Jan. 11, 2009. The club has since closed.

Serrano, who was arrested near the club, was originally charged with first-degree murder. He pleaded guilty to a lesser charge of second-degree murder as part of a plea agreement.

Five years was the maximum length of probation Weeks could order, he said. The probation could be extended at a later date if Serrano does not meet the conditions of his supervision.

Those conditions include that Serrano make regular payments toward the $50,000 in restitution that will benefit Reyes' girlfriend and his three children.

Serrano will have to comply with drug and alcohol restrictions, Weeks said. If he violates any aspect of his probation, the court could activate a prison sentence of between seven years, 10 months and 10 years, two months.

TAX REFUND CONSPIRATORS INDICTED IN U.S. DISTRICT COURT

<http://www.justice.gov/usao/ncw/press/Amparo.html>

CHARLOTTE – Seven individuals have been charged with conspiring to defraud the government by obtaining false and fraudulent income tax refunds, Anne M. Tompkins, U.S. Attorney for the Western District of North Carolina, and Jeannine Hammett, Special Agent in Charge of the Internal Revenue Service-Criminal Investigation Division, announced today.

On Tuesday, March 15, 2011, a federal grand jury sitting in Charlotte returned a one-count indictment against the following defendants:

- Arileyda Amparo, 30, of Lincolnton, not yet arrested
- Xiomara Amparo, 33, of Lincolnton, released on bond
- Jose de Jesus aka Jose Ramos, age unknown, of Vale, in custody, undocumented alien
- Dania Ramos, 35, of Lincolnton, released on bond
- Johan Vargas, 22, of Hickory, not yet arrested
- Nelson Jimenez, 50, of Lincolnton, released on bond
- Mildred DePena, 48, of Lincolnton, released on bond

All of the defendants are charged with one criminal count alleging conspiracy to defraud the government with respect to false claims—allegedly in this case, the filing of fraudulent tax returns seeking refunds utilizing stolen Puerto Rican identity information. The defendants Xiomara Amparo, Jose de Jesus, Dania Ramos, Nelson Jimenez, and Mildred DePena were arrested on February 23, 2011 pursuant to a federal criminal complaint issued on February 16, 2011.

According to the indictment, from in or about January 2010 and continuing to February 2011, the defendants agreed to defraud the U.S. Treasury Department by participating in a scheme to obtain false tax refunds. The defendants are alleged to have first obtained stolen identity information, including names and Social Security numbers of individuals in Puerto Rico, in whose names they would then allegedly prepare fraudulent federal tax returns. Part of the scheme was that the defendants carefully selected addresses within the Western District of North Carolina at locations where there were multiple mailboxes clustered together in a single location.

According to the charges contained in the indictment, the defendants then caused the Treasury Department to mail the false tax refund checks to these specially chosen addresses. The defendants, according to the indictment, would then use the Internet to check the delivery dates of the fraudulent refund checks, and follow through by pulling the checks out of the mail at the specially chosen clustered addresses.

The indictment alleges that the defendants cashed the refund checks, which they had pulled from mailboxes, at various money service businesses located in North Carolina and elsewhere, and then used the money for their own gain. According to the charges, the defendants sought fraudulent refunds totaling more than $3 million during 2010 and more than $2 million from January 2011 up until their arrests in mid-February.

Each defendant faces a maximum statutory penalty of up to ten years in prison, a $250,000 fine, or both

IDENTITY THEFT ARREST

http://www.justice.gov/usao/ncm/press\_releases/2009/122109\_hernandez.html

GREENSBORO — A 32-year-old Madison man was arrested last week for allegedly producing and selling fraudulent immigration and social security documents, announced Anna Mills Wagoner, United States Attorney for the Middle District of North Carolina.

The defendant, JUAN RUIZ-HERNANDEZ, is charged in a criminal complaint with the manufacture, sale, and distribution of a fraudulent Permanent Resident card and a fraudulent Social Security card, in violation of Title 18, United States Code, Section 1028 and Title 42, United States Code, Section 408. He was arrested near his home in Madison, North Carolina, which was allegedly used as a document lab. The arrest followed an investigation by U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE), the North Carolina Division of Motor Vehicles, License and Theft Bureau, the Rockingham County Sheriff's Office and the Asheboro Police Department.

“Identity theft and document fraud are serious offenses that threaten our national security and the stability of our financial and business institutions,” said U.S. Attorney Wagoner. “Investigation and prosecution are essential components of a strategy to combat these crimes.”

"Document fraud and other forms of immigration benefit fraud undermine the integrity of our nation's legal immigration system and potentially rob deserving immigrants of benefits they rightfully deserve," said Del Richburg, assistant special agent in charge of ICE's Office of Investigations in Charlotte. "We will continue to aggressively target those participating in or facilitating these crimes."

Document fraud refers to the manufacture, sale or use of counterfeit identity documents, such as fake driver's licenses, birth certificates, social security cards, or passports, for immigration fraud or other criminal activity. Document fraud also includes efforts to obtain genuine identity documents through fraudulent means. These activities have helped illegal aliens, criminals and even terrorists evade detection and embed themselves in our society. Document fraud often supports the crime of benefit fraud.

The arrests were the result of a joint drug investigation by drug units with the Rowan County Sheriff's Office and Salisbury Police Department.

Rowan County Sheriff's Detective Chad Moose said authorities received information that the men were coming through town Wednesday to make a delivery, and authorities with both agencies waited for the suspects along Interstate 85, stopping them around 3:30 p.m. on Webb Road.

Authorities found 21 grams of heroin and a small amount of marijuana.

Illegal Drugs Were Sold From Concord Convenience Store

<http://www.wsocvtv.com/news/27602325/detail.html>

CONCORD, N.C. -- North Carolina Alcohol Law Enforcement agents are investigating a drug operation in Concord that they think could be connected to something much larger.

The agents told Eyewitness News they uncovered several illegal prescription drugs at a convenience store on Cabarrus Avenue.

"Injectable drugs, oral tablets (and) some creams," said Assistant Special Agent In Charge Mike Yates. Yates said they investigated Supermercado Lupita's late last week after police in Wadesboro were told about the store.

That led agents to think the Concord convenience store could be part of a larger operation in which prescription drugs prohibited in the United States are smuggled in from Mexico and then distributed here.

"It's a roulette game when they deal with this type of stuff," Yates said.

Eyewitness News stopped by the store Tuesday, but the owner said he could not talk and referred the crew to his lawyer, who said they would not be commenting because of the investigation.

Yates said since 2008, they have detected 37 similar cases in the Charlotte area, most in Mecklenburg County. He said in some past cases, Hispanic convenience store owners don't think they are doing anything wrong. Instead, they are trying to help out other Hispanics who have no insurance, he said.

Adriana Ramirez shops at Supermercado Lupita's frequently and said while she would not buy the medications there, the owner, Paulino Curiel, has helped a lot of people.

"He's doing it for the Hispanic community," she said.

Yates said Curiel will soon face a misdemeanor charge of distributing medicine without being a licensed pharmacy and possibly more charges.

Farm laborer pleads guilty to '09 slaying

<http://fayobserver.com/articles/2011/04/21/1088339?sac=Crime>

A man was sentenced to a minimum of 19 years in prison Wednesday after pleading guilty to a 2009 Sampson County murder.

Juan Vargas pleaded guilty in Sampson County Superior Court to the Feb. 2, 2009, murder of Carlos Mejia, according to a news release from District Attorney Ernie Lee.

Vargas pleaded guilty to second-degree murder and robbery with a dangerous weapon, according to the release.

Superior Court Judge D. Jack Hooks Jr. sentenced Vargas to between 15 years, four months and 19 years, two months for the murder charge and between four years, four months and six years for the robbery charge.

The sentences will run consecutively in the N.C. Department of Correction, the release said.

According to Lee, evidence showed that Mejia and Vargas lived together in Garland as farm laborers and that Mejia's employer found him dead Feb. 3, 2009.

Vargas took Mejia's car after the killing and wrecked it in Wayne County that same day, the release said. A handgun was found during the investigation of the wreck.

The Sampson County Sheriff's Office investigated the murder and, after interviewing Vargas, obtained a confession in which Vargas admitted to stabbing and then shooting the victim.

Vargas told investigators that both men were drunk and that they were arguing over allegations of theft.

Police Discover $100K In Black Tar Heroin In Charlotte Home

<http://www.wsocvtv.com/news/27613644/detail.html>

CHARLOTTE, N.C. -- Drug agents in Charlotte have arrested at least two men in connection with what they say was a black tar heroin 'cell' operating in northwest Charlotte.

Windy Valley drive is a quiet stretch of starter homes where Eyewitness News has learned investigators raided a home earlier this month. Marcus Brower remembers the day he saw nearly a dozen officers swarm the home next door to his. "Yeah, they came out with duffel bags and the corn flakes boxes of cereal which all this stuff was in," Brower said.

This week a Mecklenburg County grand jury indicted Ubmerto Ocampo and Allejandro Garcia on heroin trafficking charges. Garcia is being held on a $5 million bond.

The drug seizures are the latest evidence of heroin rings setting up operations in Charlotte. For the past two years, Eyewitness News has been reporting on the rising presence of black tar heroin in the area.

At the home where the raid took place, the suspects' belongings are gone and a new family has moved in. A woman who answered the door told us she had no idea about the raid or the heroin police say was found there. Other neighbors say they noticed traffic going in and out of the house on weekends.

GRAHAM — More than 100 pounds of marijuana was seized Wednesday from a local home. Graham police said the marijuana was found at 1102 Lynn Drive.

One man was arrested: 22-year-old Fernando Andrade-Salazar. He was charged with felony possession of marijuana, manufacturing manufacturing, possession with the intent to sell and deliver marijuana, trafficking marijuana, maintaining a dwelling to keep a controlled substance and possession of drug paraphernalia.

Andrade-Salazar is being held in the Alamance County jail on $250,000 bond.

Police said the Alamance County Sheriff's Office and Greensboro police took part in the seizure and arrest

Hendersonville man arrested for aggravated assault- Illegal Alien

<http://www.blueridgenow.com/article/20110421/news/110429970>

Police arrested a Hendersonville man who is wanted in Mexico for aggravated assault.

Henderson County Sheriff deputies arrested 27-year-old Paul Martinez Vasquez of 238 Adel's Way on lesser charges and while he was in custody, the suspect's name was found in a federal database that revealed his charges in Mexico.

“Had it not been for our programs such as 287-G, more than likely Vasquez would have gone undetected and remained in the community,” Sheriff Rick Davis said.

Vasquez was arrested on Feb. 28, 2011 for three counts of failure to appear on a misdemeanor criminal offense which were possession of marijuana, no operators license and driving while impaired.

Drunken Driver Involved In 2 Hit-And-Runs

<http://www.wsocvtv.com/news/27626344/detail.html>

MORGANTON, N.C. --Police said a driver was drunk when he caused two separate accidents and then drove away.

Baltazar Jamie Garcia Pascual was arrested Wednesday in Morganton. He was charged with two hit-and-runs, DWI, driving without a license and having an open container.

Police said Pascual hit a parked car on Monday night and then drove away, but his passenger-side mirror broke off and was left behind.

Then, an hour later, Pascual hit another driver's car and drove away again, according to police.

That driver said the car that struck her was missing its passenger-side mirror, which led police to Pascual.

Sheriff bulking up anti-gangster capability with armored vehicle

<http://theashevilletribune.com/sheriff-bulking-up-antigangster-capability-with-armored-vehicle-p278-97.htm>

Henderson County Sheriff's tactical agents will have a big buddy, an armored car to protect them and citizens they rescue from armed drug dealers or others.

The $259,719 tactical 10-person vehicle requires no local money, Sheriff Rick Davis told commissioners before they unanimously authorized his getting the special BearCat vehicle from Lenco Armored Vehicles.

Lenco estimates it will take a half-year to build and deliver the vehicle to here. It will be fully paid for from the following sources: federal forfeitures ($180,600), federal ICE immigration revenues ($70,119) and state drug excise tax ($9,000). Such revenue or other sources will cover its yearly maintenance, Davis said in response to commissioner Bill O'Connor's caution about ongoing expenses.

This fills a void, having no such special vehicle at all. "We do not have an ability to handle the type of incidents which are happening with alarming frequency," Davis concluded after reviewing "close-call" incidents.

"Executing high-risk search warrants against very well-armed suspects is very routine for our tactical team. In the event of a school shooting, or any variety of situations where rescues would have to be performed, we simply have no capability to do so until post-incident. We need to, as a situation is unfolding."

He said in a hostage situation, the armored vehicle could break open a "standstill. We couldn't approach suspects, to negotiate, nearly as well as can now."

The need is rising for a tactical force vehicle as more guns and drugs are found together these days, the sheriff said. "We've seen an epic amount of drugs" including via Mexican drug cartels, resulting in executing 114 narcotics-related search or arrest warrants in merely four recent days. Often guns are found in a suspect's home. Sometimes several people are there, which heightens danger in the arrest.

Three charged in Jack's Grocery robbery

<http://www.salisburypost.com/Crime/042411-cops-Three-arrested-for-robbery-qcd>

SALISBURY — Three men have been charged in the armed robbery of Jack's Grocery on Bringle Ferry Road Thursday night.

Authorities said deputies arrived to Jack's Grocery and found the clerk had been robbed by a man wearing a ski mask and holding a knife.

The suspect demanded money and left with more than $4,000 cash and five cartons of cigarettes. A red vehicle was seen leaving the scene and deputies began a search for the suspects.

The suspect's vehicle was spotted beside a parking lot near M&L Mini Mart on the corner of North Main and 11th street.

When officers with the Spencer and Salisbury police departments arrived, they detained a male matching a description given by a witness to the robbery.

Sheriff's deputies arrived and located another male suspect inside a nearby apartment.

Detectives with the Sheriff's Office responded to the scene and during the course of the investigation identified three suspects: Kevin Price, Zachary Ragan and Hector Torres. Torres was listed as the suspect with the knife.

A search of the apartment revealed a ski mask, knife and cartons of cigarettes, authorities said.

All three suspects were arrested and charged with robbery with a dangerous weapon and conspiracy to commit robbery.

Ragan, 34, and Torres, 29, both of 115 W. 11th St., Salisbury, were given $100,000 bonds. Price, 24, of 1728 N. Lee St., was also given a $100,000 bond.

The three of them will make their first appearance in court Monday.

More heroin making its way into Rowan

<http://www.salisburypost.com/News/042411-Heroin-qcd>

The word heroin comes from the Greek word "heros." And the feeling those who take the drug get makes them think they can do anything.

But that feeling only lasts about 15 minutes. And then the addiction begins.

David Ramsey, chief deputy of the Rowan County Sheriff's Office, has been in law enforcement for 32 years and he says heroin has never been as prevalent in Rowan as it is today.

Authorities say those who have taken the drug think about when they wake up, and then they want it so bad it's all they think about all day. Even when they're falling asleep, using heroin is flashing through their mind, and they start mapping out how to get more for the next day.

Users have told law enforcement officers that after the first time they use heroin, they're hooked. The addiction takes over.

Sheriff Kevin Auten said in his 14 years of drug work, he never seized heroin. "We've never seen it like this here," he said. "I think it's a really big problem now. I think most law enforcement in the Charlotte metro area now will tell you that."

Heroin abuse and prescription painkiller abuse go hand-in-hand, Ramsey said. "When people can't get those, they use heroin, and when they can't get heroin, they use prescription drugs," he said. "It's kind of like a bad marriage, really."

Black tar heroin is the type most often found locally. Users heat it and inject it into a vein.

Mexican drug trafficking groups have taken over distribution, Ramsey said. They fill tiny balloons with balls of the sticky black heroin for the trip from the southwestern border states to Atlanta, then to Charlotte and on into Rowan.

SALISBURY — Two people are in jail under $20,000 bonds each, charged with robbery with a firearm and kidnapping.

According to the Rowan County Sheriff's Office, Marco Antonio Pina-Reza, 20, and Katlin Anne Mazzocchi, 17, were charged early this morning and arrested in Kannapolis.

Officers were called to 280 Garmon Road Sunday morning by 16-year-old Cody Killian who said Pina-Reza and Mazzocchi had just come to his home, pulled a gun on him and tied him up to a chair using Duct tape.

Killian told authorities the two left with a suitcase and gym bag filled with items from the home, including a laptop computer, a 12-gauge shotgun, a rifle, flashlights, a video recorder, jewelry, passports and birth certificates.

Killian's family was at church at the time of the invasion, but were there when officers arrived. Killian identified Pina-Reza and Mazzocchi, who both live at 519 Chrysler Street in Kannapolis, as the suspects, authorities said, but said he was not friends with them.

Authorities are attempting to locate the stolen property.

Teen Dad Charged With Abusing Two-Month Old Son

<http://www.wtsbradio.com/pages/localnews.html>

A teenage father is in jail accused of severely abusing his 2 month-old son. Favian Zapata, 19, of Rosie Drive, Four Oaks was arrested by the Johnston County Sheriff's Office on April 21.

Authorities said Zapata took his son to the emergency department at Johnston Medical Center on April 15, claiming he had dropped the baby.

Doctors said the child's injuries, which consisted of multiple skull fractures, were not consistent with a baby being dropped, according to Tammy Amaon, Public Information Officer for the Johnston County Sheriff's Office.

The child was taken to UNC Hospitals in Chapel Hill where it is expected to survive, but it will likely have permanent injuries. Zapata was charged with felony child abuse resulting in serious injury. He was confined in the Johnston County Jail under a $60,000 bond.

Police Charge Man With Drunken Driving

<http://www.wtsbradio.com/pages/localnews.html>

Selma Police arrested a Massey Street resident on April 17 for driving while impaired and driving without a license. Police said they stopped a Toyota pickup for weaving and crossing the centerline on South Pollock Street shortly after 3 in the morning.

The driver, identified as 43 year-old Jesus Santos Hernandez, registered 0.17 on the Breathalyzer, double the legal limit of 0.08. After learning the results of his Breathalyzer test, Hernandez reportedly laughed at officers and said, "Sorry, too many cerveza" which is the Spanish word for beer. Hernandez was released on a $1,000 bond pending a June 30 court appearance.

Moore County man charged with sexual abuse of 5 year old child

<http://fayobserver.com/articles/2011/04/27/1089943?sac=Crime>

CARTHAGE - A 70-year-old Moore County man is accused of sexually abusing a 5-year-girl, authorities said today.

Feliciano Gomez Hernandez, of the 200 block of Heavenwood Road in Carthage, is charged with first-degree rape of a child, taking indecent liberties with a child and sexual battery, according to the Moore County Sheriff's Office.

Bail for Hernandez was set at $100,000.

Delay possible in case of illegal aliens charged with kidnapping, rape

<http://www2.hickoryrecord.com/news/2011/apr/25/8/delay-possible-kidnapping-rape-case-ar-977960/>

A case involving the kidnapping, robbery and rape of a woman in 2008 was scheduled for trial this week. In court on Monday, the attorneys for the defendants admitted they were not prepared.

Brothers Eddy and Milion Barrios-Ortiz are accused of abducting a woman from Valley Hills Mall on Dec. 30, 2008, as she walked to her car. According to police, the victim was driven to an unknown location where she was sexually assaulted. Her ATM card was then stolen and she was forced to give the suspects her PIN so they could take money from her account.

The woman was then driven to First Street West and Old U.S. 70 in Conover and forced out of the car. The victim got help at a nearby home.

Eddy, 27, and Milion, 32, were each charged with first-degree kidnapping, first-degree rape, first-degree sexual offense and robbery with a dangerous weapon for this case and given a $1 million bond.

The arrests of the Barrios-Ortiz brothers in the 2008 case came after another rape was committed. On Jan. 9, 2010, a similar crime occurred. A woman was leaving her job in Hickory when three men pulled her out of her car she was getting into and into theirs. They put a bag over her head and held a gun to her. They then drove to an ATM, where she was forced to give them her debit card and PIN. The woman was driven to another place where she was sexually assaulted before she was taken to CSI Farm Road in Brookford and left.

Hickory police used surveillance footage from the ATM to help identify and arrest their suspects a few days afterward. In July, Hickory police said DNA linked the two cases.

In addition to the Barrios-Ortiz brothers a third person, Carlos Andreas Carranza-Zeledon, was arrested for the second abduction. All three men were charged in January 2010 with first-degree rape, first-degree sexual offense, first-degree kidnapping and robbery with a dangerous weapon. They were each given a $1 million bond for these charges, as well. They were also placed under an immigration detainer by U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement.

Two Adults, Three Children Dead In Wreck In Croatan National Forest

<http://www.brentadams.com/blog/one-dead-several-injured-in-raleigh-collision.cfm>

Two adults and three children suffered fatal personal injuries in a wreck in which a sports utility vehicle ran off a road into a canal in the Croatan National Forest.

In an April 18 release, officials identified the driver as 24-year-old Maria Gonzales. Also identified as victims were 24-year-old Abdiel Solis, 6-year-old Alexander Gomez, 2-year-old Adeylis Salgonzalez, and 4-month-old Abdiel Solis Jr. Their hometowns were not immediately made available, but the SUV was registered in Havelock.

According to Carolina East Medical Center in New Bern, all five were dead on arrival on the evening of April 17.

The car landed on its roof under several feet of water. The water and mud in the canal caused a difficult effort to recover the bodies.

The two youngest children were still in their car seats.

In Croatan National Forest, there are 160,000 acres of bogs, salt water estuaries, and pine forests.
