3 Monroe teens stole cars to join gang

<http://www.wsoctv.com/news/news/local/police-say-3-monroe-teens-stole-cars-join-gang/nTXCS/>

MONROE, N.C. — Three Monroe teenagers are facing multiple felony charges after police said they stole cars to join a gang.

Authorities arrested Eduardo Cortes, 17, and Angel Maldonado, 16, Thursday, and arrested Marco Tinoco, 17, Friday morning.

Police said the three teenagers were responsible for a rash of Honda Civics stolen from around Monroe since mid-November, nearly a dozen in all.

"The method they developed, they developed specifically for the Honda Civic," said Sgt. Mike Smith, noting the teens did manage to hotwire one Honda Accord.

In most cases, officers said the teens would strip the cars of audio equipment, take them for a joy ride, and then dump the vehicles near city parks or vacant lots.

"Out of 12 vehicles stolen, all have been recovered but three," Smith said.

Smith said a break in the case came last week when a Union County deputy made a traffic stop. Inside the car, investigators said they found the three teens, and learned the Civic was stolen.

Authorities said the teens then confessed to the crimes during interviews and admitted to stealing at least two more cars in Charlotte.

Monroe police are working with Charlotte-Mecklenburg Police Department detectives on those cases.

Investigators believe the thefts were part of a gang initiation into "Los Malditos," or "MS13," a local Hispanic gang.

"Most of the time, their entry into these gangs involves them committing crimes -- stealing cars, breaking into houses, spray painting graffiti around. That is a community problem. That affects everybody," Smith said.

Residents who live near where the cars were stolen called the teens' arrests worrisome.

"Yeah, it worries me, it worries me. They are dangerous. They are very dangerous fellas," said resident Susan Williams.

Authorities say the two men were operating an illegal dentistry practice out of one of the brothers' homes, according to information provided by Cabarrus County Sheriff Brad Riley's office. They were offering typical dentistry services and doling out medications normally used in a dentist's office.

State law requires dentists to pass an examination and obtain a license from the North Carolina Board of Dental Examiners or to obtain a provisional license from the same board.

Both brothers are in the country legally, according to the sheriff's office.

The Cabarrus County VICE Narcotics Unit and the North Carolina State Bureau of Investigations took part in the investigation.

Distributor of Mexican meth in Wilkes, elsewhere gets life sentence

http://www.journalpatriot.com/news/article_9768dce6-3f23-11e2-89cc-001a4bcf6878.html

A man identified as a major distributor of methamphetamine (meth) from Mexico in Wilkes, Iredell and Yadkin counties and elsewhere was sentenced to life in prison Wednesday.

U.S. District Court Judge Richard L. Voorhees sentenced Cesar Sierro-Pineda, 34, also known as “El Chocado,” in federal court in Charlotte.

Court records show Sierro-Pineda imported near-pure crystal meth (called “ice”) for a Mexican drug cartel called “La Familia Michoacana” from Mexico to the U.S. from November 2010 through February 2011.

Records show that at his home in Duluth, Ga., Sierro-Pineda also “cooked” meth in an informal “superlab” capable of producing 10 or more pounds of the illegal substance in one cycle.

Henry Clay Randleman, 56, of Ronda, Jason Scott Holbrook, 35, of Hamptonville, and two other men were sentenced earlier in connection with the case.

Randleman pleaded guilty on May 18, 2011, and was sentenced to 120 months in prison on Dec. 12, 2011.

Holbrook pleaded guilty on June 3, 2011, and was sentenced to 78 months in prison on Jan. 9, 2012.

Hildeberto Gonzalez-Chavez, 32, of Mexico, pleaded guilty on July 28, 2011, and received a 168-month prison sentence on Oct. 2, 2012. Edgar Santana, 23, of Atlanta, Ga., pleaded guilty on Aug. 11, 2011, and was sentenced to 33 months in prison on Oct. 2, 2012.

Gonzalez-Chavez must be on supervised probation for two years upon his release from prison and the other three must be on supervised probation for five years.

Federal authorities said Gonzalez-Chavez was one of Sierro-Pineda’s buyers in North Carolina and that he distributed meth through Randleman, Holbrook and others in Yadkin, Wilkes and Iredell.

Court records show Sierro-Pineda was trying to import about 6.5 kilos of meth “ice” into the U.S. with a courier on Nov. 8, 2010, when U.S. authorities seized it at the International Port of Entry in Laredo, Texas. Sierro-Pineda continued selling meth to customers in North Carolina and other states, court records show.

Authorities raided Sierro-Pineda's "superlab" in Duluth, Ga., on Feb. 25, 2011, and seized 5 gallons of liquid meth that was being converted to crystal meth, over two additional pounds of meth and 20 firearms.

Sierro-Pineda has been in federal custody since May 2011. He will be transferred to the Federal Bureau of Prisons upon designation of a federal facility. Federal sentences are served without parole.

Anne M. Tompkins, U.S. attorney for the Western District of North Carolina, announced Sierro-Pineda's sentence and said the investigation was conducted by Homeland Security Investigations, State Bureau of Investigation and the Wilkes, Iredell and Rowan county sheriff's departments.

Assistant U.S. Attorney Steven R. Kaufman was the prosecutor.

3 men charged in connection with wreck

<http://www.heraldsun.com/news/localnews/x650135310/Crime-log-Nov-30>

CARRBORO – Carrboro police charged Jose Alfredo Centeno Rodriguez, 40, with assault with a deadly weapon Tuesday night after he allegedly caused a car wreck while trying to chase his wife and another man.

The incident started at Carrboro Plaza about 10 p.m. on N.C. 54 when Rodriguez, 40, allegedly saw his wife in a car with another man, Ervin Hernandez Carbajal, 28, and rammed their car, according to a Carrboro police report.

To get away from Rodriguez, Carbajal drove his car onto N.C. 54 heading east, but Rodriguez followed and attempted to drive Carbajal's car off the road, the police report said.

As the two cars raced east on N.C. 54, Carbajal drove up on a third car and swerved to avoid it. Rodriguez then crashed into the third car, causing the third car to hit the guard rail.

Rodriguez then got out of his car, which ended up in the median, and walked away from the scene of the accident, which occurred near Jones Ferry Road. He returned a short time later, the police report said.

Police charged Rodriguez for assault with a deadly weapon, with the weapon being his car. None of the three drivers had driver's licenses, so each was cited for driving with no operator's license, the report said.

Trooper D.T. Sloop investigated the crash, which occurred at 7:39 p.m. at Ed Deal Road, off Millbridge Road.

The trooper said Hernandez drove through fencing behind Millbridge Elementary School, in the western part of the county. He was driving a 1996 Chevrolet Cavalier.

The trooper noted Hernandez was unsteady on his feet and had a strong odor of alcohol on his breath, a report said. A sample of blood was taken for chemical analysis. Hernandez is being held under a $5,000 secured bond in the Rowan County Detention Center.

CARY -- Police have charged four Cary teens with firing a BB gun at dozens of vehicles in town since Nov. 23.

Jose Luis Corrales Romero, 17, of Stone Court, Nelson Vladimir Hernandez-Tobar, 18, of Hickory Street, Angel Ubano Juarez, 17, of York Street; and Christian Francisco Tobar-Vasquez, 16, of Hickory Street, have each been charged with one misdemeanor count of injury to real property and injury to personal property.

Police arrested the teens during a traffic stop overnight on Thursday. Additional charges are possible, police said.

The four teens are thought to have caused more than 50 acts of vandalism to vehicles. The majority involved breaking windows with what appears to be a BB gun, though a few involved thrown eggs.

Most of the vehicles were parked on streets inside the Maynard Loop. Police say nothing was taken from any of the vehicles and no injuries have been reported.
