Mother arrested after 2 toddlers die in fire

Charlotte mom faced charges before 2 kids died in fire
http://www.charlotteobserver.com/2010/02/28/1279780/2-unattended-toddlers-die-in-charlotte.html?CFID=5012600&CFTOKEN=66739238

The mother of two unsupervised toddlers killed in a west Charlotte house fire early Sunday was arrested and charged with murder and felony child abuse.

After a day of searching, Charlotte-Mecklenburg police arrested Orgal Paulette Opata, 26, after she left her four children alone at the home on Rowan Street, in the Thomasboro community. One-year-old Gabriel Hawthorne and his 2-year-old brother, Josiah Hawthorne, died in the fire that destroyed the home.

She was charged with two counts of murder, three counts of reckless/gross felony child abuse, exposing a child to fire and one count of burning resulting in serious injury to a firefighter.

Her two older children, a 4-year-old son and 7-year-old daughter, survived the fire after they were helped by a neighbor.

In 2007, Opata was convicted in Greensboro of possessing cocaine, and sentenced to at least six months in jail. Six years earlier, she was convicted of embezzlement, also in Greensboro, and sentenced to six to eight months.

Last October, Opata was charged in Charlotte with contributing to the delinquency of a juvenile and was awaiting trial before Sunday's arrest.

FLAT ROCK, N.C. -- Two men face deportation after they were arrested in the theft of more than 500 railroad spikes from train tracks still in use in western North Carolina.

Multiple media outlets reported Tuesday the men were charged in connection with the spikes from train tracks near Flat Rock.
Police say they found 37-year-old Cruz Mario Carnacion and 35-year-old Jose Luis Trejo-Yanez with more than 500 7-inch steel spikes, which can be sold for scrap.

Henderson County Sheriff Rick Davis says the missing spikes could have caused a derailment.

The men are charged with conspiracy to damage railroad property, willful injury to railroad property and trespassing on railroad property. They're being held on Immigration and Customs Enforcement orders pending deportation proceedings.

Driver in July hit-and-run fatality indicted

NEWTON - A grand jury indicted the woman accused of killing a man with her car and then fleeing the scene of the wreck.

On Monday, Tiffany Vassello, of Black Walnut Drive, was indicted on charges of felony hit-and-run, failure to maintain lane control and misdemeanor death by motor vehicle.

Reynardo Funez, 27, lived in Lenoir but worked in South Carolina. He and a coworker were to meet on the shoulder of U.S. 321 southbound and the N.C. 127 on-ramp on July 27. It was shortly after 4 a.m. when Funez's wife parked the car.

Funez stepped out of the car and reached for a bag of clothes inside when a Nissan Xterra driving south on the N.C. 127 ramp hit him. Funez was thrown between 50 and 100 feet from the car, and died at the scene of the accident, according to the N.C. Highway Patrol.

Although the driver of the Xterra turned off its headlights and fled the scene, officials found the SUV later that day, after an area attorney reported seeing the Xterra parked at a home.

Investigators knew on July 27 Tiffany Vassello was the owner of the car, but it took several more days of investigation to confirm she was the driver during the hit-and-run.

Vassello's next court date is May 3.

N.C. men face drug charges

Two men are accused of bringing five ounces of cocaine from North Carolina to Berkeley County, where police said they sold it to an informant in the Food Lion parking lot in Inwood, W.Va., on Friday for $4,500, according to Berkeley County Magistrate Court records.

Miguel Hernandez, 26, and Eleazar Galvan-Soriano, 31, both of Raleigh, N.C., each were charged with transporting a controlled substance into West Virginia and conspiracy to deliver a controlled substance, according to court records.

Galvan-Soriano also was charged with delivery of a controlled substance and Hernandez was charged with obstructing a police officer after he resisted arrest.

Man arrested for having sex with minor over 8-year period

http://www.blueridgenow.com/article/20100227/NEWS/100229762/1042

The Henderson County Sheriff's Office arrested a man for having sex with a girl for 8 years since she was only 10 years old.

Luis Antonio Cruz, 42, of Howard Gap Road in Hendersonville was charged with four counts of second-degree rape, two counts of attempted second-degree sex offense, indecent liberties with a child and one count of felony child abuse, all of which are felonies.

"Mr. Cruz was identified by our 287(g) unit as being in the country legally, but not a citizen," Sheriff Rick Davis said. "Persons in this category, after completion of a sentence, are deported as an aggravated felon and returned to their country of origin."

Cruz was processed at the Henderson County Detention Center where he was placed under a $280,000 secured bond.

Police arrest 2 N.C. men, seize 200 pounds of pot

http://www.jdnews.com/news/seize-73313-spartanburg-arrest.html

Two North Carolina men have been arrested and more than 200 pounds of marijuana and two vehicles were seized in a drug bust, Spartanburg County Sheriff Chuck Wright said.

Deputies charged Edgar Quintanilla-Arteaga, 24, and Raudel Cortex Haro, 30, with trafficking more than 100 pounds of marijuana. Both men are from Charlotte, N.C., and were being held in the Spartanburg County Detention Center.

Jail records did not show whether the men had an attorney.

Drug bust yields one arrest and 20 pounds of marijuana

CLINTON - Sampson County investigators seized 20 pounds of marijuana, four guns and more than $10,000 from a Clinton home that was searched Friday.

Miguel Tamayo Rodriguez, 62, of the 5500 block of Reedsford Road, was charged with trafficking in marijuana, possessing marijuana with intent to sell and deliver, and maintaining a drug house, according to a news release from the Sampson County Sheriff's Office.

The marijuana found at the house was packed in plastic bags, each containing a pound of the drug, the release said.

The street value of the marijuana was about $16,000, the release said.

Investigators also found three rifles and a handgun, the release said.

Rodriguez's bail was set at $100,000.

Hermelindo Morales, 43, and Robert Quintano, 24, both of the streets, were each charged last Wednesday with felony possession of burglary tools, according to police reports. The reports state that the pair were stopped on suspicion of having stolen alcohol from the Harris Teeter at Carr Mill Mall. Police say a search of their backpacks revealed rocks, screwdrivers, bolt cutters and a pair of gloves.

Carlos Alfonso Aldrete-Cruz, 47, no address listed, was arrested Friday on a felony count of being a fugitive and a misdemeanor count of possessing fraudulent identification, according to a police report. The report states he is listed as a deported felon wanted by U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement.

Drugs, Guns, Cash Seized During Raid

http://www.wtsbradio.com/pages/localnews.html

CLINTON- Twenty packages of marijuana, weighing one pound each, along with four guns and over $10,000 in cash were seized from a home in Sampson County on Friday. Deputies raided a home on Reedsford Road outside of Clinton and found the drugs. Miguel Tamayo Rodriguez, 62, was arrested and charged with marijuana trafficking. Bail was set at $100,000. Sampson County Sheriff Jimmy Thornton said the search of the home stemmed from citizens complaints about possible drug activity at the residence.

Crystal Anne Rodriguez, 29, of the 60 block of Westside Drive, Cameron, was indicted on two counts of statutory rape of a 15year-old for incidents that allegedly occurred between June 1 and July 31, 2009.

This is the second time before a grand jury for Mrs. Rodriguez, who in 2007 was indicted for having sex with a 14-year-old boy and fondling his 13-year-old brother. In January 2008 to two counts of misdemeanor sexual battery charges in that case.

The latest allegations came to light in October after the 15-yearold's family learned Mrs. Rodriguez and her husband, Jose Luis Rodriguez, 27, allegedly had sexual relations with the boy while he was living at their home on Lone Star Court.

David Angel Reyes, 23, of the 50 block of West Everette Street, Spring Lake, was originally convicted of one count of indecent liberty with a minor in March 2003, DOC records indicate. His indictment shows he allegedly moved in September 2009 without notifying deputies.

Knightdale Police arrest a man accused of "Skimming"

http://blogs.newsobserver.com/easternwake/knightdale-police-arrest-a-man-accused-of-skimming?storylink=misearch

Daniel Araujou, 27, of Deerfield Beach, Florida.is accused of fraud after skimming credit cards, a crime as troubling as identity theft. Skimming is a method that occurs when a reader is fitted into machines that are automated to take credit cards. Then fake credit cards are made with the numbers the reader captured and are used to purchase merchandise.

Charlotte Police arrested him after a traffic stop. They found more than 30 computers and 100s of credit card numbers in the car, Gant said. He said the computers from Wake County had already been shipped out of the country four days after they were reported stolen.
Charlotte Police called in Secret Service.

Araujo was charged with 12 counts of felony fraud in Raleigh. He was in jail for $1 million bond before it was discovered that U.S. Immigration wanted him.He's being held by U.S. Immigration that plans to deport him.

Driver charged with hitting child at bus stop

http://www.fayobserver.com/Articles/2010/03/04/980870

EASTOVER - A driver has been cited with hitting a boy at a school bus stop Monday, causing minor injuries.

Luis Armando Castro Sandoval, 20, of the 2600 block of Ballpark Road in Eastover, was driving a 1999 Nissan that hit 9-year-old John Hanmilton on U.S. 301, according to the Highway Patrol.

It happened about 7:30 a.m. when the school bus was stopped and its driver had activated flashing red lights and the stop arm, according to Trooper T.R. Harris' report.

Sandoval, who was traveling south on U.S. 301, failed to stop and hit Hanmilton, who had started across the road to board the bus, the Highway Patrol said. Sandoval's estimated speed was 15 mph, the trooper's report said.

Sandoval has been cited for passing a stopped school bus, careless and reckless driving and hit-and-run driving, the report said.

Ex-husband killed by woman's boyfriend in southwest Charlotte

http://www.charlotteobserver.com/2010/03/06/1292923/ex-husband-killed-by-womans-boyfriend.html

Police have identified a man killed Friday night during a fight involving a woman's ex-husband and current boyfriend.

The dead man is Satmar Colmenares, 33, police said. Officers are withholding the name of the man they believe pulled the trigger because he has not been charged with a crime.

The shooting happened around 8:30 p.m. on Breckfield Court, just off Shopton Road West in southwest Charlotte. Officers got a call from the woman who owned the home, who said her ex-husband, Colmenares, came to the house and threatened her.

When officers got to the house, they found Colmenares lying outside the house, dead from a gunshot wound.

Witnesses told police that Colmenares came to the house and found his ex-wife there with her current boyfriend. The men began fighting and the ex-husband was shot.

Man to face trial in slaying of merchant

http://www.charlotteobserver.com/2010/03/06/1292968/man-to-face-trial-in-slaying-of.html

Defendant Victor Manuel Vasquez was previously sentenced for trying to kill a police officer.

A man sentenced to as many as 22 years in prison for attempting to kill a police officer now faces a death penalty trial in the 2008 slaying of a Charlotte businessman.

Victor Manuel Vasquez, 28, was convicted last week for his role in an August 2008 shootout with a Charlotte-Mecklenburg police officer, which authorities say erupted after Vasquez fled a traffic stop and police chased him.

A jury found him guilty of attempted first-degree murder and assault with a firearm on a law enforcement officer. He was sentenced to between 15 years and 19 years in prison for the attempted murder, plus up to three years, seven months for the assault.

Vasquez is now awaiting trial on a murder charge in the April 2008 killing of Gregorio Hernandez, who was working at his auto repair shop on Albemarle Road when he was shot to death during an apparent robbery attempt.

Hernandez, 35, was shot in the head and chest, according to an autopsy.

Rifleman spotted at Rec Park, arrested

http://www.thefranklinpress.com/articles/2010/03/05/news/21news.txt

FRANKLIN-Sheriff Robert Holland said Thursday investigators are still working to determine why a man climbed over a fence and perched himself in a lifeguard tower at the public swimming pool armed with a scoped assault rifle.

So far, Carlos Jossue Aguilar, 20, of 78 New Hope Rd., is only charged with misdemeanor first degree trespassing. Holland said additional charges might be pending.

Sheriff Deputy Dereck Jones said the call came in at 6 p.m. Wednesday. Jones said witnesses using the tennis courts at the Macon County Veterans Memorial Park saw Aguilar at the pool in the lifeguard tower overlooking the baseball fields.

"The subject was wearing camouflage and was inside the fence with what appeared to be a rifle," Jones said of the witnesses' account.

Shots fired call leads to arrest of Siler City man

http://www.chathamjournal.com/weekly/news/publicsafety/shots-fired-call-leads-to.shtml

A Siler City man was arrested Friday when deputies from the Chatham County Sheriff's Office responded to a residence located at 3874 US 15-501 north of Pittsboro after a report that someone was shooting in the area. When officers arrived they found Pascual Mendoza and Erica Hilario near a white Chevy Lumina that was owned by Hilario.

Officers inquired if anyone was firing shots and both said no. They asked if they could search Hilario's vehicle and after consent was given, a Firestorm 45 caliber pistol was found under the seat. A record check on the gun revealed that it was stolen from Lee County in 2002.
Mendoza, 19, of 380 11th Street, Siler City was arrested for Felonious Possession of Stolen Property and Carrying a Concealed Weapon. He was released on a $500.00 secured bond and is scheduled to appear in district court in Pittsboro on March 30.

Raid yields six arrests for insurance fraud

http://www.chathamjournal.com/weekly/news/publicsafety/early-morning-raid-yields.shtml

Investigators at the Department of Insurance worked with the Siler City Police Department, the Randolph County Sheriff's Office, United States Postal Inspector Service and the National Insurance Crime Bureau to shut down an extensive auto insurance fraud ring with possible ties to the illegal drug trade.

Investigators suspect that an estimated 480 auto crash claims were deliberately caused so the defendants could collect insurance payments.

Those arrested include: Frankie Alston of 131 Ellington Rd., Siler City; Gloria Alston of 1418 Spring Ave., Siler City; Ellen Burns of 4538 Walker Mill Rd., Sophia; Reynaldo Dimas Colores of 401 N. Dogwood Ave., Apt. A , Siler City; Dorothy Maria Depaz of 1809 N. Chatham Ave., Siler City; and Jose Anton Depaz of 1110 Hal Clark Rd., Siler City.

Charges included obtaining property by false pretenses, habitual felon and conspiracy to obtain property by false pretenses. The defendants were booked at the Siler City Police Department and are being held at the Chatham County jail. More charges may be brought later.

Department investigators allege the fraud ring may have been part of a larger illegal drug operation.

Suspect sought in double-fatal hit-and-run wreck

http://www.wral.com/news/news_briefs/story/7183953/

DURHAM, N.C. — The state Highway Patrol on Sunday named a suspect in a hit-and-run wreck that killed two people in Durham.

Troopers said they are looking for 19-year-old Tanilo Rosales from Mexico. Rosales is the owner of a 1995 green Chevrolet Blazer thought to have been involved in a wreck on U.S. Highway 70 in southeastern Durham early Saturday.

Troopers said that around 1:15 a.m., a Blazer and a Ford Taurus station wagon were engaged in a speed competition along a stretch of U.S. 70 where it is merged with Miami Boulevard, east of Pleasant Drive. The Taurus slowed down and was struck from behind by the Blazer, troopers said. The impact caused the Taurus to run off the right side of the road and crash into a tree

The driver of the Taurus, Timothy Parrish Jr., 24, was ejected, and his passenger, Bryant Keith Mitchell, 37, of Durham, was pinned in. Both men died at the scene.

The Blazer didn't stop following the crash, troopers said. The vehicle was recovered Sunday evening.

Troopers are still looking for Rosales. Anyone with information on his whereabouts should call the state Highway Patrol at 1-800-662-7956.

A Spring Hope man arrested here in January has been charged in connection with a shooting in Wilson.

Juan Luis Dominguez, 17, had been questioned by a Wilson Police officer in connection with a fight and shooting at the Walmart on Forest Hills Road on Nov. 1, 2009, but had not been arrested.

Wilson Police officers were called to the Walmart around 3 a.m. on that date in reference to a fight. A security guard at the store intervened and he told the officers that two groups of Hispanic males, totaling between five and 10, had been fighting near the grocery entrance. The security guard said the men separated and left the parking lot. The security guard heard what sounded like a gunshot.

Spring Hope Police Officer C.R. Smith stopped a black Chevrolet Tahoe on Nash Street after the vehicle ran a red light.

Smith noticed several decals on the vehicle that indicated the possible presence of MS 13 gang members and called officers A.F. Whitley, D.L. McKeel, and J.B. Rush for assistance.

The officers soon learned that the Dominguez, who was driving, did not have a valid driver license. They also realized he was probably intoxicated.

Dominguez was arrested and charged with driving without a license, DWI, running a stoplight, carrying a concealed weapon, discharging a weapon into occupied property, inflicting serious injury and possession of a weapon of mass destruction. He was taken to Nashville and placed in the county jail under a $7,500 secured bond.

Woman pleads guilty in plot to kidnap girls

http://www.charlotteobserver.com/2010/03/10/1303348/woman-pleads-guilty-in-plot-to.html

A woman who helped her estranged husband translate a ransom note into English pleaded guilty Tuesday to conspiracy to commit kidnapping. Linda Gonzalez, 21, of Edinburg Texas faces a maximum of five years in federal prison for her part in the scheme to kidnap two girls from a bus stop in Cornelius, according to a press release by the U.S. Department of Justice.

The kidnapping plot was Ruben Garcia Rosario's idea, according to court documents. The girls were the daughters of a couple for whom he worked as a painter. He drove by their school bus stop several times, according to police, snapping pictures of the girls with his cell phone camera. He promised Gonzalez $10,000 if she'd help translate the note, the release says.

Garcia was arrested Sept. 29 and is in Mecklenburg jail, charged with attempted kidnapping and conspiring to kidnap the two girls. Federal immigration officials have also placed a hold on him because he is an illegal immigrant.

The indictment says Garcia and Gonzalez wrote the ransom note over the telephone, which threatened to kill the children if they didn't receive money. Parents called police in early September, saying a man was at the bus stop in Cornelius early one morning, Cornelius Police Maj. David King said at a news conference following the arrest. The parents provided a description of the car, but it was gone before police arrived.

On Sept. 22, police got another call from parents - the man taking pictures was back, and this time they had a license plate number.

Charlotte-Mecklenburg police arrested Garcia and charged him with driving without a license and carrying a concealed weapon. But after he was interrogated, officers say he told them about the kidnapping scheme. When officers searched his car, they found several ransom notes, pictures of the girls, a loaded gun, duct tape, latex gloves, a ski mask and two Mexican passports.

Man Sought In Overnight Hit-And-Run Arrested
http://www.wxii12.com/news/22795284/detail.html

GREENSBORO, N.C. -- Police in Greensboro said they have arrested a man wanted in connection with a hit-and-run Tuesday night.

Authorities said 29-year-old Christine Contraras, of Asheboro, N.C., was charged with drunken driving, felony hit-and-run and open container possession of alcohol.

The incident occurred at about 11:45 p.m. on Sykes Avenue near East Wendover Avenue, WXII12 News reported.

Police said the vehicle driven by Contraras was traveling south on Sykes when it ran a red light and hit a vehicle traveling east on Wendover. Authorities said that's when Contraras fled the scene on foot.

He was located by a police K-9 unit early Wednesday morning and taken into custody, police said. Authorities said upon his arrest they discovered that Contraras had an existing warrant for injury to personal property.

He is being held at the Guilford County Jail on $10,000 bond.

Mother Charged With Torching Family Home

http://www.wtsbradio.com/pages/localnews.html

Harnett County sheriff's authorities have arrested a woman they claim torched her own home to collect insurance. The fire last May 10, displaced a family of six. Now authorities are pointing their finger at the mother, Angelica Avilez, whom they allege started the blaze. Avilez, 34, was charged with burning a dwelling and insurance fraud. After an intense investigation, Harnett County Sheriff's Maj. Gary McNeill said several items reportedly destroyed during the May blaze have now been accounted for. All of the recovered items were declared missing on insurance claim forms, Maj. McNeill said. Among the itemsreportedly destroyed were several thousand dollars worth of jewelry, Sheriff Larry Rollins said. The couple reported in May that they, along with their three daughters and son, had only been a few houses down the block visiting with relatives when they were notified by a neighbor their home was completely engulfed in flames. Firefighters battled the blaze for two hours before bringing it under control. During the initial investigation, family members alleged the fire started in the rear of the home as the result of a faulty receptacle. A newly constructed home now replaces their former residence. Avilez was placed in the Harnett County Jail under a $30,000 secured bond.

Man faces sexual battery charge following incident at library

http://www.thetimesnews.com/news/library-32425-bodycopy-burlington.html

A Burlington man was arrested Wednesday for allegedly touching a woman inappropriately at May Memorial Library.

According to police, at around 12:45 p.m. on March 12, a 58-year-old woman reported that a man had touched her on inner thigh while the two were at the library in downtown Burlington.

There were several witnesses who saw the suspect in the library, including employees. They described the suspect as being Hispanic, 17 to 23 years old, approximately 5 feet 2 inches to 5 feet 6 inches tall, with a slender build and wearing a blue shirt and jacket, Burlington police said in a news release.

Despite the description, police were unable to locate him that day. Then, on Wednesday at around 4:13 p.m., they received a call from a library employee who said the man was back at the library. The employee was working on the day the woman was allegedly assaulted.

As a result of the investigation, police arrested Oscar DanielArechiga, 21, of Wallace Street, Burlington, and charged him with misdemeanor sexual battery. He was placed in theAlamance County jail under a $3,000 secured bond.

Two charged with multiple counts of trafficking in marijuana, meth

http://www2.journalnow.com/content/2010/mar/20/fire-police-briefs/news-local/?CFID=6445993&CFTOKEN=21625636

Two Winston-Salem men were charged yesterday with several counts of trafficking in methamphetamines and marijuana, court records show.

Pablo Mora Doroteo, 32, of 107 Penner St., Apt. B was charged with 10 counts of trafficking in methamphetamines, one count of trafficking in marijuana, and maintaining a dwelling for controlled substances, arrest warrants say.

Francisco Gomez Doran, 30, of 5874 Graham Farm Road in Winston-Salem was charged with three counts of trafficking, four counts of conspiring to traffic methamphetamines, possession of a firearm by a felon, and maintaining a dwelling for controlled substances, according to arrest warrants.

A Forsyth County deputy yesterday accused Doroteo of possessing, selling and delivering about 9½ ounces of methamphetamines and 80 pounds of marijuana, the warrants say. The deputy also accused Doroteo of maintaining an apartment to keep and sell methamphetamines and marijuana.

The deputy accused Doran of possessing, selling and delivering on Feb. 24 more than 8 ounces of methamphetamines and 80 pounds of marijuana and conspiring with Doroteo and another man to traffic more than 3 ounces of methamphetamines, according to the warrants. The deputy also accused Doran of possessing a 9 mm handgun as a convicted felon and keeping and selling methamphetamines and marijuana at his home.

Doroteo and Doran were being held in the Forsyth County Jail last night, each with bonds set at $2.5 million. They are scheduled to appear in court April 8.

Suspect flees in wake of Monday Cashiers shooting-2 captured http://www.thesylvaherald.com/html/suspect_flees_in_wake_of_monda.html

Two are in custody and one suspect remains on the run in the wake of a Monday (March 22) shooting that injured a Tuckasegee man.

The incident occurred in Cashiers near the former Summit Charter School, and the dispatch center received the 911 call at 11:20 a.m. The call came in from a male subject who advised that his co-worker had been shot in the leg.

Wanted in connection with the shooting is Jonathan Garcia Lugo, 27, who was last seen fleeing the scene in a black Chevrolet S-10 pickup truck heading West on U.S. 64 toward Macon County. At least one other person left with Lugo, according to Jackson County Sheriff's Office staff attorney Mark Welch.

The victim, Fernando Randel Lopez, 42, suffered a single gunshot wound to the left leg and was transported to Mission Hospitals in Asheville. He was working at a construction site near the old charter school, which is close to the Cashiers Post Office when the black Chevrolet pickup pulled up. According to Capt. Steve Lillard, witnesses say four occupants exited the vehicle. Based on information obtained during the investigation, Lugo then shot Lopez.

While no motive has been established, Welch says the incident may have been a dispute over a girlfriend and that Lopez was apparently shot while he was trying to prevent a fight.

In custody in connection with the incident are Ricardo Pineda Sanchez, 26, listing a Yellow Mountain Road address in Glenville; and Osvaldo Lira Parga, 19, listing an address in Wichita, Kan. Both Sanchez and Parga face charges of felony conspiracy to commit an assault with a deadly weapon inflicting serious injury with Intent to kill, and both are jailed under a $30,000 bond.

Lugo faces that charge plus one count of felony conspiracy.

4 charged in failed robbery

RANDOLPH COUNTY – Four people face attempted-murder charges after an apparent robbery attempt in Randolph County over the weekend.

Sheriff's deputies responded to 1722 Stallion Trail outside Asheboro about 5 p.m. Saturday in reference to a possible armed robbery.

The victim, Evaristo Hernandez, 32, told investigators he and his nieces – Angelica Mondragon, 18, and Mirian Mondragon, 17, both of Porsche Way, Asheboro – were returning from a flea market in Monroe where he is a vendor. As one of the women got out of their car to unlock the gate at the end of their driveway, three men dressed in dark clothing and with faces covered approached the vehicle. One of the men was armed with a handgun.

The woman who opened the gate was knocked to the ground and, according to victim statements, the armed suspect fired shots, according to the sheriff's office.

No one was injured and no property was taken during the incident, deputies said.

The suspects left the area in a full-sized, dark-colored SUV. The victims were able to give a description of the vehicle to a 911 operator. A responding patrol deputy spotted a vehicle that matched the description a few miles away and stopped the vehicle, according to the sheriff's office.

Four suspects were taken into custody. After further investigation, they were charged with three counts each of attempted murder.

Deputies identified the suspects as Christian Dominguez, 19, of Lomond Street, Winston-Salem; Mario Dejesus Navarro Cruz, 17, of Hutton Street, Winston-Salem; Luis Miquel Martinez, of Divenshire Street, Winston-Salem and Raul Benitez Jr., 17, of Barnes Road, Winston-Salem.

The suspects were jailed after going before a magistrate, who set their bonds at $1 million each.

Man arrested in drive-by shooting http://www.hpe.com/view/full_story/6714797/article-Man-arrested-in-drive-by-shooting?

ASHEBORO – A 42-year-old man was arrested Saturday night and charged in a drive-by shooting earlier that evening.

Investigators with the Randolph County Sheriff's Office said a suspect drove by a home and shot at another man. Deputies responded to the home on McCranford Road in Asheboro Saturday night.

The victim was not injured and reported that a suspect had driven by his house and fired multiple shots at him.

Deputies quickly located and arrested Ociel Flores Hernandez, the Randolph County Sheriff's Office reports. Hernandez was charged with attempted first-degree murder, and bond was set at $1 million.

Hernandez remained at the Randolph County Jail Sunday.

Man Arrested in Stabbing Death

Durham- Police arrested Augustine Castillo Mendoza late Sunday morning and charged him with murder. According to authorities, Mendoza, got into an argument with an acquaintance, Manuel D. Lopez Mata, in front of an apartment at 2905 Rochette St, which is off NC 98, on Saturday. The 32 yr old Mata, police said, was stabbed during the argument and pronounced dead at the scene.

Drive-By Shooting Involved Known Gang Member

http://www.wsoctv.com/news/22993297/detail.html

CHARLOTTE, N.C. -- Police said the man involved in a Saturday drive-by shooting is a known gang member who has been arrested several times in the last two years.

A woman was shot early on Saturday at the intersection of WT Harris Boulevard and Interstate 85. Police said the intended target was a known gang member named Edison Argueta. They said Argueta was about to turn onto I-85 South when a car pulled up next to him and 18-year-old Jesus Rodriguez fired a shot. The bullet hit a woman riding in the front seat.

"[Rodriguez] has been a problem on the east side of Charlotte for about three or four years now," Charlotte-Mecklenburg Police Sgt. Scott Sherwood said.

A search warrant said Rodriguez goes by the nickname Blue and that he's been a documented member of the Sureno gang since 2005.

Since then, he's been involved in 14 gang incidents, police said. Jail records show he's been arrested at least five times in the last two years. But police said charges were dismissed each time, probably because victims wouldn't testify.

But this time, Sherwood said he hopes Rodriguez will stay behind bars.
"I think we'll be able to convict him on a felony in this case," he said.
