<http://www.wtsbradio.com/pages/localnews.html>

Smithfield Police impounded an SUV being driven by a suspected drunk driver following his arrest. Officers on patrol at 11:54 am on Brogden Road stopped the driver, identified as 37 year-old Jorge Joel Carreto Yoc of Bayberry Lane.

Lt. Keith Powell said Yoc registered 0.23 on the Breathalyzer, nearly three times higher than the legal limit of 0.08 in North Carolina.

Lt. Powell said Yoc was operating his Ford Explorer on a revoked license from a 2008 DWI conviction. Yoc was charged with DWI and driving with a revoked license.

He was incarcerated under a $3,000 bond before his release, and given a Feb. 20 court date.

Vehicle carjacked with toddler in back seat

<http://www.charlotteobserver.com/2012/02/22/3035346/vehicle-carjacked-with-toddler.html>

A 2-year-old boy was found safe Tuesday evening at Carolina Place Mall after the car in which he was riding was carjacked in Pineville.

Meanwhile, police are looking for two men alleged to have taken the vehicle when its driver, the toddler's mother, stopped to pick up a take-out order from a restaurant.

Sherrelle Morris said the series of events started when she left the car running while she went inside the restaurant to pick up the food. Her son was inside the car.

"I saw the lights on my car moving," Morris said. "That's when I ran outside behind my car just yelling screaming and crying." She called 911, and officers spotted her black Mercury Cougar a short time later, near the Macy's store in the Carolina Place Mall parking lot. The toddler was still inside, unharmed. "It was hard not knowing where my son was," Morris said. "All I could think about was my son." The suspects were long gone. NewsChannel 36 cameras captured video as a Pineville Police K-9 unit led officers to the front doors of the Macy's store.

In all the commotion, Morris didn't get a good look at the men who took her car with her child inside. Morris said, "They were Hispanic, tall, skinny ... (but) I really don't care about them, because I got my son back, so I don't care about that." She said she has learned her lesson -- and won't ever leave her car running with her toddler in the back seat again. Police searched through the night for the men, but they said Wednesday morning that no arrests had been made. Pineville police have not decided if Morris will be charged for leaving her child in the car.

SALISBURY — A 19-year-old was charged with stabbing a man early this morning after authorities said the victim went to the hospital with injuries.

Deputy D.W. Dearth responded to an assault call about 4 a.m. at 2418 Airport Road and spoke to Carlos Rodriguez, who said he was assaulted and stabbed one of his attackers. He also said his cellphone was stolen.

But after speaking with Manuel McCants — who was going into surgery for stab wounds at Rowan Regional Medical Center — deputies weren't buying it.

McCants, 24, told deputies that Rodriguez started a fight with another person and McCants punched him while Rodriguez was chasing the other person with a knife, according to the arrest report.

Rodriguez then began stabbing McCants.

After leaving, McCants went home, showered and took himself to the hospital.

A hospital spokesperson did not immediately respond to phone calls Friday morning.

Rodriguez was arrested in the 200 block of Hickory Lane. The 19-year-old was charged with assault with a deadly weapon with intent to kill inflicting serious injury.

He was given a $100,000 bond and was in jail today.

WEST UNION, Iowa --- An attempt Friday by two men to collect property that did not belong to them landed both in the Fayette County Jail.

The West Union Police Department on Jan. 23 arrested Arturo Reyna-Araujo, 20, for making a false report to law enforcement officials. When he returned days later to the sheriff's office, he allegedly tried to pick up belongings using a false name.

Authorities detained Reyna-Araujo and discovered him in possession of a controlled substance and drug paraphernalia.

Officials then investigated Juan Francisco Romero-Castro, who drove Reyna-Araujo to the sheriff's office, and learned he did not have a valid license.

Romero-Castro was arrested for providing false information after giving a false name and date of birth. Authorities later determined Romero-Castro had a forged Social Security card and North Carolina identification card, and he was charged with two counts of forgery.

According to court records, Reyna-Araujo was cited for not having a valid license Jan. 20 in Fayette County.

The sheriff's office contacted Immigration Customs Enforcement. The agency determined Romero-Castro and Reyna-Araujo are both in the United States illegally, and hold orders were put in place on the men.

Additional charges, including two felony charges, have been filed in connection with a high-speed collision that injured four early Sunday morning on Main Street in Wilkesboro, according to officers with the Wilkesboro Police Department.

Pablo Izquierdo, 21, of Wilkesboro, driver of a 1989 Nissan, has been charged with two counts of felony assault with a deadly weapon inflicting serious injury and three counts of misdemeanor assault with a deadly weapon.

Izquierdo had already been charged with driving while impaired, speeding 105 in 20 mph zone, reckless driving, driving left of center and having an improper headlight, according to Lt. J.L. Delbert. The wreck happened around 12:48 a.m.

Taken to Wilkes Regional Medical Center by Wilkes EMS were Izquierdo, Joshua Emanuel Aaron, 19, of Wilkesboro, driver of a 1992 Toyota, and a passenger, James Corey Ester, 20, of Wilkesboro. Another passenger in Aaron's car, Michael Wayne Howell, 21, of North Wilkesboro, was taken to Wake Forest University Baptist Medical Center by Wilkes EMS for treatment of critical injuries.

Izquierdo was traveling east and Aaron was traveling west when they both went left of center and collided head-on in the middle of the street, Officer D.L. Thornton said.

The impact destroyed both vehicles and Izquierdo was trapped in his vehicle for an extended period of time before being removed from the wreckage by Wilkes Rescue Squad personnel, Thornton said. Wilkesboro first responders and firemen provided assistance at the scene.

The wreck remains under investigation, Thornton indicated.

Deported immigrant in custody again

<http://www.newsobserver.com/2012/02/02/1824122/deported-immigrant-in-custody.html>

SMITHFIELD -- Immigration authorities are trying to again deport a suspected gang member who moved to Selma after twice crossing the Mexican border illegally.

Smithfield police arrested Lloyd Wilborn "Negro" Berthram, 26, of 408 Lizzie St. on Jan. 25. He was wanted by U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement, who took him to an Alamance County detainment center.

According to U.S. District Court filings, Berthram - who also uses the names Samuel Ernesto Berthram-Martinez and Daniel Berthram - was deported in 2010 to Mexico after he served jail time for an armed robbery in Duplin County. He was told he couldn't return to the country without permission from the U.S. Attorney General.

On Dec. 27, immigration officers got an anonymous tip that Berthram had crossed the border again and was living with a girlfriend in Selma. The officers sent arrest warrants and a photo to Selma Police Capt. Richard Cooper.

A few weeks later, Cooper was off duty when he spotted Berthram eating dinner at the Pizza Hut on North Bright Leaf Boulevard in Smithfield. Cooper called in Smithfield police to make the arrest.

According to court documents, Berthram was easy to identify because of the MS-13 gang tattoo on his head. The international gang, also known as Mara Salvatrucha, started in Los Angeles and was involved in a number of violent crimes in Charlotte in the past decade.

Berthram appeared in U.S. District Court in Raleigh on Wednesday, and a magistrate decided to continue his detainment until a formal deportation hearing Monday.

Are the cartels taking over North Carolina?

http://www.examiner.com/drug-cartel-in-national/are-the-cartels-taking-over-north-carolina?CID=examiner_alerts_article

REIDSVILLE, N.C. — Deputies say two men were arrested after about 1,060 lbs. of marijuana and hundreds of thousands of dollars in cash was found in their Reidsville home.

According to a news release from the Rockingham County Sheriff's Office, Antonio Nunez, 30, and Jose Gomez, 26, were both arrested after deputies and police searched their home at 803 O'Bryant Road on Sunday.

During the search, deputies said they seized about 1,060 lbs. of marijuana, $600,000 in cash, and an AR-15 assault rifle. .

The two suspects, who deputies said are in the U.S. illegally, are each in jail under I.C.E. detainers and $1 million secured bonds.

In recent years, Mexican drug cartels have been steadily increasing their presence in North Carolina, giving way to gangs such as the notoriously violent MS-13 which works as street level dealers for the cartels.

The Mexican cartels are sending massive amounts of heroin into North Carolina which is produced from opium from poppy fields throughout western Mexico. With Charlotte now the main distribution center for Mexico's black tar heroin, the drug is more than plentiful inside the city, and the cost is a mere $12.50 a dose.

Since 2005, average heroin seizures have grown in Charlotte by an incredible 233 percent, from 214 grams to 714. A single dose is usually one 10th of a gram.

The Drug Enforcement Administration reports that during 2008 alone, heroin seizures across North Carolina increased by 77 percent over the previous year.

That tremendous supply streaming into Charlotte is fueling a rapidly growing demand which is having a devastating effect on many of the city's residents.

The McCleod Addictive Disease Center in Charlotte reports that they now see 15 to 20 new patients daily, seeking treatment for heroin addiction. The center's program manager, Ronnie Bradley says that in 2008, that number was only seven or eight.

In 2009, Charlotte Police Captain Mike Adams told the Charlotte Observer that heroin addiction among the city's youth population is becoming a major problem. Capt. Adams said: "A lot of what we deal with is teens, is high school."

On April 11, 2008, the U.S. Justice Department's National Drug Intelligence Center released a situation report, illustrating just how widespread the activities of Mexican drug cartels have become throughout the U.S.

The sobering assessment read: "Mexican DTO's (Drug Trafficking Organizations) are the most pervasive organizational threat to the United States. They are active in every region of the country and dominate the illicit drug trade in every area except the Northeast."

That same report said that both the Sinaloa and Juarez Cartels now operate in Charlotte.

Another symptom of Charlotte's growing cartel activity is which has become all too commonplace in border-states like Texas and Arizona...kidnapping.

On September 29, 2009, Charlotte-Mecklenburg police arrested previously deported illegal alien, Ruben Garcia-Rosario, 25. He was charged with two counts of attempted first-degree kidnapping, felony conspiracy, carrying a concealed weapon, and driving without a license.

The Mexican national was planning to kidnap two sisters, ages 7 and 8, and hold them for a six-figure ransom.

Lillington license plate employees face 1,000-plus criminal charges

<http://www.fayobserver.com/articles/2012/02/03/1155017?sac=fo.crime>

LILLINGTON - Two former employees at the Lillington License Plate Agency faces a total of 1,119 charges that resulted in the closing of the office Thursday.

Lynetta Green, 35, of the 100 block of Woodbridge Drive in Lillington is charged with 260 felony counts each of altering vehicle titles and accessing government computers to defraud, said Marge Howell, a spokeswoman for the Division of Motor Vehicles in Raleigh.

Green also is charged with 260 misdemeanor counts of violating registration provisions, Howell said.

The second employee, Janet Faye McLean, 57, of South Second Street in Lillington is charged with 113 counts each of the same offenses, Howell said.

The woman are accused of knowingly taking expired driver's licenses and state-issued identification cards from Hispanics who were getting titles for vehicles or registering them, Howell said.

The victims would present licenses or identification cards that were issued prior to 2006, Howell said.

That was when legislators changed the law, requiring a Social Security number in order to get a license or identity card, she said.

All the victims held cards that were issued before 2006, Howell said.

The women also are accused of charging them higher fees than those set by the state, Howell said.

She did not know how much money the women made off the scam.

Investigators shuttered the Lillington office at 1190 N. Main St. on Thursday and canceled a contract because of "inappropriate activities," Howell has said.

An internal review of the office, which opened June 1, 2010, revealed irregularities on the part of two employees, a DMV release said.

The office was contracted with John L. Johnson of Turnpike Road in Fayetteville, the release said.

The contract was voided, the DMV release said, because the agency has not met its obligations. Johnson is not eligible to handle the property and money, according to the release.

"Employees of the agency have shown repeated disregard for the NC DMV license plate agency's standard operating procedures," it stated.

Green's bail was set at $10,000, while McLean's bond was set at $5,000.

Third person charged in Lillington license plate agency fraud case

<http://www.fayobserver.com/articles/2012/02/06/1155598?sac=fo.local>

The owner of an Angier insurance company has been charged with hundreds of counts of fraud and conspiracy, becoming the third person to be charged in a scheme to register vehicles illegally on behalf of people without Social Security cards, according to the state Division of Motor Vehicles.

Dalia Sosa Urbina, 42, the owner of J&D Insurance Co., is charged by DMV investigators with a total of 1,147 counts of title fraud, conspiracy, notary fraud and common-law forgery, as well as misdemeanor counts of violating motor vehicle provisions, Marge Howell, a DMV spokeswoman, said Monday.

State insurance investigators also charged Urbina with 25 counts of obtaining property by false pretenses, said Marni Schribman, a spokeswoman for the state Department of Insurance.

Urbina, of Good Circle in Fuquay-Varina, is accused of helping two License Plate Agency employees contact the people whose vehicles they fraudulently titled, Howell said.

"There were Hispanics that were coming into the insurance company, and Ms. Urbina was processing their paperwork and notarizing it, charging for taking that paperwork to DMV," Howell said. "I don't believe the people went to DMV, so she was taking the paperwork to DMV on their behalf."

Schribman said Urbina notarized vehicle titles and falsely indicated that insurance binders had been issued on vehicles. An insurance binder is a temporary agreement that an insurance policy is in effect.

Urbina was not authorized to write insurance policies for the companies she claimed to be providing the binders, she said.

The investigation is continuing with more charges pending, Schribman said.

Urbina was arrested Friday and was being held at the Harnett County Jail with bail set at $500,000.

Woman wanted by NC, arrested in NY

http://www.nytimes.com/2012/02/05/nyregion/a-sometimes-murky-line-between-reasonable-parenting-and-neglect.html?_r=2

Xiao Xu Wu, a Manhattan, NY mother, is accused of leaving her child untended in a casino hotel in Connecticut.

Two weeks ago, Ms. Wu, a resident of the Wise Towers, a public-housing development on West 90th Street, found herself charged with risking injury to a minor after, the authorities said, she left her 5-year-old son by himself in her room at the Mohegan Sun while she gambled.

The police arrived after the boy, awake from a nap, called 911 sounding calm and playful to report that he was alone and watching television. According to Ms. Wu, who appeared in court with an interpreter of Mandarin, the boy had been alone for an hour. As she said to prosecutors, she didn't feel she had done anything particularly wrong.

Fingerprinting of Ms. Wu quickly revealed that she faced even greater troubles: she was wanted not only by federal immigration officials, but also by the authorities in North Carolina, where there was an outstanding warrant for her arrest on charges that she had trafficked in counterfeit Louis Vuitton handbags.

<http://yellowtape.blogs.starnewsonline.com/17675/reward-offered-for-brunswick-county-break-in-suspect/>

Authorities are offering a reward for information leading to the arrest of a suspect wanted in connection with numerous burglaries that occurred over the past few months in Brunswick County.

Officers have drawn warrants for the suspect, Hamilton John Ortiz Bones, 33, who has been linked to several residential break-ins and larcenies in the county.

Authorities ask that anyone with information about the suspect call their local law enforcement agency. Officials did not immediately release the amount of reward being offered for information about Bones' whereabouts.

Brunswick County Sheriff's office makes record Meth bust

<http://www.wwaytv3.com/2012/02/06/brunswick-county-sheriffs-office-makes-record-meth-bust>

BRUNSWICK COUNTY, NC (WWAY) -- Agents with the Brunswick County Sheriff's Office Vice Narcotics Unit in cooperation with the Wilmington field office of the USDEA seized more than $400,000 in ICE Crystal Methamphetamine.

Agents arrested Ruben Aguirre-Damian, Juan Aguirre-Mojica of Ash, NC and Miguel Angel Hernandez of Marietta, Georgia. The seizure of more than two kilograms of ICE Crystal Methamphetamine is the single largest methamphetamine seizure in Brunswick County history.

Investigators have now determined that Ruben Aguirre-Damian was the cell head in southeastern North Carolina for a much larger Cocaine and Methamphetamine drug trafficking organization based in Georgia. Agents have determined that the Methamphetamine was not manufactured in North Carolina.

The two month investigation, led investigators to a residence, located a 2196 Exum Road in Ash. From January 16th through the 18th, Agents coordinated searches at various locations including the residence located on Exum Road. Due to the searches Agents located seized approximately two kilograms of ICE Crystal Methamphetamine, two firearms, a 1999 Chevrolet Blazer and 2004 Honda Pilot.

This investigation is ongoing at this time. Anyone with information regarding this seizure and arrests or with any other drug information is requested to call the Brunswick County Sheriff's Office at 910-253-2777 or the Wilmington DEA office at 910-815-4513.

Clinton store owner facing drug charges http://www.clintonnc.com/view/full_story/17418924/article-Clinton-store-owner-facing-drug-charges?

A Clinton store owner was placed under a $65,000 secured bond after being taken into custody late last week and accused of selling out-of-country medications without a license and synthetic urine used to alter drug tests.

Musa Adbellatif Odeh, 39, of 3449 Bonnetsville Road, Salemburg, was charged with dispensing medication without a license; defrauding drug/alcohol screen tests; sales of glass tubes/splitters by a retailer; and manufacturing or delivering of drug paraphernalia. Odeh was taken into custody on Thursday, Feb. 2 at his business, the Happy Mart Tobacco Outlet/Shop, located at 202 N.E. Blvd., Clinton, around 3 p.m.

He was placed under the $65,000 bond and a trial date of March 6 was set. Odeh posted bail within an hour and was released.

According to reports, released Monday, the Clinton Police Department's Neighborhood Improvement Team (NIT) had been investigating Odeh's store for weeks prior to the arrest.

A warrant was obtained for a search of the property and an arrest came shortly thereafter.

In addition to synthetic urine and the out-of-country medications allegedly being sold at the business, investigators discovered hundreds of drugs; 13 glass tubes, commonly used by crack addicts, and a hundreds of antibiotics.

"Most of the perscription drugs that were seized were from Mexico," said Clinton Police Capt. Jay Tilley. "Medicines were being sold from there that shouldn't have been. That synthetic urine is commonly used to beat drug tests."

Police reports note that other drugs seized at the store included 40 entero guamil antibiotics; 48 conmel Mr. tablets; 32 Xenical (weight loss) tablets; musflex; and 11 melaisol.

According to Tilley, the arrest did not close the store down.

"They are still open," he said Monday.

Man convicted of driving while impaired, now wanted in Asheboro murder.

<http://whiteville.com/articles/2012/02/02/news/doc4f2a935c106bd580170978.txt>

Probation Officer Amy Cartrette put Sergio Pelayo Rios' name into a relatively new criminal database system here in Columbus County. What she got surprised her, and she took the information to her boss, Kay Horne.

Both women checked and double-checked the data. It appeared Rios matched the description of a man wanted by Asheboro police on a charge of murder. Asheboro authorities were contacted, and an old ID photo of Rios was made available.

The photos matched, except for minor changes during the past 17 years. Rios, 38, was picked up by authorities here and held for the Asheboro investigators. He was taken to the Randolph County city late last week and charged with the murder of a man there on July 24, 1994.

“Amy put Rios’ name into the system, one that shows un-served warrants across all counties in the state, and she found his name. It appears he was using Pelayo Rios as his name back then, and also used a different birth date.” Horne said.

Rios pleaded guilty here on Jan. 18 to driving while impaired during a session of DWI Court. He was placed on probation for 30 months, and fined $400. His blood-alcohol level showed 0.28 when arrested last year by a Highway Patrol trooper.

The murder involved the death of Jacinto L. Zarate of Asheboro, shot with an AK-47 rifle. Three suspects were named, and Rios’ brother, Felipe Rios, 41, served a term of 10 years for the slaying. Another man was apparently not convicted, because he has no criminal record, according to the Department of Correction’s website.

“The women in the probation office went above and beyond their duty in this case, and we’re very grateful,” Asheboro Police Lt. Richard Thompson said.

The old ID photo was found at the scene of the crime in 1994, and police used it to confirm Rios, living in the 2800 block of Hinson Road, Cerro Gordo, was the man they wanted, according to a story in the Courier-Tribune of Asheboro.

Ironically, Sergio Rios served three months in a North Carolina prison for a 2002 DWI conviction, but his true identity was not uncovered. He was sent to prison when his probation in Davidson County was revoked in December 2002.

Sergio Rios also had another conviction in Columbus County. He was convicted in September 2008 of driving with a revoked license, and served a jail term here.

<http://www.newsobserver.com/2012/02/08/1839070/two-arrested-with-over-1-pound.html>

Two Wendell men have been arrested and charged with possession of more than 1 pound of marijuana.

Konstantinos Velissariou, 29, of 518 N Pine St. in Wendell, N.C., was arrested Tuesday. He is charged with two counts of possessing marijuana, according to his arrest warrant.

Velissariou had approximately two pounds of marijuana, according to the Wake County Sheriff's Office. His bond was set at $25,000. He recently finished a year-long probation after being charged with DWI in September 2010.

John Velissariou, 23, also of 518 N Pine St., is being charged with possession with intent to sell approximately one pound of marijuana.

An immigration investigation was submitted for Velissariou, who is from Greece, but no federal detention order has been filed for him at this point. He also faces a bond of $25,000.

Son and friend charged in mother's throat-slashing

<http://www.shelbystar.com/articles/slashing-61874-teen-throat.html>

SHELBY — Police charged two teens in the throat-slashing attack on a Shelby mother and, sources say, one of the boys arrested was her 15-year-old son.

Lindsay Wood, 32, read the Bible for more than an hour to her attacker after he used a knife to cut her throat. That attacker, police say, was 16-year-old Miguel Lopez.

They arrested Lopez Tuesday. They also arrested Wood's son but haven't released his name because he is only 15. Shelby police did release the charges against the 15-year old: Conspiracy to commit murder and attempted murder.

Lopez, of the 400 block of Martin Street in Shelby, faces charges of conspiracy to commit murder, attempted murder, secret assault and first-degree kidnapping.

Lopez is being held in the Cleveland County Detention Center under a $1 million bond.

Because police have not released the 15-year-old's name, The Star does not know where he is being held.

Deputies Seize 118 Pounds Of Marijuana From Home

<http://www.wcti12.com/news/30397703/detail.html>

CRAVEN COUNTY -- Craven County Sheriff's Office said this happened late Friday night in Vanceboro, on N.C. Highway 43.

Deputies said 118 pounds of marijuana was seized from the home. 57-year-old Irma Castro Armendariz is facing charges including trafficking in marijuana and possession with intent to sell and manufacture marijuana.

The marijuana is valued at $118,000.

Deputies said Armendariz was home alone when investigators raided the place full of marijuana. Deputies said Brigido Lopez-Chaparro, 51, and Marcus Anthony Lopez are also wanted in connection with this crime.

Deputies said the three pot sellers were cutting and packing the goods. They also found an AK 47 rifle, hand gun and a money-counting machine.

Neighbors tell News Channel 12 they are not sure how many people live in the home behind me. They said a couple has been renting the home for the last few months but additional people are always coming and going from the house.

"There's been a lot of activity across the way. A lot of heavy equipment parked behind the woods that you can barely see from the roads. A lot of traffic in and out," Fell said.

Armendariz is held in Craven County jail under a $1,000,000 dollar bond. Her next court date is scheduled for Feb. 27.

Alleged member of Wilson larceny gang strikes in Greene County

<http://www.kinston.com/news/larceny-79831-member-alleged.html>

WALSTONBURG — A member of an upstart gang out of Wilson — formed last summer to steal high-priced electronics, firearms and jewelry from Hispanic families — has allegedly gone solo, expanding his reach into Greene County.

Luis Jose Mendoza, 17, was taken into custody Thursday around 12:30 p.m. at his 301 Harper St. home in Wilson as the latest member of the “Wide Awake Boys” gang to be arrested for felony theft.

Mendoza was charged with a single count of breaking and entering, larceny and larceny of a firearm for allegedly stealing two rifles and a flat-screen television from an Appie Road home in the Greene County area of Walstonburg, said Detective Matt Sasser of the Greene County Sheriff's Office.

While Sasser said Mendoza acted alone in the Walstonburg theft, charges may be pending against Mendoza in Wilson County where he is believed to have been part of a four-man home burglary crew that stole $30,000 worth of property from as many as seven households, said Detective W. Mayo of the Wilson County Sheriff's Office.

On Monday, the group's leader — 23-year-old David Bautista of Wilson — was arraigned in Wilson County District Court on six felony counts of breaking and entering and five felony counts of larceny, court records show.

Also charged in the theft ring include Calixto Rodriguez Jr., 17, and Eustacio Vences, Jr., 18, both of Wilson.

Rodriguez has been charged with three felony counts each of breaking and entering and larceny, while Vences faces a single felony count of obtaining property under false pretenses.

Mendoza has his first appearance in Greene County District Court scheduled for Friday. Rodriguez and Vences have their next hearing in the case scheduled for May 14. While Mendoza, Rodriguez and Vences have traffic violation and drug charges currently pending in Wilson County, none of the four have any prior convictions, according to court records.

Mayo, who worked to submit a final investigative report in the case on Monday, said the Wide Awake Boys first came into existence in July.

Bautista, Rodriguez and Mendoza allegedly committed the thefts and passed along the loot — which Mayo said largely consisted of jewelry, clothing, rifles and high-end electronics taken from Hispanic households in eastern Wilson County — to Vences, who sold the items for cash at a pawn shop in Wilson.

That's where Mayo found the television stolen from the home in Walstonburg, he said.

Upon questioning Mendoza, Mayo said Mendoza confessed to the crime and provided information on the Wide Awake Boys' operation.

Mayo said he has yet to recover the rifles taken from Appie Road in Walstonburg, but he said, as each day passes, he learns more about the group.

"I definitely anticipate more charges," he said.

2nd suspect wanted in '03 killing

<http://www.charlotteobserver.com/2012/02/11/3005389/2nd-suspect-wanted-in-03-killing.html>

A Union County woman made a plea to the nation this weekend for help in finding a suspect in the 2003 slaying of her father, an elderly volunteer firefighter.

Theresa McClung appeared in an episode of "America's Most Wanted" that aired Friday night to speak about her father, Charles Hanley, who was stabbed to death in an apparent robbery. He was 75.

Timothy "TK" Kennedy, a 40-year-old from Monroe who worked with Hanley at a local paving company, is in prison, serving a minimum 18-year sentence for murder in connection with Hanley's death.

But authorities are still searching for another suspect: Jose Torres Manuel Miranda, 30.

On June 10, 2003, McClung got a call from someone telling her that her father had not arrived at work that morning. She went to his New Town Estates home, near the town of Mineral Springs, to check on him and found him lying on the floor, dressed in his nightclothes and covered in blood.

Authorities from the Union County Sheriff's Office said there was no sign of forced entry but the home showed signs of a struggle.

About a month later, authorities arrested Kennedy and announced they were searching for Miranda, who had also been charged with murder.

Investigators said Hanley carried large sums of cash and may have lent money to Kennedy. They said Miranda did not know Hanley but was a friend of Kennedy's, and was in the house at the time of Hanley's death.

At the time of the killing, Miranda was 22 and living in Monroe. He was described as 5-feet-6 and about 235 pounds.

In 2004, authorities announced an $11,000 reward for information leading to Miranda's arrest. But he has not been found.

According to "America's Most Wanted," Miranda may have an "M" tattoo on his chest, and his skin is discolored on one hand. He often finds work in construction.

There's a possibility that the suspect fled to Mexico and that "Miranda" may not even be his real last name.

Indoor Marijuana Growing Operation Busted By Deputies

<http://www.wtsbradio.com/pages/localnews.html>

Johnston County deputies stumbled across a large indoor marijuana growing operation Friday afternoon near Selma. Authorities went to 2165 Highway 39 North, Selma to arrest an individual on charges of filing a false police report, when they reportedly found 31 marijuana plants in two barns. Each plant was approximately 9 foot tall.

Tammy Amaon, Public Information Officer for the Johnston County Sheriff's Office, said Arturo Herrera, 44, had recently reported his debit card had been stolen and used at stores in the local area. When a sheriff's detective went to the businesses to review video surveillance cameras to see who was using the card, they identified Herrera as the suspect, Amaon said.

Officers obtained a warrant charging Herrera with filing a false police report. While serving a search warrant at his home Friday, deputies allegedly found the 31 plants, along with an elaborate indoor growing operation, in the two barns behind his residence.

Herrera was arrested on felony marijuana manufacturing charges and placed in the Johnston County Jail.

HOKE COUNTY, N.C. -Three employees at a Butterball facility in Hoke County have been arrested and charged in connection with allegations of abuse at the facility. Sheriff's deputies are searching for 3 more.

The three arrested are Ruben Mendoza, of an unknown address, charged with Felonious obtaining of Property by False Pretenses, Felonious Identity Theft, and Misdemeanor Cruelty to Animals.

Jose Garcia from Shannon faces Felony charges for Identity Theft and Obtaining Property by False Pretenses.

And Terry Johnson from Red Springs is charged with Misdemeanor Cruelty to Animals.

Hoke County Sheriff Hubert Peterkin said, "The way they treated the animals, you see the charges are cruelty to animals, so that's basically the nature of the charge, they were doing things that they shouldn't have been doing."

So far the investigation implicates workers, and not managers, at the Butterball Farm in Shannon and Tar Heel Hatchery in Raeford. The sheriff says these arrests are just the beginning.

"It's probably gonna be more, from what we're looking at," said Sheriff Peterkin.

This comes after a high-level state agriculture department employee was charged and suspended in connection with the incident.

NBC-17 was the first to report that charges would be filed Wednesday against other Butterball employees.

At 3 p.m. on Wednesday, three employees were brought into the Hoke County Jail. They were charged in connection to the case.

Officials at the Hoke County Sheriff's Office say they are still waiting to charge three more employees. Charges against the employees have yet to be announced.

This charges come after Dr. Sarah Mason was given a two week unpaid suspension, which began Feb. 13. Mason pleaded guilty to obstruction of justice and resist, delay, obstruct a public officer after she admitted to tipping off a vet at the facility.

She appeared before Judge John Horne, Jr. on Wednesday and was sentenced to 45 days in the Hoke Co. Jail. Her jail sentence was suspended in exchange for 12 months unsupervised probation.

Mason will also be required to attend two ethics training courses, attend monthly meetings with her supervisor to review industry contacts.

Mason admitted to investigators that she tipped off a vet at the Hoke County Butterball facility days before the December raid. The facility was under investigation for alleged animal abuse.

Although authorities say she initially lied about the leak. Mason said in a statement, "Nobody at the department was aware of the actions I took."

The investigation revealed that Mason acted alone and without the knowledge and consent of her superiors at the Department of Agriculture.

LEALMAN — The 39-second cell phone video made that morning shows Landy Martinez-Esquivel bound in his bathtub and crying.

It's not Jose's fault, the 21-year-old says in Spanish, according to authorities. It was my fault.

An hour later, the same name surfaces in a desperate 911 call.

"Help. Help. They're going to kill me. Help. Please help me. Help me," Martinez-Esquivel yells to a dispatcher. "Jose, no!"

For nearly two hours on the morning of Dec. 21, authorities say Jose Magana Adame, 24, kept Martinez-Esquivel, his ex-boyfriend, a prisoner in his home in unincorporated Lealman.

Then Adame shot him while he was on the phone with 911, Sheriff Bob Gualtieri said at a news conference Friday. The shots come about 50 seconds into the call. One shot was to the back of his head. The other, through the chest.

Adame and Martinez-Esquivel had a long on-again, off-again relationship. They had lived together at 5476 57th Ave. N for about three weeks. But in the days leading up to the incident, they had been arguing over a vehicle.

On Dec. 13, Martinez-Esquivel called the Sheriff's Office to report that his ex-boyfriend had stolen his vehicle. Adame had apparently taken the vehicle a couple of weeks before, left the state, and had been blowing through red-light cameras and getting parking tickets, all of which were sent to Martinez-Esquivel, a report states. The squabble caused Adame to move out, Gualtieri said.

Those around Martinez-Esquivel were worried for him. One of the homeowners, Yadira Guzman, was so worried about Adame coming back to the home that she installed a surveillance system in the house. She monitored the cameras remotely from North Carolina, Gualtieri said.

About 11:15 a.m. the day of the shooting, she called deputies to tell them the system had been cut. She was worried and wanted them to do a welfare check.

Deputies came to the home and found a broken window and a door ajar. They found Martinez-Esquivel dead in a bedroom.

Deputies found remnants of duct tape on his wrists and legs.

After the shooting, Adame fled to Hickory, N.C., where he was arrested in an unrelated burglary, authorities said. Adame, who is in the country illegally, was placed on an immigration hold. Adame denied committing the homicide, Gualtieri said.

A Pinellas County grand jury later indicted him on a murder charge. On Friday, he was in jail in Catawba County, N.C. He's expected to be returned to Pinellas County within the month.

One suspect is arrested in robbery

http://www.journalpatriot.com/news/article_3ab2f322-5f1a-11e1-9051-001a4bcf6878.html

One suspect was in custody at press time and another was still being sought in connection with an armed robbery this morning at the Advance Auto Parts store on Second Street in North Wilkesboro.

Denis Sotelo Reyes, 18, of I Street, North Wilkesboro, was interviewed late this morning at the North Wilkesboro Police Department and charged with robbery with a dangerous weapon and felony assault by pointing a gun, according to Major Scott Teague of the North Wilkesboro Police Department. He is being held at the Wilkes County Jail.

Police are still looking for a second person of interest, Braylan Colop Lopez, 18, of Cricket Park Road, North Wilkesboro.

Two young men walked into the store and were met by Advance employees, according to Sgt. Gary Tilley, who was the first investigating officer on the scene. One of the suspects pointed a handgun at the employees and forced them to empty a cash drawer in a bag.

One of the suspects held a gun to an employee's head as the cash drawer was emptied, Tilley said. He noted that one of the suspects was wearing a ski mask.

The two suspects fled the scene on foot, headed south into an overgrown wooded area behind Advance Auto Parts and the nearby Wilco convenience store, Tilley said.

An Advance employee reported the robbery at 9:06 a.m. and Tilley was on the scene in about two minutes, North Wilkesboro Police Chief Joe Rankin said.

Tilley secured the scene while other North Wilkesboro officers and several deputies from the Wilkes Sheriff's Department, including Capt. Victor Hall, cordoned off the area and began searching for the suspects, Rankin said. Wilkesboro police officers came to answer calls in North Wilkesboro while North Wilkesboro officers were busy with the investigation. Wilkesboro Police Chief Robert Bowlin also responded to the scene.

North Wilkesboro Officer T.R. Nichols, riding a four-wheeler, located Reyes in a wooded area about 100 yards south of the robbery scene, Rankin said. Reyes was attempting to hide himself under brush and briars. He surrendered without incident.

An undisclosed amount of money stolen during the robbery, the handgun, the ski mask and other items were recovered nearby, Rankin said.

"I'm extremely proud of my officers, with the way they handled this situation," Rankin commented. "There was an immediate response" after the robbery was reported.

Rankin thanked the Wilkesboro Police Department and the sheriff's department for assisting with the search. "This is another example of the team effort" that the departments employ in assisting each other.
