Police make arrest in fatal biker shooting

<http://m.fayobserver.com/articles?path=/articles/2013/02/20/1238621>

Fayetteville police have charged a 24-year-old man with shooting a motorcyclist to death on Bragg Boulevard early Tuesday.

A reported shooting of another biker about 10 minutes later along Cliffdale Road was an unrelated case of road rage, investigators said Wednesday.

Authorities initially believed there may have been a connection between the two incidents around 3 a.m. Tuesday. But police said they determined that the fatal shooting of Craig Spencer Morris, 50, stemmed from a dispute earlier in the evening in Carolina Square, a strip center with bars and clubs on Bragg Boulevard.

Francisco Echeverria, 24, of Cambridge Arms apartments got into an argument with Morris in the parking lot, police said. Echeverria waited for Morris to drive off on his bike, then followed him and shot him near Sycamore Dairy Road, police said.

Echeverria was charged Wednesday with first-degree murder. Police believe an unidentified person may have been in the car with Echeverria.

Just after 3 a.m., motorcyclist Matthew John Key reported being shot at and run off Cliffdale Road by unidentified people in a silver sedan. Police said they found no connection between Morris' shooting and what happened to Key. Investigators worked on the cases for more than 24 hours nonstop, according to a spokesman, and also found no indication that Morris' death was somehow tied to gangs or club rivalries. Morris, a former Marine, belonged to the local chapter of the Hells Angels motorcycle club.

In Key's case, police said the 30-year-old got into a verbal altercation with two people in a Chevrolet sedan. Witnesses reported seeing Key get into the argument after he and the car's driver pulled into the parking lot of the Value Place Hotel on Cliffdale Road. Then both vehicles sped off heading west.

Key told police someone in the car shot at him several times, though investigators haven't been able to find evidence of gunfire, Lt. Chris Davis said. The car hit Key's motorcycle, causing him to wreck near the 8400 block, then drove off, police said.

Key was injured in the crash.

Police are still looking for the people in the car and asked anyone with information about them to call Detective Orellano at 988-6543 or CrimeStoppers at 483-TIPS.

Knightdale robbery, school lockdowns tied to drug deal

<http://www.newsobserver.com/2013/02/06/2659205/knightdale-robbery-manhunt-lockdowns.html#storylink=cpy>

KNIGHTDALE — A robbery that led to a manhunt and the lockdown of eight schools in eastern Wake County last week stemmed from a drug deal that went wrong, according to search warrants made public Tuesday.

Deputies arrested a fourth suspect, Pablo Gonzalo Marcano, 25, on Tuesday evening and charged him with robbery with a dangerous weapon, conspiracy to commit robbery with a dangerous weapon, felony breaking and entering and second-degree kidnapping.

On Jan. 30, Wake County sheriff's deputies cordoned off an area and brought dogs to search for four men after a robbery was reported at a home at 228 Fox Run Drive in the Lizard Lick community about 9:45 that morning.

The robbers were reported to be armed.

After deputies found a rifle and a pistol in a car that matched the description of the getaway car, officials locked down East Wake and Knightdale high schools, East Wake Middle School and Knightdale, Forestville Road, Lockhart and Hodge Road elementary schools as a precaution.

The search warrants were for a black 1998 Jeep Cherokee from which deputies said four men ran and for a GPS unit and cell phones found in it.

In asking for the warrants, deputies wrote that the incident began when the quartet went to the Fox Run house for what the residents – Eddie Pugh and Angela Wilson – thought would be a drug sale.

Instead, according to the story deputies pieced together, three of the four men took a rifle from the car, kicked in the front door and stole a quarter-pound of marijuana.

They ran back to the car yelling “Go! Go! Go!” to the fourth man, deputies said.

A deputy answering the call spotted the Jeep, which fit what dispatchers had been told was the getaway car.

The car pulled into a parking lot and stopped, and the occupants fled when the deputy followed, the account says.

From the car, deputies seized a .270-caliber Marlin rifle with a scope, which fit what they had been told the robbers had at the house.

They also found an Airsoft pistol, the GPS and a phone.

The day of the robbery, police arrested Marcus Terrell Edrington, 21, of 204 Flowers St. in Knightdale; Ethan Jeffery Huff, 21, of 211 New Rand Road in Garner; and Iran Antonio Marcano, 23.

Deputies listed both Marcanos as living at 9700 Cypress Farm Road south of Zebulon, which one said is the last address authorities had for them.

Iran Marcano and Edrington were charged with the same offenses as Pablo Marcano, and Edrington also was charged with assault with a deadly weapon.

Deputies said Pugh had been hit in the head with a rifle.

Huff was charged with resisting arrest and with being an accessory after the fact of robbery.

The Marcanos and Edrington were being held at the Wake County Detention Center on $500,000 bonds each.

Huff was being held on a $150,000 bond.

Slain Garner-area couple were innocent victims in an escalating gang war

Jose and Maria Mendoza were caught in middle of gang war

<http://www.garnercleveland.com/2013/02/02/13705/slain-garner-area-couple-were.html>

GARNER- Sheriff's investigators recovered more than 40 spent shell casings and bullet fragments from the home of a slain Garner-area couple who were caught in the middle of an escalating war between two rival gangs in southwestern Wake County.

Jose and Maria Mendoza were the unintended victims of a bloodbath on Jan. 5 when two teen members of the Sur 13 gang unleashed a torrent of gunfire that turned their townhome at 708 Colonial Drive into a shooting gallery, according to search warrants made public Wednesday. The couple's 3-year-old child was unharmed in the shooting. An older child, a 12-year-old, was not at home at the time.

Israel Vasquez, 16, of 165 Montiseno Drive south of Garner, and Vasquez's 15-year-old nephew, who was processed as a juvenile, are charged with first degree murder, felony conspiracy, first-degree burglary and possession of stolen property. Vasquez, also was charged with possessing a firearm with an obliterated serial number.

Wake County Sheriff Donnie Harrison said there was no indication that the teens knew the couple.

The Mendozas were the unintended victims of a shooting that targeted a member of the VDM gang, an acronym for Very Dangerous Mexicans, investigator E.A. Welch stated in the search warrant. The intended target was David Gonzales, a member of VDM who once lived at the Mendoza's address with Cassandra Martinez.

Also, ballistics tests matched distinctive markings found on .45-caliber shell casings recovered from the Jan. 5 slaying with casings from a Dec. 4 shooting in which Vasquez and the same juvenile are also charged.

In that shooting, Juan Olvera Hernandez was wounded in the ankle when the rival gangs encountered each other on Meadowbrook Drive near E. Woodcrest Road. The witnesses told deputies that Gonzalez was also an intended target in that incident.

Pablo Daniel Reyes and his brother, Moises Reyes, were also charged in the shooting. Vasquez is charged as a juvenile in the Dec. 4 shooting because he did not turn 16 until Jan. 4, one day before the Mendoza murders, authorities reported.

One day after the Mendoza murders, Gonzalez contacted the sheriff's office to say he felt his life was in danger, because of an altercation with Pablo Daniel Reyes, also known as "Trigger," Welch stated.

On Jan 15, Wake deputy T.S. Barefoot charged Reyes's girlfriend, Itzamar Estrada, 18, with possession of an assault rifle that may have been used in the Mendoza murders.

Woman indicted on charges of using fake Social Security card

<http://www.thetimesnews.com/news/top-news/woman-indicted-on-charges-of-using-fake-social-security-card-1.87023>

GRAHAM — The woman at the center of an immigration battle after using a false Social Security number to attempt to get cable service — whose initial criminal charges were dismissed — was indicted Monday on two felonies.

Lorena Yanez-Mata, 26, of Robin Lane, Graham, was indicted on charges of felony common law uttering and identity theft.

According to the indictments, issued Monday by the Alamance County grand jury, Yanez-Mata is accused of using a falsely made Social Security card that “looked valid” to attempt to obtain cable service from Time Warner Cable on Huffman Mill Road in Burlington on July 30. The Social Security number belonged to Adrian Hernandez, the bill of indictment said.

Yanez-Mata had yet to be served with the indictments Wednesday.

Burlington Assistant Police Chief Chris Verdeck said the bills would be entered into a statewide database of warrants and orders for arrest, NCAWARE. When officers enter a person’s name into the database, unserved actions appear. Officers in the jurisdiction where Yanez-Mata lives, in this case Graham police, could also search for and serve unserved actions in their area.

Last month, Yanez-Mata’s original charge of obtaining property by false pretense was dismissed during a district court hearing after an assistant district attorney determined the charge didn’t fit the alleged crime. Alamance County District Attorney Pat Nadolski later said that dismissal was an error and that Yanez-Mata was still being investigated and was likely to be charged.

Following that dismissal and amid protests against her deportation, the U.S. Department of Homeland Security dropped its case against Yanez-Mata Dec. 13 — the day before she was scheduled to appear before an immigration judge in Charlotte. A spokesman for U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement said the case didn’t meet the federal government’s standards for prosecution and deportation.

Yanez-Mata said she’s lived in the U.S. illegally for eight years. She has a 7-year-old daughter and said she was trying to get cable for her.

On July 30, while completing an application for cable service, Yanez-Mata was led from the Time Warner Cable office and arrested after an employee alerted an off-duty Burlington police officer working security that the Social Security card appeared altered. An on-duty officer was called to the scene and she was arrested.

Through an interpreter, Yanez-Mata admitted to the Times-News in December that the Social Security card was falsified.

3 women behind $5M tax fraud scheme

<http://www.wsocvtv.com/news/news/special-reports/9-investigates-authorities-say-3-women-behind-5m-t/nWDDp/>

CHARLOTTE, N.C. — Federal agents said three women -- an undocumented immigrant, a legal resident and a U.S. citizen -- are behind a $5.1 million tax fraud scheme to steal money from the government and send cash to Mexico.

Court documents state the women filed hundreds of bogus tax returns and used the additional child tax credit to illegally claim credit for children in Mexico or children who don't exist.

The tax credit was intended to help working families who are raising three or more children by giving a refund of $1,000 per child. There's no limit on how many children under the age of 17 one person can claim.

Postal workers noticed a flood of U.S. treasury checks going to apartment mailboxes in May.

Eyewitness News spoke with neighbors at a complex off West Arrowood Road. Channel 9 asked neighbor Harisha Jackson if she saw police search an apartment.

"Yeah, we saw the police search the apartment, but they didn't say anything to us," Jackson said. "They searched the apartment and left. That was it."

Eyewitness News captured video when the IRS searched one suspect's home on Peach Place Lane in August.

The women, Cathy Lee Cisneros and Candida Mayo Figueroa, pleaded guilty in November and are waiting to be sentenced.

They helped the case against the accused tax scheme leader, Ana Portillo, who was indicted in December.

The women convicted could face 10 years in prison and a $250,000 fine. They will have to pay back the government. Because Figueroa is an undocumented immigrant, she will be deported.

A report from the treasury inspector general stated undocumented immigrants pocketed $4.2 billion in refunds in 2010.

Zebulon man charged with swindling $10K

<http://www.newsobserver.com/2013/02/12/2674870/zebulon-man-charged-with-swindling.html>

RALEIGH — Police have charged a Zebulon man with collecting $10,000 from two nightclub owners after he promised them that Daddy Yankee, a Grammy award-winning performing artist, would appear at their venue in Benson.

Daddy Yankee didn't show up. Raleigh police charged Elio Hernandez, 23, of Riley Hill Road with two felony counts of obtaining property by false pretenses, according to arrest warrants.

Police accused Hernandez of obtaining $5,000 apiece from Ronnie Gene Woodall of Benson and Jorge Rodolfo Vasquez Sagastume of Franklinton. Investigators say the men thought they were making a down payment to secure the appearance of Daddy Yankee, a Puerto Rican reggaeton and hip hop songwriter and recording artist.

Investigators think Hernandez used an altered contract to convince the men that he would perform at Ambis 1 in Benson. They say Daddy Yankee, whose real name is Ramón Luis Ayala Rodríguez, wasn't even in the United States on the scheduled dates, according to the arrest warrants.

In November, Hernandez was sentenced to 18 months probation by a Wake County judge after he was convicted of felony obtaining property by false pretenses, identity theft and counterfeiting, state records show.

He was in custody Tuesday at the Wake County jail in lieu of $10,000 bail, court records show.

Four arrested, placed under $1 million bonds for counterfeiting

SALISBURY — Four Charlotte-area men were taken into custody and placed in Rowan County jail under a $1 million bond each.

According to records, the men were arrested by the North Carolina State Highway Patrol Thursday night. Each was charged with felony forgery of securities and felony possession of more than five counterfeit tools.

Cassius Sutton, 22, and Tenarge Maurice Fitzgerald, 20, both of Charlotte, were arrested, along with Angel Rodriguez, 29, of Monroe and Patricio Ricardo Campoverde, 19, of Matthews. All four remained in Rowan County jail Friday.
