RALEIGH, N.C. -- A federal immigration agency lifted detention holds Thursday for two of the three demonstrators arrested at a state legislative hearing on illegal immigration.

Cynthia Lizabeth Martinez, 21, and Estephania Lizbeth Mijangos-Lopez, 20, were released from jail after the U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement agency determined that they didn't fit meet priority criteria, according to an official statement.

The third protester, Uriel Alberto, 24, remains in custody because he has a criminal record, the agency said.

The three Mexican-born immigrants interrupted a hearing Wednesday, wearing bright orange T-shirts that read "undocumented and unafraid."

They yelled at House lawmakers for expressing anti-immigration stances. The eruption came not long after Republican state Rep. George Cleveland suggested that illegal immigrants bring crime to the state.

Court records show that Alberto was charged with assaulting a female in 2009 and convicted of driving while intoxicated in 2008. Other charges include speeding and driving without a license.

S. Attorney Mrs. Sally Quillian Yates said. “The defendants and their robbery crew shot, stabbed, tortured, kidnapped, and restrained their victims, whom they suspected to be suspected drug dealers.”

Investigators Charged 3 People With Murder, Conspiracy

<http://www.wxii12.com/news/30542547/detail.html>

SURRY COUNTY, N.C. -- Detectives said arrest warrants have been issued on a third man involved in a fatal shooting in Rockford last month.

Sheriff Graham Atkinson said detectives from his office and agents from the State Bureau of Investigation are searching for Leonardo Perez Jacobo, who was living at 207 Apple Dr., Mount Airy at the time of the murder.

On Jan. 11, Grabiel Paul Valdez Sr. was shot multiple times while his son, Grabiel Valdez Jr., fled into the woods near the Rockford Bridge over the Yadkin River, authorities said. Detectives said after shooting the father, the suspects also attempted to gun down his son.

Atkinson said the father and son had been traveling with the three assailants who had been involved with the Valdez Jr. in cocaine trafficking. He said the shooting was over an unpaid drug debt Valdez owed the other men.

After the attack, Valdez Jr. went to a home in Rockford and called 911. He was only able to provide a partial identification of two of the suspects: Fernando Quiroz Terivan and Candido Hermanegildo Castanada.

Valdez Jr. told investigators he knew only their first names, but they had gone into a store in East Bend and bought beer. Surveillance video from the store captured pictures of the two suspects, and after detectives released the photos, they received an anonymous call from Patrick County that led them to a relative of Castanada who identified him as the second man in the picture.

After interviewing Castanada's family, investigators said Jacobo, also known as Leonoardo Perez, might be the third suspect. Detectives said they found Jacobo's relatives in Raleigh and Mount Airy, and they told investigators their kin spoke about the shooting.

Surry County detectives have obtained warrants charging all three with murder and conspiracy to commit murder, but no one has been found yet. They said Terivan was also charged with attempted murder for shooting at Valdez Jr.

Man arrested again on drug charges

<http://www.salisburypost.com/Crime/030212-WEB-New-drug-trafficking-charges-filed-against-Jose-Gomes-qcd>

The Criminal Investigations Division of the Rowan County Sheriff's Office searched a Crawford Drive home and arrested two men, one of which has used a number of aliases and been charged previously by the agency.

On Wednesday, investigators executed a search warrant at 315 Crawford Drive, Salisbury, in western Rowan County.

The search was the result of information that illegal controlled substances and stolen property were being stored at the home.

During the search, detectives discovered a small amount of marijuana, various items of drug paraphernalia and a stolen motorcycle from Kannapolis.

Upon the initial search, Ronald Howard Bentley was charged with misdemeanor possession of drug paraphernalia and felony possession of a stolen vehicle. Bentley was held in the Rowan County jail under a $2,500 bond. He has since been released.

While at the Crawford Drive home, detectives also took a man into custody who looked familiar to Lt. Chad Moose as a suspect in a drug investigation from the 1990s, a statement said.

This subject was discovered to have Mexican identification with the name Jose Gomes. Gomes was found in possession of a bag of marijuana and determined to be giving a false name.

Gomes was charged with misdemeanor possession of marijuana and misdemeanor possession of drug paraphernalia. Gomes remains in the Rowan County Detention Center under a $25,000 bond.

Gomes was fingerprinted and his prints were submitted through the U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE) where he was identified as Adan Zelaya-Ortiz, from El Salvador.

In 1996, the Rowan Sheriff's Office charged Zelaya-Ortiz with carrying a concealed handgun.

Investigators also checked records and identified Gomes as using the names of Guadalupe Gonzales and David Teran in a 1998 case.

In the 1998 case, Gonzales was arrested by Moose on an allegation of trafficking in cocaine and marijuana.

The 1998 case was completed when then-Sgt. Kevin Auten, now sheriff, and others with the Special Investigations Unit found 5 ounces of cocaine and more than 40 pounds of marijuana.

Gonzales was later deported by ICE, which is now participating in the new case against Gomes.

Raleigh man accused of using dead person's identity

<http://www.newsobserver.com/2012/03/14/1930497/raleigh-man-accused-of-using-false.html>

A 41-year-old Raleigh man has been arrested and accused of stealing the identity of a deceased person from Texas, authorities said.

Carlos Rodriguez of 2325 Fox Ridge Manor Road was arrested Tuesday. According to his arrest warrant, Rodriguez used a false social security number to try to obtain a North Carolina driver's license. The social security number belonged to an unidentified deceased person from Texas, according to the warrant.

Rodriguez's driver's license was suspended in June due to speeding convictions, when he was charged with speeding in excess of 80 mph, and driving 100 mph in a 70 mph zone.

Rodriguez faces a separate charge of driving with a revoked license.

Rodriguez's bond has been set at $100,000. His warrant states that he may be a flight risk. No immigration detainer has been placed on Rodriguez.

Mexican cartel dismantled by U.S. agents (NC included)

<http://www.examiner.com/law-enforcement-in-national/supersized-dragnet-mexican-cartel-dismantled-by-u-s-agents>

The largest police dragnet against a transnational organized crime gang ever in the United States resulted in close to 2,000 arrests, and the seizure of upwards of $70 million in U.S. currency, 2,775 pounds of methamphetamine, 2,800 kilograms of cocaine, 1,000 pounds of heroin, and more than seven tons of marijuana, as well $3.8 million in other assets, according to a report obtained by the Law Enforcement Examiner from the National Association of Chiefs of Police yesterday.

Over 70 of these arrests took place in January, February and March 2012, and over 200 were arrested since June 1, 2011, the report states.

“Operation Delirium is the second successful, strategic and surgical strike to disrupt and destroy one of the most violent Mexican cartels, La Familia,” a narcotics enforcement officer told the Law Enforcement Examiner.

Operation Delirium is the result of police intelligence gathered during the course of a previous effort targeting La Familia, known as Operation Coronado, which was concluded in 2009.

As part of Delirium, arrests were made or charges were filed in numerous U.S. districts: the Central, Eastern and Southern Districts of California; the District of Columbia; the Northern District of Georgia, the District of Kansas; the Eastern District of Michigan; the Eastern District of Missouri; the District of New Mexico; the Eastern and Western Districts of North Carolina; the Northern, Southern and Western Districts of Texas, and others.

On June 21, 2011, Mexican law enforcement officers arrested La Familia leader and Consolidated Priority Organizational Target (CPOT) Jose de Jesus Mendez-Vargas, aka "El Chango" or "The Monkey," based on Mexican charges, according to the Examiner drug enforcement source.

Charges filed against suspects include conspiracy to distribute methamphetamine, cocaine and marijuana; distribution of methamphetamine, cocaine and marijuana; conspiracy to import narcotics into the United States; money laundering; and other violations of federal law. Numerous defendants face forfeiture proceedings as well.

More than 300 federal, state, local and foreign law enforcement agencies contributed investigative and prosecutorial resources to Operation Delirium through Organized Crime Drug Enforcement Task Forces in several states, said the drug enforcement source.

"Through their violent drug trafficking activities, including their hallmark of supplying most of the methamphetamine imported into the United States, La Familia is responsible for recklessly and violently destroying countless lives on both sides of the border," the drug enforcement officer -- who needs to maintain anonymity -- told the Examiner in a telephone interview on Monday.

Man, 35, charged with statutory rape after girl, 14, gives birth

<http://www.charlotteobserver.com/2012/03/13/3093160/man-charged-after-girl-14-gives.html>

A 35-year-old south Charlotte man has been charged with statutory rape after a 14-year-old girl gave birth to his child this weekend, according to police.

Jail officials say Juan Martinez Hernandez, who is believed to be in the country illegally, has run afoul of police and immigration agents before, following a 2010 drunken driving arrest.

It's unclear what became of Hernandez between his release to immigration agents in 2010 and the rape charges on Sunday. Immigration and Customs Enforcement officials couldn't be reached for comment Monday.

On Sunday, the 14-year-old gave birth to a baby in the bathroom of an apartment off Mont Carmel Lane near East Arrowood Road.

Her family called 911, and the responding paramedics asked police for assistance. The girl told police the baby's father was a man who lived in the neighborhood, and Charlotte-Mecklenburg police found and interviewed Juan Martinez Hernandez.

Hernandez "admitted to engaging in sexual intercourse with the victim on several occasions," according to a police report.

Hernandez was charged with four counts of statutory rape and two counts of indecent liberties with a child. He is in jail at the Mecklenburg County Sheriff's Office under a $250,000 bond. His first court appearance is this afternoon.

Jail officials suspect Hernandez is in the country illegally, said Julia Rush, a spokeswoman for the Mecklenburg Sheriff's Office. They've placed an immigration hold on him, but federal officials will make the final determination about his immigration status.

In July 2010, Hernandez was charged with driving while impaired, speeding, reckless driving and having no operator's license and booked into Mecklenburg jail.

According to jail records, an immigration hold was placed on him, but he was released about two weeks later.

Sheriff's spokeswoman Rush said he was processed through the 287g program then. The program, which has been used at the Mecklenburg jail since 2006, allows jailers to identify suspected illegal immigrants and begin deportation proceedings.

A state judge unsecured his bond in 2010, Rush said. That means Hernandez would have been freed from jail until his court date. But because of his status, he was released to immigration officials.

It's unclear what happened after that. The immigration agency didn't return calls from the Observer.

As officials tried to sort out what became of Hernandez, rumors of the rape charges quickly spread throughout the apartment complex where he lives.

Carrie Frazier, who lives near Hernandez, said she was waiting for her ride to church on Sunday morning when another neighbor told her a girl had given birth in a bathroom.

Frazier, 86, said she'd never met Hernandez but believes he lived in an apartment with family members. She'd never noticed anything suspicious going on at his apartment, she said.

No one answered a phone number listed for Hernandez.

Officer Jessica Lawrence, a Charlotte-Mecklenburg Police spokeswoman, said investigators aren't sure how Hernandez came in contact with the victim.

Police also haven't said why no one called officers when the girl showed signs of pregnancy.

Deputies intercept load of heroin from S.C.

<http://www.starnewsonline.com/article/20120313/articles/120319922?p=1&tc=pg>

Culminating a month long investigation focused on a suspected drug trafficker operating in Brunswick County, local authorities moved to dismantle what officials described Monday as an interstate pipeline funneling heroin into Southeastern North Carolina.

Four people believed to be players in the smuggling ring were arrested Thursday in a crackdown that Brunswick County Sheriff John Ingram said was likely to disrupt the heroin supply in the area, albeit too briefly.

"We hope that it will slow the trade down," he said. "But we know somebody will step up to take their place."

Officials announced the arrests during a press conference at the Brunswick County Sheriff's Office on Monday, during which investigators displayed the results of their effort: about $17,000 worth of heroin and a .40-caliber black and silver handgun, all seized when the suspects were taken into custody last week. The drugs and the gun were arranged on a conference room table to allow media organizations to take pictures and video.

Last week's arrests came as authorities have grappled in recent years with a burgeoning heroin market, growth fueled in large part by increased production in Mexico and greater involvement among drug cartels in the sale of South American heroin, according to a U.S. Justice Department report released last year.

Heroin remains "readily available" throughout the United States, the report concluded, even as the Mexican government has waged a bloody assault against drug-trafficking organizations pushing product across the border.

RALEIGH -- A Siler City resident known as “Waffles” was sentenced to more than eight years in prison on cocaine trafficking charges by a federal court today.

An investigation determined that Juan Rodriguez-Lopez, 30, delivered about 100 kilograms of cocaine to various drug dealers in the Eastern and Middle Districts of the state from August 2009 to his arrest in June 2010 by Raleigh police.

During that arrest, police seized four kilograms of cocaine and two firearms. Rodriguez-Lopez pleaded guilty to conspiring to distribute 500 grams or more of cocaine on April 6, 2011.

Gibsonville Police Department news release

Two arrested on drug charges

<http://www2.statesville.com/news/2012/mar/14/two-arrested-drug-charges-ar-2043471/>

A husband and wife are facing felony drug charges following an investigation into reported cocaine sales in eastern Iredell County.

Federico Coronado, 30, and his wife, Tamara, 41, both of Hoots Road, Statesville, were arrested on charges of felony possession of marijuana, possession with intent to sell/deliver marijuana and felony maintaining a dwelling/vehicle to keep/sell controlled substances.

Federico Coronado, who later admitted his real name is Jose-Coronado-Morrell, was also charged with possession with intent to sell/deliver cocaine and sale/delivery of cocaine.

His bond was set at $75,000 and his wife’s was set at $25,000.

Iredell Sheriff Phil Redmond said that information came into the sheriff's office indicating that a man was distributing large amounts of cocaine in eastern Iredell County.

The narcotics division launched an investigation.

An undercover officer, Redmond said, purchased powder cocaine from Federico Coronado.

On March 12, detectives conducted a search of Coronado's home, and found more than 3.5 pounds of marijuana, much of which was packaged for sale, Redmond said.

Coronado's wife, two adult males and an infant were at the home during the search, he said.

During the search, Redmond said, detectives found photo identification cards and Social Security cards that were found to be counterfeit.

After he was arrested, Redmond said, Coronado admitted his true name and that he is in the U.S. illegally.

A 9 mm handgun, reported stolen from Charlotte, was also discovered during the search, and an investigation into that, as well as the counterfeit documents and Coronado's immigration status is still ongoing, he said.

Redmond said authorities will be checking Coronado's fingerprints in an attempt to determine if the name he presented to detectives is his real name.

Additional charges may be filed once the investigation is complete.

Teen Charged With Exposing Himself

<http://www.wtsbradio.com/pages/localnews.html>

A Garner teen was arrested Thursday charged with exposing himself to two women Wednesday afternoon on Timber Drive near Aversboro Road. The victims said they saw Omar Antonio Hotusing Jr., 19, expose himself while driving a white Chevy Tahoe with a Florida license plate. Garner Police ask if there are any additional victims, to contact investigators at 919-772-8810. Hotusing was charged with two counts of indecent exposure.

Family Friend Accused Of Sexually Assaulting Child

<http://www.wtsbradio.com/pages/localnews.html>

A 22 year-old man has been charged with sexually assaulting a 14 year-old girl. The victim in the case is now 15. Authorities said the victim's mother found out about the alleged incidents and reported them to law enforcement. David Amilcar Zometa Osorio of Jenny Lane, Dudley was charged with statutory rape. He was given a $150,000 bond. The Wayne County Sheriff's Office says more charges will sought against Osorio through grand jury indictments. Investigators said Osorio was a friend of the victim's family.

Police: 2.5 pounds of cocaine found in car

<http://www.gastongazette.com/news/cocaine-68768-police-pounds.html>

A woman with more than 2½ pounds of cocaine in her car consented to a search by police after being stopped for an unspecified traffic infraction, according to police.

Police stopped Elsa Maria Heredia Frias, 39, at I-85 and Cox Road late Wednesday night.

Gastonia Police Street Crimes Unit Officers M.C. Bridges and A.L. Wilson made the stop and Frias consented to allowing them to search her vehicle, according to a warrant affidavit.

The 2.55 pounds of cocaine was found in two separate bags, according to police.

Frias, whose last name is listed as Heredia in Gaston County Jail records, was booked into Gaston County Jail on Thursday on charges of trafficking cocaine and possession of cocaine.

A magistrate set her bond at $300,000, but Sheriff's Office deputies put a hold on her release pending an Immigration and Customs Enforcement investigation to determine her legal immigration status.

Clayton Man Held In Shooting Of Neighbor

<http://www.wtsbradio.com/pages/localnews.html>

A Clayton man has been charged with shooting a neighbor during a verbal altercation. It reportedly happened Thursday at a home on Park Place in the Clayton Estates Mobile Home Park.

The 22 year-old victim told Clayton Police she had some friends over at her home and they became involved in a verbal disagreement with several people who were walking past. One suspect produced a shotgun and fired in their direction, striking the woman in the lower back and leg with pellets. The victim was treated and released at WakMed for a non-life threatening injury.

Police said Teodoro Aucecio Cecilio, 20, of Woodbriar Street, Clayton was located at his home on Friday and arrested on a felony count of assault with a deadly weapon inflicting serious injury with intent to kill. Cecilio was transported to the Johnston County Jail where he was incarcerated under a $150,000 bond.

Two charged with attempted murder in Raleigh

<http://www.newsobserver.com/2012/03/16/1938185/man-and-woman-charged-with-attempted.html>

RALEIGH -- Two men have been returned to North Carolina to face charges that they stabbed a third man in the chest earlier this month, forced him into a car and robbed him.

The pair had stabbed the man in the chest during a struggle, forced him into a car he had borrowed, drove him to a pond, robbed him of cash and a leather jacket and pushed him in, police spokesman Jim Sughrue said. Detectives had tracked the two to Myrtle Beach, S.C., and brought them back Friday after extradition proceedings there, Sughrue explained.

Juan Jose Ramon, 29, and Edy Cortez Ramirez, 25, both of 2905-818 Red Clay Drive, are each charged with attempted murder, robbery with a dangerous weapon, first-degree kidnapping and larceny of a motor vehicle in the March 3 incident. They are being held without the benefit of bond on the attempted murder charge. Bail is set at $250,000 each for the other charges.

The arrest warrants accuse both of trying to kill Adrian San Juan Merida, 29, and allege that they took cash, a cell phone, a leather jacket and a white Ford Focus that Merida had been driving on the evening of March 2 when the three met at a club.

According to investigators, the trio apparently went to where Ramon and Ramirez live, a disagreement began and a struggle occurred some time late on March 2 or early on March 3.

With Merida stabbed in the chest, police say Ramon and Ramirez forced him into the car, drove to a pond that is between their home and where Merida lives on Limerick Drive. They pushed him into the pond and left, according to the account detectives reconstructed.

Merida was able to get out of the pond and walk or crawl to his home in the 4600 block of Limerick Drive, where he was able to get care, the account goes. In the morning, however, his condition got worse and Emergency Medical Services were called. They alerted police, Sughrue said.

After identifying Ramon and Ramirez, the police report says, detectives learned they had gone to Myrtle Beach. They contacted Horry County, S.C. sheriff's deputies the same day, and they and Raleigh police arrested the two. Extradition proceedings delayed their return until Friday.

Police arrest, charge Clayton man in shooting

<http://www.claytonnewsstar.com/2012/03/16/1937168/shooter-arrested-in-clayton.html>

CLAYTON -- Police arrested a 20-year-old man this morning and charged him in a shooting that injured a 22-year-old woman.

Teodoro Aucecio Cecilio, 600 Woodbriar Street in Clayton, has been charged with one felony count of assault with a deadly weapon inflicting serious injury with the intent to kill.

The victim, whose name has not yet been made public, was treated for a non-life threatening injury at WakeMed and has since been released.

The victim had friends over at her home in Clayton Estates Mobile Home Park on March 15, when they got into a heated dispute with several people walking by the home, she told police. One suspect, she said, took out a shotgun and fired in her direction.

Police were called at 8:44 p.m. March 15 for shots fired in the area. While en route to the neighborhood, they got another call about someone having been shot at the victim's address.

While most of the birdshot pellets hit the house, some struck the victim, Capt. Jon Gerrell said.

The victim was struck in the leg and lower back with what appeared to be birdshot pellets from a shotgun, according to police.

While the suspect fled on foot before police arrived at the scene, officers and investigative detective Lt. J.T. Parker gathered evidence and spoke with witnesses who were able to identify him.

Detectives got a warrant for Cecilio, but he was not at his home when they arrived to arrest him that evening.

When police returned to his residence Friday morning, Cecilio surrendered with no resistance.

Police arrested Cecilio the morning of March 16 at his home.

He is being held in Johnston County Jail in lieu of a $150,000 secured bond.

An arrest warrant charged that Arocho and another person broke into the home in the 2200 block of Turtle Point Drive intending to kill and rob the owner. Police charge that Arocho assaulted the man, but did not say if he hurt or what weapon was used.

Arocho was held on a total of $375,000 bond on all the charges. Police said they were looking for another man who they believe took part, leading to the conspiracy charge against Arocho.

Police searching for armed robber

http://www.mtairynews.com/view/full\_story/17916032/article-Police-searching-for-armed-robber?instance=popular

Mount Airy police are seeking the whereabouts of a gunman who robbed a West Pine Street store of an undisclosed sum of cash.

The incident occurred Thursday night at La Tapatia No. 3, a 936 W. Pine St. business that caters to the Hispanic population. It marked the second armed robbery of the store in the past year.

Thursday's incident unfolded about 7:10 p.m. when an unidentified Hispanic male suspect entered the business, pointed a handgun at a clerk and demanded money from the register, police say.

The clerk complied and the suspect fled the store on foot, with no injuries reported. He was last observed running through the rear parking area of the North Carolina Farm Bureau building at 942 W. Pine St.

Despite an exhaustive search of the immediate area by both city police and members of the Surry County Sheriff's Office, as well as a tracking dog, the man was not found.

"I think he was assisted in his efforts," Mount Airy Police Chief Dale Watson said Friday, "because the track indicates at one location that it does appear he had a vehicle waiting or someone picked him up."

About 12 officers were involved in the search that encompassed a perimeter stretching from West Pine Street to Franklin Road and from there to West Virginia Street, and also Beasley Street — which connects Pine and West Virginia streets. During the search, which lasted about an hour and a half, those locations were closed to motorists.

Evidence was still being processed from the scene Friday, including the retrieving of surveillance video of the robber.

The suspect is described as a young Hispanic male of average height and slim to medium build.

At the time of the crime, he was wearing a black hoodie-style sweatshirt with "ECKO Unltd" printed in white on the right sleeve. The hoodie also has the ECKO Unltd rhino logo on the front, in white as well.

In addition, the man was wearing dark-colored pants, dark-colored shoes with a white lower sole and a black toboggan or other piece of clothing used to cover the lower portion of his face. The suspect might have a small scar close to his right eye.

Anyone with information pertaining to the robbery or identity or whereabouts of the suspect is urged to call Mount Airy Crimestoppers at 786-4000.

NC man fathered two children with kidnapped 13-year-old

<http://www.gastongazette.com/news/fathered-68956-kidnapped-old.html>

GRAHAM — A Graham man pleaded guilty Monday to kidnapping a 13-year-old girl and taking her out of state for three years while they had two children together.

The girl's family knew of the relationship and it's possible that her mother had been involved with the man before, Alamance County Assistant District Attorney Alex Dawson told the court. The girl ran away from her Graham residence the night of Sept. 3, 2006, after an argument with her mother about the relationship, Dawson said.

Mendoza Galmaliel Maldonado, 33, of Dewey Drive in Graham, was 27 in September of 2006 when he fled with a 13-year-old girl whom he was having a relationship with, Dawson said in Superior Court Monday. The pair lived for stints of time in Florida, Georgia and Texas. During that time, she had phone contact with her family.

She gave birth to their first child in 2007, when she was 14, Dawson said, and when she returned home in early 2009 was pregnant with their second child.

Maldonado remained in Texas for a time but returned to Alamance County under a fake name when the girl called him in 2011 and said she needed his help raising their children.

The girl's brother spotted Maldonado in January 2011 and reported him to police.

Maldonado was originally charged with two counts of statutory rape and first-degree kidnapping. Dawson said the Alamance County office couldn't proceed on those charges because both the girl and Maldonado said their relationship didn't become sexual until after they left the county.

The girl, who is now 18, also refused to testify against Maldonado and told Dawson he is a good father and husband.

"She threatened leaving the jurisdiction so she wouldn't have to testify," Dawson said.

In meetings with the girl's family, Dawson said they gave "cultural explanations to me that she knew what she was doing at the time" and spoke of the differences between what is legal outside of the U.S.

Maldonado is being held under a U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement detainer and will be deported following a 20- to 33-month prison sentence.

Federal agents find 3,000 pounds of pot

<http://www.gastongazette.com/news/find-69068-pot-pounds.html>

CHARLOTTE, N.C. — Federal agents found more than 3,000 pounds of marijuana in crates with jalapeno peppers.

Agents went undercover and worked side-by-side with men they later arrested for their involvement with the drugs.

Agents encountered the suspects at a warehouse at 800 Johnson Road, off North Graham Street.

Many of the businesses don't have their addresses clearly displayed and are marked as private property. Homeland Security agents would not release a description of the warehouse or photos, but officials did say it was difficult to see from the road.

The investigation started on March 14 in Laredo, Texas, when agents intercepted marijuana hidden in crates with jalapenos, heading to Charlotte.

On March 19 at 3:07 p.m., agents posing as truck drivers delivered the marijuana to the warehouse. According to court papers, the suspects at the warehouse began unloading it from the crates.

By 7:01 p.m., the unloading finished and agents staked out the warehouse.

Just after 1 a.m. on March 20, a van and another vehicle left the warehouse, and just minutes later, law enforcement pulled them over. They also pulled over suspects in three other vehicles.

They said they discovered 3,222.77 pounds in the van and 87.23 pounds in another vehicle and arrested all six suspects: Joel Maucello Hernandez, Oscar Antonio Baez, Guadalupe Pina Flores, Gonzalo Hernandez, Joel Manuel De La Cruz, and Ramiro Ortiz.

They are all charged with possessing with intent to distribute a controlled substance.

"Good night! That's unreal. Unreal," said Bubba Walton, who works for a company just down the road. Walton said he never even knew about the bust.

"There's not a lot that goes down here. It's amazing."

The U.S. Attorney's Office in Charlotte is handling the case but would not comment.

The six suspects are due in court on Monday.

Feds Break Up Jewelry Theft Ring

<http://fairfaxnews.com/2012/03/feds-break-up-jewelry-theft-ring/>

Seven alleged members of a jewelry theft ring were arrested Tuesday on charges related to their alleged roles in a highly sophisticated and violent organization that has stolen more than $4.6 million worth of jewelry from traveling jewelry sales representatives throughout Virginia and at least six other states. Charges against the individuals were unsealed after the defendants made initial court appearances in Newport News, Va.

“This tight-knit group is accused of violently attacking traveling salesmen to rob them of more than $4.6 million in jewelry,” said U.S. Attorney Neil H. MacBride. “This group did their homework. We allege they were dangerous, patient, extremely mobile and struck swiftly. We are grateful that the ATF and our law enforcement partners were just as patient, mobile and able to strike swiftly once we had identified those believed to be involved.”

“According to the charges unsealed today, members of this organized criminal group stole more than $4.6 million in jewelry from victims in Virginia and at least six other states,” said Assistant Attorney General Lanny A. Breuer. “The defendants allegedly operated their sophisticated scheme for more than two years, using intimidation and violence to carry it out. Organized criminal groups pose a serious threat to the safety and security of our communities, and we will continue to do everything in our power to bring them to justice.”

“These arrests highlight the outstanding work that dedicated ATF agents and our law enforcement partners do to keep our streets safe,” said Acting FBI Special Agent in Charge Daniel Kumor. “This investigation required a lot of long hours and excellent coordination among investigators, prosecutors and agencies throughout the region, and epitomizes the fine work law enforcement does every day.”

According to court records, Alexander Cuadros-Garcia, aka “Alex,” “Brujo,” “Aleto” and “Manuel Gonzalez”, 37, of Richmond, Va., is accused of leading a team of individuals who specialized in conducting surveillance on jewelry stores to identify and then rob jewelry sales representatives and couriers. The ring is believed to have committed and attempted robberies since March 2010 in Prince William County, Henrico County, Virginia Beach, Williamsburg, McLean, Charlottesville, Harrisonburg and Roanoke in Virginia, as well as locations in New York, New Jersey, North Carolina, Maryland, Tennessee and California.

Court documents allege the ring has ties to South American Theft Groups, which are transnational criminal groups typically of Colombian nationality that work in teams to steal jewelry, gems and precious metals from individuals carrying hundreds of thousands of dollars in merchandise at one time.
