RALEIGH — A 27-year-old Raleigh woman was arrested Tuesday night on sex offense and indecent liberties charges involving a 12-year-old girl from last June through February.

Antonia Granados of 4203 Fiddler Court was taken into custody at the Raleigh Police Department's Downtown District station at about 10 p.m., according to an arrest report.

An arrest warrant accuses her of one county of first-degree sex offense with a child and one count of taking indecent liberties with a child between June 1 last year and March 1 this year.

Police spokesman Jim Sughrue said the charges involved a girl and that Granados and the girl had known each other beforehand.

First-degree sex offense requires that in addition to a victim being under 13 and a suspect at least four years older, the “sexual act” has to happen “by force and against the will of the other person” and has to involve a dangerous weapon or include “serious personal injury” or he helped by someone else.

A magistrate ordered Granados held on $500,000 bail, and she was being held in lieu of that amount Thursday.

The arrest warrant listed her name as Antonia Granados Martinez. Wake County Jail records list her as Antonia Granades Martinez, but her arrest record does not show the Martinez name.

Girl, 15, takes murder plea in Durham carjacking

<http://www.newsobserver.com/2014/03/17/3711074/girl-15-takes-murder-plea-in-durham.html#storylink=cpy>

DURHAM — A 15-year-old girl told a Durham County judge Monday that she tricked a man into giving her and two friends a ride so they could shoot him and steal his SUV.

Diana Escobar, who was 14 at the time of the crime, pleaded guilty to second-degree murder, robbery with a dangerous weapon and conspiracy to commit robbery with a dangerous weapon.

As part of a plea agreement, she must testify against Justino Navaretta Maya, 17, who is accused of firing the gun that killed 35-year-old Johnny Danilo Villatoro, who was a father of three.

Escobar will be sentenced to 10 to 13 years in prison. Her sentencing hearing is scheduled for May 19.

A 12-year-old girl, who was accused of be the ringleader of the trio, has already pleaded guilty to first-degree murder in juvenile court, according to Assistant District Attorney Jim Dornfried. She will be held in a juvenile-detention facility until she is 21, he said. Police do not release the names of juvenile defendants.

Police said the 12-year-old and Escobar had run away from their home in Wake County and were staying with Maya when they decided to do a drive-by shooting of a rival gang, Dornfried told Superior Court Judge Elaine Bushfan during a hearing in Durham County Criminal Superior Court.

But the trio had no car, so they decided to carjack someone, police said.

Villatoro was at a cellphone store Dec. 28, 2012, paying his bill, when Escobar approached him and said she and her friends needed a ride home. Villatoro agreed, and the trio got in his SUV.

They gave him directions to Firth Road, a dead end street. When they got there, Maya was supposed to shoot Villatoro, Dornfried said. At first Maya hesitated, but when Villatoro began struggling with the 12-year-old, Maya shot Villatoro seven times and left his body on the side of street.

Maya ran over Villatoro's arm before driving to Channing Avenue off North Roxboro Street. That's when the 12-year-old accidentally shot herself in the stomach and the leg with the handgun. She called her mother, who called for an ambulance, Dornfried said.

Police were quickly able to link the three youths to Villatoro's killing from blood and bullet casings found in the SUV, Dornfried said.

With many members of her family in the gallery behind her, Escobar appeared in court wearing jeans, a white shirt and a turquoise hooded sweatshirt, her hair pulled back in a bun. She answered clearly, "Yes ma'am," as Bushfan asked her questions about her plea.

Maya's trial is expected to begin April 7.

Man wanted for attempted murder nabbed in Winston-Salem attic

http://www.journalnow.com/news/crime/man-wanted-in-maryland-nabbed-in-winston-salem-attic/article_4176f6a4-7b6c-58be-bb13-daae4e6e6d4a.html

A man wanted in Maryland for a 2004 attempted murder was nabbed by federal agents and Winston-Salem police officers Friday morning after they found him hiding in an attic.

The U.S. Marshals Service said that Rafael Rivera Quinones, 34, was arrested about 11 a.m. Friday in a house at 908 Goldfloss Street.

Quinones was wanted in Prince George's County, Maryland, for attempted first degree murder, attempted second degree murder, first degree assault, two counts of second degree assault and destruction of property, all stemming from a 2004 incident in which Quinones allegedly assaulted someone else with a broken bottle.

The warrant for Quinones' arrest was issued in May 2004. But it was not until recently that the Capital Area Regional Task Force in Greenbelt, Md., received information that Quinones was living in Winston-Salem, the U.S. Marshals Service said.

Officers with the U.S. Marshals Joint Fugitive Task Force and members of the Winston-Salem Police Department carried out the arrest. Friday, officials said, the task force began keeping the house on Goldfloss Street under observation about 9 a.m. They saw Quinones go inside the house, but he refused to answer the door when members of the squad knocked on the door.

Officials said that the task force then made entry to the house, but that they could not immediately find Quinones inside. To get into the attic they began removing portions of the interior ceiling, reports showed. After about two hours they made contact with Quinones, who was in the attic, and he was taken into custody without incident.

The Marshals Service said that Quinones was being held at the Forsyth County Detention Center without bond, pending extradition to Maryland.

The joint fugitive task force is comprised of investigators from the U.S. Marshals Service and officers from area law enforcement agencies.

Home invaders break into wrong homes

<http://www.wsocvtv.com/news/news/local/police-home-invaders-break-wrong-homes/nd3hj/>

CHARLOTTE, N.C. — Police in Charlotte are investigating a string of home invasions over the last several weeks.

They think the suspects were targeting specific people but ended up terrorizing innocent families who lived nearby.

Police said the first two home invasions happened in a west Charlotte apartment complex on Forestbrook Drive.

They said the two suspects were carrying a gun and kicked in Lilly Minter's front door.

"We were surprised and shocked because we're a family and we have two small little children," said Minter.

Fortunately, she wasn't home at the time but police reports said the men stole two of her computers worth more than $1,400 then they broke into a nearby apartment where police said Joel Velez lives in.

They believe Velez was dealing drugs out of the apartment and said the crooks were searching for his apartment all along.

"There was a note of marijuana in the apartment. At that time we didn't have any other issues or evidence," said Lt. Anderson Royston.

They said Velez was evicted and moved into another apartment complex down the street.

"Less than a week later somebody kicks in and robs home next door to him again," Royston said.

The innocent family in that home was held up at gunpoint while the thieves stole a cellphone.

Police said they found marijuana, a gun and cash in Velez's nearby apartment and arrested him.

Neighbors told Eyewitness News they're rattled.

"It does concern me especially when we have our children here as well," said

Police said incidents like this happen often. They're warning neighbors to speak up about possible drug activity before crimes take place.

"This could happen to you. You could be at home minding your business and they come to your house. Luckily nobody got hurt," said Royston.

Deputies seize 44 pounds of pot, arrest 2 suspects (previously deported)

BEAUFORT COUNTY - Deputies said they arrested two men after seizing almost 44 pounds of marijuana from their van in Beaufort County.

The Beaufort County Sheriff's Office told NewsChannel 12 that 43-year-old Jose Luis Ortiz and 29-year-old Eduardo Alberto Rosales, both of Charlotte, were arrested on Sunday.

According to investigators, they received word that a large amount of marijuana was being distributed from a Beaufort County home. Deputies said they pulled over a van that was seen leaving from that residence. Rosales was the driver and Ortiz was the passenger, said investigators.

"The pair didn't have their story together," Captain Russell Davenport. "The passenger [Ortiz] claimed to not know the driver [Rosales]. And the driver claimed to not know the passenger." Investigators said this was a red flag that something was clearly wrong, and suspected the pair to be up to something.

Deputies said they soon learned that Rosales did not have a valid driver's license and that a smell of marijuana was coming from within the van.

Drug Unit investigators, including K-9 Elza, responded to the scene. They soon found compressed marijuana stuffed into a child's booster seat and marijuana bricks in wooden plaques inside the van, according to the Sheriff's Office.

"They tried to disguise it, they had put dryer sheets and also Clorox fabric sheets around it so the dog wouldn't detect it," Captain Davenport said. "But you can't fool the dog, you can maybe fool a human but not a K-9 dog."

Deputies said they seized nearly 44 pounds of marijuana in all, along with several thousand dollars in cash.

The street value of the drugs was 88 thousand dollars, according to Captain Davenport.

Ortiz and Rosales have each been charged with trafficking in marijuana by possession, trafficking in marijuana by transportation, and conspiracy to traffic in marijuana.

In addition, Rosales has also been charged with maintaining a vehicle to facilitate drug activity. Both suspects were being held in the Beaufort County Detention Center under $100,000 bonds.

Public records show Rosales has a misdemeanor for assault on a woman, and deputies tell us Ortiz is not a U.S. citizen. Deputies say Ortiz was deported to Mexico after a 2000 drug trafficking arrest out of Pitt County.

Greenville Drug Task Force Makes Several Arrests

<http://www.witn.com/news/crime/headlines/Greenville-Drug-Task-Force-Makes-Several-Arrests-Confiscates-Drugs-250884301.html>

The Greenville Drug Task Force has taken thousands of dollars in drugs off the streets and put several people behind bars in connection to several recent cases.

During a press conference at the Greenville Police Department Tuesday morning-- authorities from several cities laid out the evidence in Pitt County.

After a two-month investigation, Greenville police seized more than 2.5 kilograms of cocaine, more than $14,000, and a 9mm handgun during a traffic stop on March 5th. Inside the vehicle they say a K-9 alerted police to an air compressor which was outfitted to conceal the drugs.

Two men, Gambino Correa, and driver Julio Rodriguez, were arrested.

Police say these Mexican nationals were involved with supplying drugs to an apartment at Mulberry Lane where 34-year-old Ronnie Chapman was murdered back in December.

Greenville Police Chief Hassan Aden says the partnership they have with other police departments and the Drug Enforcement Agency, will break down barriers when it comes to jurisdictions. He says, "It's built this way so the cases are continuous. When you can't go in and out and expect the case to end at that jurisdictional boundary, even if it goes out of county you know, we have federal partners here that will pursue that and pursue you and bring that case to justice."

Chief Aden says their new procedure is to have criminal and narcotic investigators work along side one another -- since drugs are common links to criminal behavior.

Rowan County authorities say a fourth-month investigation has led to the arrest of two people in connection with an alleged methamphetamine operation in Kannapolis.

One suspect is a previously convicted felon from California, investigators said.

The sheriff's office in Rowan County says its officers conducted a search warrant at a residence in the 400 block of Gaddy Street. Authorities said the investigation indicated the residence of Tomas Harnandez-Garcia Jr. and Jennifer Crouse was being used as a distribution point for meth.

During the search, investigators said, agents seized a half-pound of high-grade marijuana, 2 grams of methamphetamine ice, cash, and a military-style rifle and ammunition.

Hernandez-Garcia, 37, who has a history of arrest in California, and Crouse, 31, each was charged with three felonies: possession of methamphetamine, possession with intent to sell or deliver marijuana, and maintaining a dwelling for sale or distribution of drugs.

Each also was charged with misdemeanor contributing to the delinquency of a minor. Hernandez-Garcia was jailed under $25,000 bond, and bond was set at $10,000 for Crouse.

Deputies said two other people who were visiting the residence were charged with misdemeanor drug offenses.

Wake deputies seize heroin and 15 pounds of cocaine, charge two with trafficking

<http://www.newsobserver.com/2014/02/28/3661586/wake-deputies-seize-heroin-and.html#storylink=cpy>

RALEIGH — Narcotics officers said they seized 15.4 pounds of cocaine and 8.8 ounces of heroin Thursday when they charged two men with drug trafficking and conspiracy.

Jose Andrade Adame, 37, of Raleigh and Sheldon Obryan Silver, 37, of Henderson were each being held on $2.5 million bail for court appearances Friday.

The charges, filed by Wake County sheriff's deputies, were part of a continuing anti-drug effort by a task force that uses personnel from local, county, state and federal agencies.

Deputies stopped the men at Glenwood Avenue and Lead Mine Road in north Raleigh shortly before 5 p.m., according to arrest reports.

Adame is charged with two counts of heroin trafficking and two counts of cocaine trafficking, and arrest warrants said police found 7 kilograms of cocaine, equivalent to 15.43 pounds, and 250 grams of heroin, which is more than half a pound.

Two other counts in the warrants charge Adame with conspiring with Silver.

Arrest warrants charge Silver with three counts of heroin trafficking, one of them saying he delivered it to Adame.

Silver also is accused of one count each of conspiring to traffic in heroin and traffic in cocaine.

The warrants and an arrest report list Silver as living at 95 Mallard Lane in Henderson and say he is an electrician for Atlantic Workforce, a staffing agency that lists offices in North and South Carolina, Georgia and Florida.

Adame is listed as living at 6620 Brock Glen Way in Raleigh, but there is no record of such a street in the Wake County database.

Adame's occupation is listed as being a truck driver for a company called JJ Towing.

Osely Adonay Ruiz Banegas, 24, of the 200 block of Scarlet Lane, is charged with trafficking marijuana, maintaining a drug dwelling and possession of a stolen firearm, the release said.

Deputies were at the house Wednesday when one saw marijuana in the home, the release said, leading to the residence search.

15 pounds pot, cash seized, 2 jailed

http://www.clintonnc.com/news/breaking_news-home_top-local-news1-news/4010525/15-pounds-pot-cash-seized-2-jailed

Sampson County Sheriff Jimmy Thornton picked up one packaged bag of marijuana, then another, and another and yet another, sifting through the 15 pounds of pot that his drug agents seized Tuesday at a Crepe Myrtle Lane residence. He nodded his head in affirmation as he heard how a citizen tip led to the start of an investigation that ended less than 24 hours earlier with the arrest of two and the seizure of both the illegal substances and over $10,000 in cash.

“These guys do a tremendous, tremendous job for our county and our citizens,” Thornton said as he surveyed the latest seizure, the second in less than a week. “Every bit we get off the streets is that much we keep out of the hands of our kids, and that’s important.”

He also reiterated the importance of citizen tips, noting how that one call had led to removing $68,000 worth of marijuana from Sampson streets.

It also led to the arrest of Eric Lee Arroyo, 28, of 174 Crepe Myrtle Lane, Clinton, and 17-year-old Manuel Rivera, of 1 Weeping Willow Lane, Clinton.

Both men face multiple felony charges that include one count each of trafficking in marijuana, possession with intent to manufacture, sell and deliver marijuana, maintaining a dwelling for the sale of a controlled substance and misdemeanor possession of drug paraphernalia.

In addition, Arroyo faces a probation violation charge.

The arrests were made Tuesday afternoon when officers conducted what they call a “knock and talk” at the Crepe Myrtle Lane mobile home.

“We got a gang-related complaint a month or so back,” the head of the county’s Special Investigation Division said, asking that his name not be used because of the sensitive nature of the investigations his office handles.

“Our information was that this residence housed drugs and possibly weapons and was used by gang members.”

That tip initiated an investigation which culminated Tuesday with the knock and talk at the residence, located just off Governor Moore Road near Auctioneer Road.

When the door to the residence was opened to SID agents, the drug captain said they could immediately smell an odor of marijuana and could see in “plain view” what appeared to be packages of marijuana.

Agents detained Arroyo and Rivera after it was learned that Arroyo was on probation.

“We contacted probation and they came out and did a warrantless search,” the drug captain said.

That search led to the discovery of five children’s backpacks stuffed with marijuana, along with a shopping bag filled with more of the controlled substance.

Two backpacks were discovered in the laundry room, another inside a dryer, another in the bathroom and a fifth in the shopping bag at the rear of the mobile home.

No weapons were discovered at the residence but $10,980 in cash was found and seized.

Both Arroyo and Rivera were placed under $50,000 secured bonds. The two are to make first appearances in Sampson District Court Friday.

Thornton praised the latest drug seizure, touting his officers for their diligence in working difficult cases and coming up with results. And he offered his thanks to citizens for their willingness to get involved, calling in tips and making complaints that often lead to the arrest of suspected drug dealers and the seizure of controlled substances.

“We can’t do this without them. All of us working together makes a difference,” Thornton said. “I can’t say enough good things about the work our SID agents do. And I continue to urge citizens to get involved, to call us and to be patient with us. It may take a while to get these investigations completed, but rest assured we take every call seriously and we run it down.”

The driver of the SUV, later identified as Hang Zheng, 28, of Texas and a Chinese national, provided consent for officers to search the vehicle. Deputies discovered a credit card decoder and 17 forged credit cards.
