Couple Accused Of Cocaine Trafficking

Written by Gina Lindsey (O-N-E Staff Reporter)

Friday, 01 May 2009

Police arrested a Newton couple on cocaine-trafficking charges this week after drugs were allegedly found inside their home.

Investigators searched the home of Manolo Ignacio Martinez-Hernandez, 20, and his wife, Amber Jo Martinez, at 418 East 11th St. in Newton on Wednesday on a search warrant. They seized about eight ounces of cocaine, $819 in cash, two handguns, drug-packaging materials and other drug paraphernalia from the residence, said Newton Police Chief Don Brown.

He said the drugs were found in two separate areas of the home. Investigators would not comment on the specific locations of the cocaine.

Martinez-Hernandez was charged with two counts of felony trafficking cocaine by possession and one count of felony trafficking in cocaine by transportation. His wife, Martinez, was charged with one felony count of trafficking in cocaine by possession and one felony count of trafficking cocaine by transportation.

Brown said the trafficking charges are derived from the drug-packaging materials that suggest the two were distributing the drugs within the community. He said the drug operation stems from two areas, Newton and Long View.

It's unclear how long the operation has been in business, but it was said by police to be "very organized."

It is unclear how police were made aware of the drug operation, Brown said. Investigators often receive information from informants in the community, he said.

The drug bust was a multi-agency effort including the Newton, Hickory and Long View police departments, as well as the Catawba County Sheriff's Office.

Martinez-Hernandez is being held in the Catawba County jail on $200,000 bond. Martinez was released from jail on $10,000 bond. Their first appearance in court was Friday.

the victim was outside her home when a man approached her and asked for directions. Seconds later the suspect pulled a knife on the victim, drug her to a wooded area, and tried to sexually assault the woman. A passerby heard the victim scream and came to her aid. The suspect then fled. The assailant is described as a 25- to 30-year-old light skin Hispanic male, 5 foot 7 to 5 foot 9, last seen wearing a white t-shirt with black letters, blue jeans. The suspect had slick hair, and may have been driving a gray or silver four door vehicle. Anyone with any information about the suspect or the incident is asked to contact Detective Lt. Strickland at 919-989-5000. Callers can remain anonymous.

Wayne and Johnston County

Recent drug ring arrests part of DEA raid

Law enforcement officials revealed this week that several recent major cocaine trafficking arrests in Wayne County were related to a roundup of a Mexican-based illegal drug operation known as the Gulf Cartel.

A press release from the office of U.S. Attorney General showed arrests in both Wayne and Johnston counties were part of the operation.

According to the release, all of the arrests made in Wayne County were for cocaine trafficking. The men arrested are alleged members of the Gulf Cartel.

At least five people named on U.S. Department of Justice news release were arrested weeks earlier on cocaine charges, according to arrest records of the Wayne County Sheriff's Office.

Members of the Aggressive Criminal Enforcement Team arrested Hector Ramos Avellaneda, 23, of Virginia Beach, Va., and Antione Lambert, 24, of Brodnax, Va., after a traffic stop.

Three other men, Juan Acosta Vasquez, 30, Reynoldo Garcia Vasquez, 28, and Israel Garcio Vasquez, 22, of Slick Rock Road, were arrested after a raid of their home according to a Sheriff's Office news release.

A member of the county's Aggressive Criminal Enforcement Team said that between the two raids about a kilogram of cocaine was seized.

Only two men named on the Justice Department news release had not appeared in Wayne County Sheriff's Office arrest reports before Sept. 16.

Those men, Pablo Martinez Avellaneda, 34, of Magnolia and Sergio Ramon Perales Reyna, 20, of Trenton, are charged with trafficking cocaine, according to the Justice Department news release.

Sheriff's Office Seeking Motel Robbery Suspect

May 9, 2009

The Johnston County Sheriff's Office has released images from a surveillance camera of a man who tried to rob a clerk at the Super 8 Motel on Leon Court, at the I-40/NC42 interchange, in the Cleveland community on April 24. The suspect pushed a 51 year-old employee into an office and began struggling with her. The victim managed to pull away from the would-be robber just long enough to pull a fire alarm. The suspect then fled from the motel. The suspect is described as a Hispanic man in his mid- to late-30's, 5 foot 8, 235 pounds, wearing a white t-shirt, kaki pants, and possibly glasses. Anyone with information about the suspect is asked to contact the Johnston County Sheriff's Office at 919-989-5000.

Man Shot During Robbery

May 9, 2009

A Benson man was shot during an alleged robbery in the parking lot of Wendy's on Highway 210 near I-40 Thursday night. Juan Antonio Batiste, 21, a former employee at the business, said he went to visit his former co-workers. While exiting the business and walking back to his car, Batiste said two men, both armed with guns, approached him. One reportedly stated, "We want it all," then took $30 in cash and a cell phone. The victim said he tried to take the gun away from one of the suspects, but during a struggle, the weapon discharged, striking him in the leg. Batiste drove himself to WakeMed in Raleigh where he underwent treatment. The Johnston County Sheriff's Office is investigating the incident.

$1 Million In Cocaine Seized In Sampson County

May 9, 2009

The Sampson County Sheriff's Office Highway Enforcement Awareness Team has seized 5 kilos of cocaine on Highway 701. Seven men, most from Raleigh, were arrested. According to sheriff's officials, they were able to seize the cocaine based on an anonymous tip they received. Deputies acted on information received about three vehicles, according to reports, that were involved in transporting cocaine into Sampson County. Deputies saw the three vehicles on U.S. 701 in a business parking lot and stopped them, according to sheriff's Capt. Eric Pope. Subsequently the vehicles were searched and a total of 5 kilos, or 11 pounds, of cocaine valued at $1 million and three handguns were seized with occupants of all three vehicles charged and jailed. Ramiro Rivera-Rubio, 37, of McPhail-Fowler Lane, Clinton; Jose Joan Cruz Santander, 29, of Kyle Drive, Raleigh; and Victor Mendoza Montiel, 34, of Vintage Road, Raleigh, were charged with trafficking cocaine. Diego Gonzalez, 23, of Schonley Drive, Raleigh; Daniel Bello-Pachew, 25, of Pointer Drive, Raleigh; and Rigoberto Rivera-Leyva, 25, of Lady Kali Drive, Knightdale, were charged with trafficking cocaine and carrying a concealed weapon. All were held on bonds ranging from $1 million to $1.5 million each.

Trial Begins For Illegal Immigrant Charged In Crash That Killed 7 Year-Old

The trial for an illegal immigrant, accused of striking and killing a 7 year-old boy, trying to cross the roadway in front of his grandmother's home last year, began Monday in Johnston County Superior Court. Hipolito Hernandez, 31, of Parkertown Road, Four Oaks is charged with second-degree murder, felony hit and run, felony assault, driving while impaired, reckless driving, operating a stolen motor vehicle, and driving without a license. Hernandez ran off Heath Road on April 13, 2008 striking Marcus Lassiter of Selma. The child died the next day at Duke Medical Center after his family made to decision to remove him from life support. Witnesses said Hernandez fled on foot from the crash scene without checking on the condition of the injured child. Law enforcement officers with the help of a Good Samaritan, Allen Hester, caught him about an hour later. Hernandez had been charged with DWI four times before the fatal crash last year. Two were dropped, one was pled down to a lesser offense, and the fourth charge was pending in court. Attorney Lee Hatch, according to WRAL, handled both the two DWI cases dismissed against the illegal immigrant. The prosecutor in one of the cases was Cindy Jaeger. They are among six people charged in a ticket-fixing scheme, although the two cases against Hernandez were not part of an SBI investigation that led to their arrests in March.

Detectives with the Johnston County Sheriff's Office have arrested a man they say is responsible for an attempted rape and robbery less than a week apart. Authorities said 29 year-old Michael Valdez of Highway 42 in Willow Springs was arrested Thursday for both incidents. $91,000 in cash, marijuana seized in drug bust

Hickory Daily Record
Published: May 14, 2009

NEWTON - A multi-agency operation netted Catawba County law enforcement one accused drug dealer, 35 pounds of marijuana and $7,070 in cash in a recent bust. The marijuana has a street value of $84,000, said Chief Deputy Coy Reid of the Catawba County Sheriff's Office.

David Antonio Rebello, 37, of Castell Lane was arrested Friday when officers from the sheriff's office, and the Hickory, Newton and Long View police departments executed a search warrant at the home. The nine officers are members of a joint drug task force, Reid said.

The marijuana was packaged in bricks weighing about one pound each, officials said. "He was a dealer but we don't know where he was getting it from," Reid said. Rebello was charged with trafficking in marijuana and jailed under a $20,000 secured bond.

The arrest was the result of a joint investigation that took about two months, Reid said. Investigators are following up on a couple of leads, but the bulk of the investigation is complete, Reid said. "We've gone about as far as we can go," he added.

By CAROLINE CURRAN

In September 2008, Isidoro, who was living in Boiling Spring Lakes, was charged with attempted first-degree rape, taking indecent liberties with a child and felony disseminate obscenity—all of which were dismissed when the state's only witness, the alleged victim, left for Mexico.

Juan Carlos Hernandez-Gonzalez, 25, of 417 Martin Drive, Raeford was arrested after allegedly sending pornographic photos and videos to an 11-year-old's cell phone.

Many have deemed such behavior as ‘sexting,’ a derivative of the popular term ‘texting’ or sending text messages.
