Three indicted following meth bust

<http://www.salisburypost.com/Crime/050311-Three-indicted-by-feds-for-meth-qcd>

STATESVILLE — Three men arrested in February following the second-largest methamphetamine bust in Rowan County history were indicted in federal court April 21, according to information released Monday by the Rowan County Sheriff's Office.

Hildeberto Gonzalez-Chavez, "Beetle," 30, of 122 Cypress Lane, Edgar Santana, 22, of Duluth, Ga., and Cesar Sierro-Pineda, 33, of Duluth, Ga., were each charged with methamphetamine drug conspiracy. Sierro-Pineda was additionally charged with possession of a firearm in furtherance of a drug trafficking crime.

Gonzalez-Chavez is currently in the Rowan County jail waiting for a transfer to federal custody, Sierro-Pineda is in custody in Gwinnett County, Ga., pending transfer to federal custody, and Santana was arrested in Salisbury April 27, and is in federal custody in Charlotte. Santana also had a bond hearing Monday.

The two-year investigation found that Gonzalez-Chavez was not only supplying drugs to a customer in Wilkes County for more than 10 years but was also part of one of the largest meth rings on the east coast that was dismantled after authorities searched the apartment of Sierro-Pineda in Duluth, Ga.

Officers said they watched Gonzalez-Chavez meet with another person in China Grove on Feb. 24; the two then drove in separate vehicles to 115 Westhaven Way.

When Gonzalez-Chavez left the home and stopped to get gas on U.S. 152, law enforcement officers confronted and searched him.

Authorities said they found 1.75 pounds of methamphetamine ice, the most addictive and potent form of methamphetamine, in the vehicle. That was estimated to have a street value of about $100,000. Gonzalez-Chavez was arrested and charged with trafficking more than 400 grams of methamphetamine.

Santana was driving about a mile ahead of Gonzalez-Chavez, and authorities stopped him.

Rowan County Sheriff's Office Detective Lt. Chad Moose said Santana had delivered the methamphetamine to Gonzalez-Chavez. Santana was charged with trafficking more than 400 grams of methamphetamine.

Information led authorities to Sierro-Pineda in Duluth, Ga., where a methamphetamine ice conversion lab was found in his apartment, and authorities evacuated the entire building.

One of the largest ever found, the lab contained about 5 gallons of liquid methamphetamine — enough to produce 44 pounds of methamphetamine ice, with a wholesale value of more than $1 million, authorities said.

Authorities said the three men transported large amounts of cocaine, methamphetamine and marijuana from the Texas-Mexico border to Atlanta, and then to Rowan County.

Woman forced to work as prostitute at Sanford brothel

<http://www.fayobserver.com/articles/2011/05/03/1091121?sac=Home>

Five people have been indicted on charges they forced a Guatemalan woman to work as a prostitute to pay off a $3,000 immigration bond.

The woman, identified in court papers as N.J.C., was forced to work in brothels in Sanford and Winston-Salem, according to court records.

Ramon Luis Gandia, Mauro Aparicio-Hernandez, Agosto Valverde-Morales, Melvin Martinez-Alcantara and Amadelia Guardado were charged Friday with importation of an alien for immoral purposes.

Guardado pleaded guilty to the charge Monday as part of a plea agreement, according to court records.

She faces up to 10 years in prison followed by three years of supervised release and a $250,000 fine. She is scheduled to be sentenced Aug. 31 in U.S. District Court in Winston-Salem, according to court records.

The criminal charges, filed in U.S. District Court in Greensboro, allege that N.J.C., a Guatemalan citizen, was forced to pay off the $3,000 debt by working at brothels on Southwin Drive and Fitch Street in Winston-Salem and on Tyler Drive in Sanford.

Lawmen discovered N.J.C. following a raid in December on the brothel on Southwin Drive, according to court records.

N.J.C. told investigators that she was detained in Texas earlier in the year and that a woman named Kimberly arranged for her $3,000 immigration bond to be paid. In return, she was supposed to work at a restaurant in North Carolina.

But after arriving in Charlotte in November, Gandia drove N.J.C. to the brothel in Winston-Salem and told her she would have to work as a prostitute to repay her debt, according to court documents.

At one point, N.J.C. was taken to Sanford. She identified Guardado as the person in charge of the brothel. Law enforcement found evidence of prostitution at the home, including lingerie, condoms and a ledger noting the days of the week with a tally by each day, according to court records.

All five defendants were initially charged in an indictment filed in February in a related case.

Those charges include failing to file a factual statement about an alien individual and sex trafficking by force, fraud or coercion. They pleaded not guilty.

4 Suspected illegals arrested in major Asheboro pot bust

ASHEBORO — Police and U.S. Customs Enforcement agents have arrested four men and seized nearly 2,900 pounds of marijuana and nearly $450,000 in cash in Asheboro.

Officers said they found the large stash of marijuana Friday in a commercial building in north Asheboro rented by the suspects. The U.S. Drug Enforcement Agency estimates the retail value of marijuana at between $500 and $2,000 per pound, depending on quality.

Drug paraphernalia and cash were seized at a home at 1616 Pine Hill Road rented by two of the men. A K-9 team found $448,785 in the bumper of a vehicle parked there.

Police said these four men were charged with conspiracy to traffic marijuana:

- Erick Jaramillo Vences, 20, of 808 Morgan Ave.
- Ivan Rodriguez Vences, 24, of 1236 Old Liberty Road
- Edgar S. Soria, 24, of 1616 Pine Hill Road
- David Miramontes Garcia, 24, of 1616 Pine Hill Road

Soria and Garcia also were charged with possession of marijuana and possession of drug paraphernalia.

Bond for each man was set at $250,000, and all four are being held in the Randolph County jail. It was not clear if they

Woman Charged With Social Security Fraud

<http://www.wtsbradio.com/pages/localnews.html>

Following an eight-month investigation a Johnston County woman has been arrested on charges of defrauding the Social Security Administration. Sandra Bisette Sanchez Lopez, 57, of Lizzie Mill Road, Selma was charged with one felony count of obtaining property by false pretenses.

Social Security Administration special agents and Johnston County sheriff's detectives allege Lopez made a false statement on an application in January 1998 to receive social security benefits. According to sheriff's office spokesperson Tammy Amaon, Lopez reportedly told government officials she was not married when in fact she was. Since 1998, she reportedly received $13,619 in benefits she was not entitled to receive. Lopez was released on a $5,000 unsecured bond pending her next court appearance.

Suspected Illegal Alien Arrested On Felony Charge

<http://www.wtsbradio.com/pages/localnews.html>

A Richmond, Virginia man picked the wrong driver to yell at and threaten Friday night in the parking lot of Kelly's Bar on South Brightleaf Boulevard. Police said the driver was a plain-clothes police officer conducting a patrol in the area.

The officer called for back up and during a search of the suspect, police uncovered cocaine with a street value of nearly $700 and $2,434 in cash. The suspect, identified as Carbajal Cesar Alejandro Garcia, 25, fled on foot but was captured behind a nearby business a short time later. Garcia was charged with felony possession of cocaine and resisting an officer.

Illegal immigrant is grateful for a second chance

<http://www.charlotteobserver.com/2011/04/30/2261138/illegal-immigrant-is-grateful.html>

Abel Moreno is home and humbled.

He's the illegal immigrant who won praise a year ago for helping Charlotte stop a rogue police officer who had been sexually assaulting women.

But on Christmas Eve, Moreno got into trouble himself: He was arrested for drunken driving - and ended up in a Georgia prison facing deportation.

Moreno, 30, spent most of the last four months in a cell, worrying that he had blown his chance to stay in the United States.

But this week, Moreno won a reprieve.

He was awarded a special visa for helping authorities prosecute former Charlotte-Mecklenburg police Officer Marcus Jackson, who sexually assaulted six women - including Moreno's girlfriend.

Moreno played a key role in the case, risking his freedom to challenge the officer's behavior during a traffic stop.

On the night of Dec. 29, 2009, Moreno was following his girlfriend home when a police officer pulled her over. It was the same officer, Marcus Jackson, who she said had pulled her over weeks earlier and fondled her breast.

Moreno confronted Jackson when he touched her again. Moreno called 911, knowing that responding officers might discover his illegal status. Jackson then arrested Moreno on a resisting charge and put him in jail.

The resisting charge was eventually dropped, but Moreno was identified as an illegal immigrant through the Mecklenburg jail's 287(g) program. He was targeted for deportation but was soon released for his assistance in the Jackson case and allowed to seek a special "U-visa" for immigrants who are crime victims or witnesses who can help prosecute a criminal.

Then, last Christmas Eve, Moreno went out drinking with friends and got into his Chevy Tahoe to go see his girlfriend.

As he drove along Arnold Drive in east Charlotte around 10 p.m., Moreno ran off the residential road and hit a tree and a telephone pole, a police report says. People in a house nearby ran out to help when they heard the crash.

When they asked if he was OK, Moreno took off on foot, witnesses told police. But officers found him, his forehead bleeding, and took him to Presbyterian Hospital.

Zahra Baker's dad out of jail, wearing ankle tag

<http://www.heraldsun.com.au/news/breaking-news/zahras-dad-out-of-jail-wearing-ankle-tag/story-e6ff7jx-1226042320136>

The father of murdered Australian girl Zahra Baker is out of jail, but is wearing an electronic ankle tag and being watched by immigration authorities, according to US news reports.

Adam Baker is free on bail, but has been indicted by a grand jury on charges of identity theft and obtaining property by false pretense, the Hickory Daily Record reported today.

Mark Killian, Baker's Catawba County lawyer, said his client was under the supervision of US Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE), which placed an immigration "detainer" on him last week because they believed he was in the country illegally.

Baker meets with ICE officials once a week and has an ankle monitoring device, the Record reported.

Police investigating the horrific murder and dismemberment of 10-year-old Zahra swooped on Baker last week after his other lawyer, Shell Pearce, spoke to the media about his client's desire to leave North Carolina and return to Australia.

Baker, 33, was locked up on April 12 over the identity theft and obtaining property offences, but walked free after posting a $US10,000 ($9500) bond on Saturday, Catawba County Clerk Al Jean Bogle said.

On Monday, Baker was indicted by a Catawba County grand jury, which said he used another man's name and Social Security number to hook up the electricity at his family's rented home in Hickory, North Carolina, in July last year.

Illegal immigrant charged with cocaine sales

<http://www2.hickoryrecord.com/news/2011/may/03/illegal-immigrant-charged-cocaine-sales-ar-1001315/>

LENOIR - Caldwell County drug agents on the trail of a suspected cocaine dealer have captured their suspect.

They arrested Genaro Emmanuel Mendoza-Picazo, 29, of Lenoir, during a traffic stop Saturday. A Hudson Police officer stopped the suspect after he was spotted by undercover agents.

Mendoza-Picazo is in the United States illegally, and he'll most likely be deported by the U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement agency when the case is disposed of in court, according to a media release issued by Sgt. J.D. Barbour of the Caldwell County Sheriff's Office.

Undercover agents with the county's Inner-County Counterdrug Enforcement Unit, better known as the ICE Unit, along with Lenoir police have been investigating Mendoza-Picazo since Feb. 25.

He's accused of selling and delivering an "eight ball" of cocaine to an undercover officer. The officer had befriended Mendoza-Picazo through an acquaintance.

Mendoza-Picazo was charged with felony possession with intent to sell and deliver cocaine, selling and delivering cocaine and felony maintain a vehicle or dwelling to keep and store a controlled substance.

His bond was set at $25,000 secured.

Home was gambling den, police say

<http://www.newsobserver.com/2011/05/05/1176162/home-was-gambling-den-police-say.html>

RALEIGH -- Police who raided a North Raleigh home last month say they found that the basement had been transformed into a mini Las Vegas-style casino.

Police found a fully stocked beer bar, slot machines, surveillance equipment and thousands of dollars in cash, according to a search warrant made public Wednesday.

"This wasn't like your typical guys getting together on Friday night to gamble, drink a few beers and sit around talking about sports," Raleigh police Capt. Norman Grodi said Wednesday. "This was set up like a venture with professional-grade material."

Detectives on April 16 charged the homeowner, Coung Tu Le (Johnny Le), 32, of 4700 Marathon Lane, with one count each of misdemeanor gambling, operating an illegal gambling establishment, possession of illegal gambling tables and misdemeanor child abuse.

When officers entered the home, Le's wife, Thu Le, 27, was serving as the card dealer, Grodi said. Police charged her with the same offenses as her husband, Grodi said.

Police charged the couple with child abuse because there were two young children in the home at the time of the arrests, he said.

Ten other people in the home were charged with one misdemeanor count of gambling. One of the 10 was also charged with resisting arrest, Grodi said.

Neighbors in the Valley Stream subdivision near Buffaloe and New Hope roads had no idea the home was being used as a gambling enterprise, Grodi said.

Man dies after Hispanic gang shootout at strip mall

<http://www.charlotteobserver.com/2011/05/05/2273045/man-dies-after-independence-blvd.html>

A 22-year-old died Wednesday, police said, after he was wounded in the head during a shoot-out between men in two vehicles Sunday at a strip mall in east Charlotte.

The shooting happened around 2:30 a.m. Sunday in the parking lot of Independence Promenade, on Independence Boulevard near Idlewild Road. Charlotte-Mecklenburg police didn't release information about the shooting until Wednesday evening.

As two vehicles were leaving the parking lot, witnesses told police, passengers in the vehicles exchanged gunfire.

According to a police report, the passenger in Olman Mauricio Fuentes Portillo's car shot several times at a white Ford F-150, which had two men inside.

Then the passenger of the pickup fired several shots in return, striking Portillo, the report says.
 Portillo was shot once in the head and crashed his car in the middle of Independence Boulevard, police said.
 He was taken to Carolinas Medical Center and died Wednesday.

Feds arrest 19, break up 4-state prostitution ring

<http://www.whec.com/news/stories/S2096878.shtml?cat=10036>

INDIANAPOLIS - Nineteen people have been arrested in connection with a violent Latin American prostitution ring that smuggled women into the U.S. to work in brothels across the Midwest and as far away as Florida and New York, federal prosecutors said Wednesday.

Federal, state and local authorities arrested the 19 people in Indiana, Michigan and Illinois on Tuesday on federal racketeering and conspiracy charges, Deputy U.S. Attorney Brad Shepard said during a news conference. Investigators have found no evidence that any of the 19 were in the U.S. legally, he said.

The ring was known to have operated five brothels catering to Hispanic clients in apartments in Indianapolis and others in Cincinnati; Addison, Ill., and Grand Rapids, Mich. It also is believed to have operated brothels in Fort Wayne and Elkhart, FBI Special Agent Michael Langeman said in a probable cause affidavit.

"It is believed that at least a good portion of the prostitutes utilized by the organization are smuggled into the United States from Mexico and Central America," Langeman wrote in the affidavit.

Shepard said he could not say which other countries the women came from. None were minors.

"The organization advertised their services by distributing business cards which had advertisements and telephone numbers for auto repair or western wear outfitters," U.S. Attorney Joe Hogsett said at the news conference. "These business cards were known within the community as contact numbers for arranging appointments. Each of the appointments was referred to as a 'ticket,' and it would cost anywhere from $40 to $50."

Only Hispanic clients were allowed.

The ring was headed by Jose Louis Hernandez-Castilla of Indianapolis, who smuggled the women into the country and arranged their transfers each week among the brothels, Langeman said. Hernandez also provided prostitutes to brothels in Chicago, Louisville, Ky.; Kansas City, Mo.; Tulsa, Okla.; North Carolina, Florida, Tennessee and New York.

Hernandez's brothers, Gregorio of Indianapolis and Norberto of Addison, also helped run the ring. Authorities did not provide ages for any of those arrested.

Guilty pleas in violent Mexico-based fake document ring

http://www.examiner.com/crime-in-norfolk/guilty-pleas-violent-mexico-based-fake-document-ring-that-operated-norfolk?CID=examiner_alerts_article

On Wednesday, U.S. Attorney Neil H. MacBride announced that three members of a fraudulent document trafficking organization with operations in 19 cities and 11 states, have pleaded guilty to racketeering.

The indictment alleges that the three Virginia cells were located in Richmond, Manassas and the Norfolk/Virginia Beach area. The criminal enterprise also operated in Arkansas, North Carolina, Missouri, Ohio, Tennessee, Massachusetts, Indiana, Kentucky and Rhode Island.

Eulalio Alcantara-Cruz, 33, of Manassas, Va.; Jorge Alejandro Gonzalez-Garcia, 35, of Mishawaka, Ind.; and Gabriel Soberanas-Grada, 21, of Greensboro, N.C., all entered guilty pleas to racketeering conspiracy charges. Each faces up to 20 years in prison when sentenced in September.

The federal indictment states: “Israel Cruz Millan, a/k/a “El Muerto,” 28, of Raleigh, N.C., managed the organization’s operations in the United States, overseeing cells in nearly a dozen states that produced high-quality false identification cards to illegal aliens. He allegedly placed a manager in each city, each of whom supervised a number of “runners” who distributed business cards advertising the organization’s services and helped facilitate transactions with customers. The cost of fraudulent documents varied depending on the location, with counterfeit Resident Alien and Social Security cards typically selling from $150 to $200. Each cell allegedly maintained detailed sales records and divided the proceeds between the runner, the cell manager, and the upper level managers in Mexico. The indictment states that from January 2008 through November 2010, members of the organization wired more than $1 million to Mexico.”

According to investigators, the organization drove competitors out of their territory by posing as customers setting up meetings and violently attacking them when they arrived. The attacks included binding the victims’ hands, feet and mouth; beating them; and threatening them with murder. At least one victim allegedly died from one of these beatings.

K-9 stop leads to cocaine arrests

<http://www.starnewsonline.com/article/20110502/ARTICLES/110509960/1037/news05?Title=K-9-stop-leads-to-cocaine-arrests>

A three-month investigation into a cocaine trafficking organization led to two arrests in the Holden Beach area.

The investigation began with a Brunswick County Sheriff's K-9 division traffic stop and culminated last week when vice and narcotics agents served search warrants at three residences.

At 2223 Camelia Drive SW, agents seized two kilograms of cocaine, a 2003 Chevrolet Tahoe and a handgun. And at 1647 and 1651 Cattail Lane SW, $12,605 in currency, a 2000 Ford Explorer and a firearm were seized.

Agents have already charged Virgilio Galarza Vargas, 26, of 1647 Cattail Way SW in Supply and Carlos Juan Sanchez-Vasquez, 34, of 1390 Morgan Road SW in Supply each with two counts of trafficking cocaine and one count of conspiracy to traffic cocaine.

Each man's bond is set at $300,000.

Deputies are still looking for Noel Santamaria Mederos, 37, of 2223 Camelia Dr. in Supply.

A warrant has been issued for Santamaria Mederos' arrest on the charges of trafficking cocaine and maintaining a vehicle and dwelling for the purpose of distributing controlled substances.

Mother stops attempted sexual assault by suspected illegal

<http://www.wcnc.com/home/momma-beats-up-man-who-sexually-assaults-4-year-old-daughter-121285059.html>

CHARLOTTE, N.C. – A Charlotte man was arrested early Wednesday morning, accused of trying to sexually assault a young girl.

The mother of that 4-year-old agreed to speak with NewsChannel 36 about the ordeal. We are not identifying her and spoke with her through an interpreter.

She is still trying to come to terms with the close call that happened at the Granville Apartments off of North Sharon Amity Road. That mother says she went to the restroom around 2:30 a.m. and when she came out, she saw a man standing over her daughter.

“She said he had taken her skirt off, her underwear,” the interpreter said.

That mother says she defended her daughter by attacking the suspect, and when he tried to escape her brothers held him down until police arrived.

Dario Orozco, 25, was arrested and charged with indecent liberties and sex offense. Investigators say Orozco is a neighbor and had been invited to the home by an uncle. However, the mother says she doesn't know him. “She said she had nothing to do with him,” the interpreter explained. “She never saw him before so she doesn't know him.”

The mother says her 4-year-old never woke up and is doing okay. However, she is worried about Orozco getting out of jail because he allegedly threatened her and her daughter before police arrived.

Orozco's bond has been set at $50,000.

Man convicted in 10-pound meth case

<http://www.thetimesnews.com/news/tenn-43883-case-convicted.html>

GREENEVILLE, Tenn. — A federal jury in East Tennessee has convicted a North Carolina man in a case that involved 10 pounds of methamphetamine, which was described at the trial as one of the largest quantities of the addictive stimulant ever seized in Tennessee.

A statement from the U.S. attorney's office in Knoxville said a jury in Greeneville convicted 38-year-old Abel Martinez Tavera of Winston Salem, N.C., on federal drug and firearms charges Friday. Sentencing is set Sept. 12 and Tavera faces a maximum possible penalty of life in prison.

Tavera's attorney, Tim Moore of Greeneville, declined comment Monday about the conviction.

The statement said trial testimony showed the drug was made in the Winston Salem, N.C., area and the 10 pounds was a record amount seized in East Tennessee.

Arrest in murder of Durham woman

<http://abclocal.go.com/wtvd/story?section=news/local&id=8120654>

DURHAM (WTVD) -- Police have charged a former boyfriend in the death of a Durham woman. Twenty-one-year-old Crystal Gigliotti was found murdered in her apartment on Newby Drive Wednesday.

Gigliotti's 3-year-old son Gabriel was found unharmed in the home.

Now, Silvestre Alvarad Chaves, 25, of Liberty Street has been arrested and charged with murder. Chaves was arrested in Memphis, Tennessee on unrelated charges.

Police say Chaves is not the father of the 3-year-old. Gigliotti graduated from Northern High School. Her funeral was being held Monday afternoon

Suspect arrested on charges of firing gun in public

http://www.news-record.com/content/2011/05/08/article/man_faces_charges_of_firing_gun_in_public_damaging_car

GREENSBORO — A 20-year-old man faces charges including shooting at an empty car and simple assault, police said.

Mario Andretti Doresett has been arrested and charged with making threatening phone calls, damaging personal property, discharging a firearm in city limits, going armed to "the terror of the public" and simple assault. He is being held on a $15,000 bond.

At 9 p.m. Saturday, Greensboro police were called to 1430 Westover Terrace regarding someone discharging a firearm in public.

They found an unoccupied vehicle that had been shot several times.

DWI Arrest

<http://www.thetimesnews.com/articles/driving-43876-burlington-impaired.html>

Roman Isidro Mendoza, 21, of North Ashland Drive, Burlington, was charged May 8 by the Burlington Police Department with driving while impaired and no operator's license. According to warrants, Mendoza was stopped in a 2004 Chevy at 3 a.m. on Webb Avenue near Gilmer Street. He blew a .14. Bond was set at $500.

100+ Charges For 3 Accused Of Using Fake Credit Card Numbers

<http://www.witn.com/news/headlines/120205484.html?storySection=story>

There are 200 charges in all for 3 suspects accused of using fraudulent credit card numbers to buy prepaid visa cards, gift cards and other merchandise from the Goldsboro Target a week ago.

Police say Jaonta Scarlett, and Kevin Anderson are charged with a total of 93 charges each including obtaining property by false pretense and financial card forgery . Anessa Niranjana is charged with 14 counts of aiding and abetting obtaining property by false pretense. Scarlett's bond is now 593-thousand dollars. Anderson's bond is 530-thousand dollars and Niranja is being held on a 75,000 dollar bond.

PREVIOUS STORY:

Police say a fraud ring has been using stolen credit card numbers to purchase thousands of dollars in gift cards and merchandise at a Goldsboro Target store. Police learned of the fraud after a man in Sierra Vista, Arizona said his stolen card was used in Goldsboro.

Jaonta Scarlett, Anessa Niranjana, and Kevin Anderson were arrested last Thursday after leaving the Target on Sunburst Drive. Police say Scarlett and Anderson hit the store for $5,962.52 worth of pre-paid debit cards and merchandise on April 6th and 7th, and then again last Thursday from another $3,310.61. They say Niranja was the driver in the fraud.

When arrested police say they found in their truck $8,250.00 worth of pre-paid Visa Target cards, another estimated $4,000 in merchandise and 143 other assorted gift cards.

Police say the stolen credit card numbers were used to make purchases until the cards were declined. Then police say they would use another stolen credit card number to make purchases until it also too was declined.

Police say additional charges against the trio are expected in Goldsboro while police say Scarlett and Anderson, along with other unidentified individuals have been seen at other Target locations including Garner, Rocky Mount, Greenville, and Wilson.

Immigration authorities set illegal alien student free

<http://latino.foxnews.com/latino/news/2011/05/10/immigration-authorities-set-undocumented-student-free/>

Charlotte – An undocumented student active in the North Carolina youth movement that supports passage of the DREAM Act was set free Tuesday by immigration authorities after being arrested following a traffic accident.

Consuelo Chavez Perez was released Tuesday from the Irwin County Detention Center in Ocilla, Georgia, U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement spokesperson Danielle Bennett said.

On April 27, Consuelo was driving the family car to Wingate University, 40 miles from her home in Charlotte, when she had a traffic accident.

According to the North Carolina Highway Patrol report, Chavez fled the scene of the accident causing property damages.

Manuel Chavez said that his daughter was frightened because she didn't have a driver's license, was stressed out by her final exams and tried to evade the authorities out of fear.

Holly Springs police arrest 2 in cocaine trafficking

<http://www.newsobserver.com/2011/05/12/1192937/holly-springs-police-arrest-2.html#ixzz1M8g7bdyU>

Two Orange County residents are jailed today on $2.5 million bonds after Holly Springs police charged them with trafficking in cocaine.

Joel Macias Covarrubias, 22, and Orlando Martin Medina, 17, both of 3723 Buckhorn Road in Efland, are accused of transporting and selling more than 1,000 grams of cocaine, according to arrest warrants filed in the Wake County Magistrate's Office.

Both are charged with four counts of cocaine trafficking and one count of conspiring to traffic in cocaine.

Covarrubias and Medina are in custody in the Wake County jail. They will have first appearances in court later today.

2 Charged In Clayton Area Drug Bust

<http://www.wtsbradio.com/pages/localnews.html>

Narcotic officers have arrested a Clayton area couple they allege were large scale cocaine dealers in Johnston County.

Manuel Enrique Mendez, 51, of 2880 Cornwallis Road, was arrested Tuesday night following a search warrant at his residence. Narcotics Captain A.C. Fish with the Johnston County Sheriff's Office said undercover agents purchased 2 ounces of cocaine, with a street value of $2,200, and then returned to the residence with a search warrant where they seized an additional 3.5 ounces of cocaine. Mendez's wife, Maria Judith Vazquez, 51, of the same address, was also arrested.

Mendez and Vazquez were charged with several counts of trafficking cocaine, and maintaining a dwelling to keep a controlled substance. As of Thursday, Mendez was still in custody under a $241,000 bond. His wife was released on a $91,000 bond

Captain Fish said the search of Mendez's home following a nearly four week undercover operation involving the Johnston County Sheriff's Office and Raleigh Police.

Burlington man faces child sex charges

http://www.wral.com/news/news_briefs/story/9598867/

BURLINGTON, N.C. — A Burlington man faces accusations that he sexually abused a young girl for several years, police said.

Social Services requested on Friday that Burlington police look into allegations of molestation by Alfredo Valerio Lieja, 33. Police said an investigation turned up evidence "to confirm the allegation."

Lieja was charged Saturday with three counts each of first-degree sex offense, indecent liberties with a child and sex offenses. He was given a $300,000 secured bond.

Pitt man charged with kidnapping, molesting child

http://www.wral.com/news/news_briefs/story/9598883/

STOKES, N.C. — Pitt County authorities arrested a man on Thursday who they believe sexually assaulted a child "over a period of time," according to the sheriff's office.

Alejandro Gomez Garcia, 42, of 2827 Briery Swamp Road in Stokes, faces charges of first-degree sexual offense involving a child, indecent liberties with a child and first-degree kidnapping.

Authorities withheld details of the case to protect the victim's identity.

Garcia was placed in the Pitt County jail under a $500,000 secured bond.

Raleigh man accused of touching sleeping woman

http://www.wral.com/news/news_briefs/story/9598984/

RALEIGH, N.C. — Raleigh police charged a man with sexually battery Saturday after they say he touched a sleeping woman.

The arrest warrants state that David Octavio Mendoza-Vasquez, 31, of 3625 Brentwood Road, touched the woman's crotch several times while she was asleep "for the purpose of sexual gratification."

The woman did not know Mendoza-Vasquez and was staying with his house mate, police noted in court records. They asked for a higher bond due to "the random nature of this sexual offense."

Mendoza-Vasquez was placed in the Wake County jail under an $8,000 secured bond. He was scheduled to appear in court June 1.

Illegal Alien Murder Suspect Arrested

http://www.wral.com/news/news_briefs/story/9612868/

CASTALIA, N.C. — A man wanted in a fatal shooting in Nash County this weekend was arrested Tuesday in Franklin County, authorities said.

Eusevio Salazar-Mendoza faces a first-degree murder charge in the Saturday shooting death of Corrello Ramiro at 7942 Buck Road, just south of Castalia. Details of the shooting weren't released.

Salazar-Mendoza was found in a wooded area in the 300 block of Cheeks Quarter Road, southeast of Henderson and north of Louisburg, according to the Nash County Sheriff's Office.

He was placed in the Nash County jail without bond. He was scheduled to appear in court Thursday.

Suspect tried to grab officer's gun, faces additional charges

<http://www.newsobserver.com/2011/05/16/1201362/police-suspect-tried-to-grab-officers.html>

A 41-year-old Raleigh man arrested over the weekend in a statutory rape case faces additional charges after police said he tried to grab an officer's gun.

Sergio Naranjo, of 6632 Lynndale Road, is accused of having sex with a 14-year-old girl, according to arrest warrants filed in the Wake County Magistrate's Office.

While Raleigh police were transporting Naranjo to the station, authorities said Naranjo grabbed an officer's gun. The officer was not injured.

Naranjo is charged with one count of statutory rape and one count of assault of a government official, warrants say.

DWI Suspect Arrested In Police Station Parking Lot

<http://www.wtsbradio.com/pages/localnews.html>

SELMA- Police officers in Selma didn't have to go very far Monday night to arrest an accused drunk driver. A policeman on patrol on South Pollock Street stopped a car for speeding.

The driver pulled into the parking lot of the Selma police station and stopped. Officers said the driver appeared to be impaired and after a Breathalyzer test, Alejandro Mondragon Olivares, 25, of LaGrange, registered 0.26, which is more than 3 times higher than the legal limit of 0.08. Olivares reportedly told officers, “I am wrong, I am sorry. I make mistake.”

He was charged with driving while impaired and driving without a license. He was later released on a $2,500 bond pending an appearance in Johnston County District Court.

Reward offered for illegal alien in homicide investigation

<http://www.rockymounttelegram.com/police/reward-offered-castalia-homicide-investigation-493307>

CASTALIA- The Nash County Sheriff’s Office is offering a $5,000 reward for information leading to the arrest of a man suspected of killing his Castalia roommate over the weekend.

Deputies were called around 7:30 p.m. Saturday to the 7900 block of Buck Road after neighbors heard multiple gunshots. Officers arrived to find Corrello Ramiro, 40, dead and his roommate, Eusevio Salazar-Mendoza, 50, missing.

Witnesses reportedly told police that Salazar-Mendoza was last seen speeding away from the men’s trailer in a 1995 black Jeep Cherokee.

Warrants for first-degree murder have been obtained against Salazar-Mendoza, who police said should be considered armed and dangerous.

The Jeep has a North Carolina license plate tag of ZWW1489. The suspect is described as a 5-foot-6 Hispanic man weighing 200 pounds.

Man arrested for threatening ex-wife, stealing her car

<http://statesville.wbtv.com/news/crime/man-arrested-threatening-ex-wife-stealing-her-car/62623>

STATESVILLE - A Stony Brook man was arrested on May 9 for stealing his ex-wife's car and telling her he was on his way to Tennessee.

The Iredell County Sheriff's Office received a call that a car had been stolen from a home in the 150 block of Calhoun Road in Stony Point.

The victim told investigators that her ex-husband, 38-year-old Jose Antonio Mendez, admitted to her over phone that he did steal her car.

She went to say that she and Mendez have been separated for two years, and during that time she has received several threatening phone calls from him.

The victim also told investigators that Mendez may be somewhere in Alexander County with some friends.

Iredell and Alexander County deputies located Mendez in Alexander County and he was transported back to Iredell County.

The Iredell County Sheriffs Office also wanted Mendez for charges on Sexual Battery and Communicating Threats.

Mendez was charged with Felony Larceny of a Motor Vehicle and was taken to the Iredell County Detention Center where he received a $25,000 secured bond.

Mendez also received an additional $5,000 bond on his other outstanding charges.

Illegal immigrant arrested on cocaine trafficking charges

<http://www2.hickoryrecord.com/news/2011/may/18/illegal-immigrant-arrested-cocaine-trafficking-cha-ar-1045227/>

LENOIR- An illegal immigrant accused of cocaine trafficking was arrested during a drug raid spearheaded by the Caldwell County Sheriff's Office's Inner-county Counterdrug Enforcement Unit.

He is being held on more than $1 million secured bond.

Alfredo Arredondo Becerril, 28, was living in Lenoir when the ICE unit arrested him Friday.

Sheriff Alan C. Jones calls Becerril a "major cocaine distributor."

"This guy was pushing a lot of cocaine between the counties," he said.

The investigation began in early May and got a jump start when an undercover officer was introduced to Becerril and purchased more than an ounce of cocaine.

Friday, another deal was arranged – this time Becerril agreed to sell the undercover officer more than three ounces of cocaine – worth more than $11,000, according to a news release from the Caldwell County Sheriff's Office.

When the suspect showed up at a prearranged meeting place in Wilkes County, he was taken into custody without incident.

Becerril's Caldwell County charges include felony trafficking in cocaine by possession, trafficking in cocaine by sales and trafficking in cocaine by delivery. Additional charges are pending.

His Wilkes County charges include three counts of felony trafficking in cocaine and felony possession with intent to sell and deliver a Schedule II controlled substance.

Becerril is being held in the Wilkes County jail under an $850,000 secured bond for his Wilkes County charges and a $300,000 secured bond for his Caldwell County charges.

The Yadkin and Wilkes county sheriff's offices assisted Caldwell County in the operation.

Raleigh man jailed in sexual assault of 4 children

<http://www.newsobserver.com/2011/05/19/1209186/raleigh-man-jailed-in-sexual-assault.html>

A 48-year-old Raleigh man is in jail today after authorities said he sexually assaulted four children between the ages of 8 and 12.

Edgardo Ieno, of 1129 Minnie Drive, is charged with four counts of indecent liberties with a child, according to arrest warrants filed in the Wake County Magistrate's Office.

Wake County sheriff's deputies investigating the case said they believe the assaults took place over three years beginning in May 2008. The children are 8, 10 and 12 years old, authorities said.

Ieno, who is originally from Uruguay and listed his occupation as logistics specialist, is in custody in the Wake County jail. His bond is set at $400,000.

Man killed in Winston-Salem wreck

<http://www2.journalnow.com/news/2011/may/20/1/man-killed-in-winston-salem-wreck-ar-1051204/>

One man was killed and two were injured Friday when the car they were riding in went out of control on U.S. 52 and struck a guardrail and a concrete barrier, Winston-Salem police said.

Police identified the man killed as David Morga Medina, 18, of Winston-Salem.

Medina was a passenger in the back seat of a car being driven north on U.S. 52 by Galdino Garcia Silva. The wreck occurred about 1:20 p.m. and forced the closure of the northbound lanes of U.S. 52 where the highway crosses Interstate 40.

Police said Silva lost control of the car as it went north over the I-40 bridge. The car struck a right-side guardrail before striking a concrete median barrier. Medina was thrown out of the back seat of the car and died at the scene, police said.

It was the city's eighth motor-vehicle fatality this year, police said, compared with five by this point in 2010.

Police said speed and alcohol use appeared to be factors in the wreck.

Silva, 18, was charged with driving while impaired and with being under 21 and driving a motor vehicle after consuming alcohol. Two men in the car were taken to Wake Forest Baptist Medical Center for treatment.

SANFORD: Gregorio Corona Alegria, 38, no address given, was charged Thursday with habitual impaired driving. Bail information was not given.

Alleged ID trafficker nabbed

<http://www2.morganton.com/news/2011/may/19/alleged-id-trafficker-nabbed-ar-1044916/>

MORGANTON- A man accused of trafficking identities had his first court appearance Wednesday.

Matilde Jose Vasquez, 42, of 216 Heron St., Morganton was charged late Monday night with trafficking stolen identities and possessing or manufacturing a fraudulent ID, according to a warrant issued by the Morganton Department of Public Safety. Bond was set at $10,000 secured.

The warrant alleges that Vasquez bought a Californian driver's license and had it on his person when an officer searched him.

The 42-year-old had an interpreter in court. His next court date is June 8.

Court documents did not list Vasquez's nationality or current immigration status.

Identity trafficking is a Class F felony under North Carolina and a conviction carries a punishment of 10 to 36 months in prison. Having or making a fake ID is a misdemeanor.

Two men beaten, stabbed and shot in botched robbery attempt

<http://www.fayobserver.com/articles/2011/05/23/1096166?sac=Crime>

One man is in critical condition after he and another man were stabbed and shot after allegedly trying to rob a woman outside her home in the Cambridge Arms apartments this morning.

It happened about 12:45 a.m. when the men, whose names have not been released, attempted to rob Maria Guebara, 47, who is from El Salvador, said Lt. Chris Davis, Fayetteville police spokesman.

When the men tried to take her purse, Guebara began screaming, alerting 10 to 15 family members who live in the same building, Davis said.

That's when one of the alleged robbers fired a gun at family members.

"The round passed through the clothing of an Alex Echeverria, but failed to strike his body," Davis said.

Guebara's family members then ran after the two, caught them and disarmed them during a struggle, Davis said.

"Both suspects were shot during the initial struggle, with the suspect's gun, and then the family severely beat, stabbed and cut both suspects," Davis said.

A third suspect drove away from the scene in a silver Buick after seeing the melee, Davis said.

At least one of the suspects is a confirmed gang member and was wearing a red bandana on his face when he approached Guebara, Davis said.

No charges have been filed, Davis said.

The two suspects are not being identified because family members have not been notified, Davis said.

The men were taken to Cape Fear Valley Medical Center where one is on life support, Davis said.

The other is in satisfactory condition, he said.

Suspected illegal immigrant accused of child sex crimes against 7-year-old girl

<http://www.gastongazette.com/articles/girl-57693-sex-year.html>

MOUNT HOLLY- A man suspected of entering this country illegally now faces charges of eight sex crimes against a 7-year-old girl.

Jose Mariano Suarez-Chacon sexually assaulted the girl on eight occasions from January 2011 to May 12, according to an arrest warrant affidavit signed by Mount Holly Police Detective F.N. Tindall.

The offenses, including first-degree sex offense against a child and indecent liberties, occurred at Suarez-Chacon's apartment at 227 W. Glendale Ave., Mount Holly, according to the warrants.

The girl lives in Gastonia, according to the warrant affidavit.

Suarez-Chacon was booked into Gaston County Jail Friday on a $1 million bond. However, he also has an Immigration and Customs Enforcement hold on his release until his legal status is known, according to Gaston County Jail officials.

Man found passed out in car

<http://www.salisburypost.com/Crime/052311-WEB-Cops-Drunk-man-hits-officer-qcd>

SALISBURY — A Salisbury man is in jail after being found intoxicated and passed out behind the wheel of a car. The Salisbury Police report said he also assaulted an officer when the officer woke him up.

Jose Tolentino Corrales, 35, of 107 Elm St., was charged with impaired driving and resisting, obstructing or delaying a public officer. He's in the Rowan County jail under a $1,000 bond.

According to a report by the Salisbury Police Department, several people called the police department early Saturday morning to report a man lying down in a car near 1935 W. Jake Alexander Blvd. around 4 a.m.

Police responded and found Corrales asleep behind the wheel inside the running car, with an open beer sitting in the console.

An officer tried to wake up Corrales, but was unsuccessful, so he applied a sternum rub. Corrales woke up and slapped the officer on the shoulder. Another officer restrained Corrales, who was struggling with officers and eventually got hit with a stun gun.

An alcohol sensor test was conducted on Corrales and he blew a 0.15 and 0.16, according to police, who then arrested him.

Sex Offender Arrested After Going Onto School Campus

A registered sex offender in Johnston County has been arrested after going onto the campus of West Johnston High School.

Daniel Sosa III, 22, of Zack's Mill Road, Benson was arrested May 19 for the incident that reportedly occurred three days earlier. Sosa reportedly went onto school grounds on May 16 to pick up his girlfriend, a student, in direct violation of his terms of release.

Sosa was convicted in December 2008 for taking indecent liberties with a minor and kidnapping a minor. He was sentenced to serve 42 months in prison, but was released on March 25 of this year.

Officials said they were first tipped off about the incident by concerned parents. Sosa was confined in the Johnston County Jail under a $25,000 bond.
