Less than 36 hours after a Four Oaks man was found murdered in his home, detectives with the Johnston County Sheriff's Office have arrested a man they say is responsible. Nestor Arreola Aguilar, 31, of Allen's Crossroads Road, Four Oaks was apprehended at a mobile home on Alonzo Road, off US701 near Newton Grove, just before 3pm. Aguilar faces murder charges in the shooting death of Luis Aguilar Cortez, 34, who was found inside his residence at 2433 Hockaday Road at 4:18am Monday, according to Sheriff Steve Bizzell. A motive has not been determined, Bizzell told WTSB. "Investigators worked non-stop around the clock to solve this homicide," Bizzell said. It began when officers tried to stop a red pickup truck reportedly driven by the 34 year-old suspect, Elmer Velasequez. He reportedly failed to pull over, leading officers on a chase that reached speeds of 100mph along several rural roadways before crashing on Highway 210 near Smithfield. The accident downed a power pole. The driver and passenger were injured. The passenger was ejected from the overturned vehicle. Velasequez is facing multiple charges including DWI, speeding, and reckless driving.

BRUNSWICK COUNTY | A Saturday afternoon wreck killed a Raleigh man, throwing him and another passenger from a flipping car, Sgt. C.K. Parks of the Highway Patrol said.

Silvestre Rogel Gandarillo, a 24-year-old from Raleigh, was charged with misdemeanor death by motor vehicle, Parks said. His father, 52-year-old Silvestre Rogel Vazquez, died in the wreck, Parks said.

Gandarillo was driving north on Mt. Pisgah Road about 4 miles from Shallotte, Parks said. His car rounded a curve too quickly about 5:30 p.m. and ran off the right side of the road. Gandarillo over-corrected, shot through the right lane, crossed the center line and over-corrected again, Parks said. The car flipped several times. Vazquez and another passenger were thrown from the car. The second passenger's injuries were not life threatening. Alcohol wasn't a factor in the wreck, Parks said, but speed was.

GREENSBORO — A man who was arrested on a charge of taking indecent liberties with a 12-year-old girl now faces deportation.

Ernesto Arenas, 40, of 122 Wild Duck Circle in Greensboro was charged with taking indecent liberties with a child and kidnapping late Thursday night, according to arrest reports.

He was initially held in the Guilford County jail in Greensboro under a $100,000 secured bond.

As of Friday, Arenas is in jail without bond. Immigration agents have placed a detainer on him. Immigration detainers allow the jail to hold a person accused of breaking immigration laws in jail so Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE) can arrange to take over custody before the inmate is released.

ASHEBORO, N.C. -- An Asheboro man has been arrested and charged in connection with a traffic crash that killed an 18-year-old woman.

Jesus Gonzalez Morales, 26, is facing charges of death by motor vehicle, inflicting serious injury, driving while impaired, driving with a revoked license, hit and run and possession of a stolen vehicle.

Police said Morales was driving along Cox Street at about 10:25 p.m. Saturday evening when he struck four people, killing Brittany Blakely, 18.

Police said Blakely's fiancée, Christopher Clanton, 17, was being treated at Wake Forest University Baptist Medical Center.

Another woman was taken to a hospital in Randolph County. The fourth person was not injured, police said.

Police said Morales was arrested after an officer spotted the stolen vehicle ditched on a side street. Police said a witness spotted Morales run into a nearby apartment. The apartment where he was eventually arrested was his sister's, police said.

According to the state criminal record database, Morales has been in trouble with the law before. Since 2004, Morales has been charged with various drunken driving offenses, assault charges and making harassing phone calls. The Montgomery County Clerk of Courts said Morales had been charged at least 14 times there since 2004. Morales, who police say is an illegal alien, is being held in the Randolph County Jail on \$587,000 secured bond.

Worker killed at recycling plant

<http://www.newsobserver.com/2010/11/06/784334/worker-killed-at-recycling-plant.html>

RALEIGH -- A 39-year-old worker at a Raleigh recycling facility was killed on the job Wednesday night, company and state Department of Labor officials confirmed Friday.

The department's Occupational Safety and Health Division is investigating the death of Simon Martinez, a contract employee at Sonoco Recycling at 111 S. Rogers Lane.

It is the second death at a Sonoco recycling facility in North Carolina in a little more than two months. On Aug. 26, a man operating a forklift at a Sonoco facility in Salisbury was crushed by 1,600 pounds of baled cardboard, said state Labor Department spokesman Neal O'Briant.

No one witnessed the Raleigh accident, which took place at 9:30 p.m. Wednesday, said Sonoco corporate spokesman Robin Montgomery. The company is based in Hartsville, S.C.

Martinez had been operating a forklift, but "he was not on the forklift when the accident occurred," Montgomery said. "We're still in the process of gathering as much information as we can."

Probation, ICE sting results in 18 Hispanics in custody here

One is a previously deported child sex offender

<http://www.whiteville.com/articles/2010/11/06/news/doc4ccefd192121d537569746.txt>

Eighteen Hispanic males from Columbus County – 17 of them on probation, including one who helped interpret here Thursday, and a second who accompanied his father to interpret English into Spanish – will have hearings in Atlanta, to determine if they are in this country illegally. Sixteen of the males were bused to Charlotte by Immigration Customs Enforcement (ICE) agents Thursday after they were arrested as they reported to various probation officers in Whiteville.

"It was all set up by ICE and our office, and it worked smoothly without any incidents," said Katherine Horne, chief of the state's Probation and Parole office here.

Two of the males were released after being ordered to report to ICE offices in Charlotte. One was sick, and the second had a small child with him, and was released in order to take the child to their home. Both were told to report to Charlotte on a certain date for an eventual hearing on their immigration status.

"Each of the Hispanics came to our offices for appointments with their probation officer. Each officer had called the Hispanics they were supervising on probation, and set up certain times during the day to report," Horne explained.

'Appropriate'

"It was an appropriate use of our resources in the probation office," Horne declared.

Names of those taken into custody were not released, but Horne said one is a male with many names that records showed had been deported in 1993 after serving a three-year prison term in California on a conviction of taking indecent liberties with a child.

Horne noted more than half of the probationers were being supervised after being convicted of driving drunk within the past two years.

In fact, it was this particular sex offender who was the interpreter for several other Hispanics in their dealings with probation and ICE authorities.

The son of a probationer who accompanied his father to interpret for him was not on probation, but his legal status in the United States is also in question, and he was sent to Charlotte, Horne said.

Suspect Arrested: Murder Victim Shot Multiple Times

<http://www.wtsbradio.com/pages/localnews.html>

WTSB News has obtained new information about the November 1 shooting death of 34 year-old Luis Aguilar Cortez inside his Hockaday Road, Four Oaks home. A friend of the victim, Rudolfo Cruz, alerted authorities to the incident after finding the victim face down in the kitchen floor with an apparent gunshot, according to copies of search warrants obtained by WTSB.

Among the items seized from the home were two fired gun casings, three empty Bud Light beer cans, and a brown ski cap. A break in the case came Tuesday morning when attorney Glenn Gray contacted investigators saying a woman in his office claimed her boyfriend had killed someone and had given her a gun. Deputies said in a search warrant, the suspect was identified as Nestor Arreola Aguilar. Aguilar reportedly called his girlfriend around 4:00AM on Nov. 1 saying he hadkilled someone. Aguilar reportedly told the woman Cortez pulled a gun on him and Aguilar retrieved a firearm shooting Cortez three times in the abdomen and twice in the head.

While arresting Aguilar at a residence on Alonzo Road around 3:00PM on Nov. 2, he spontaneously said, “I don’t know what happened, we were drinking,” according to court records. During a search of Aguilar’s alleged residence on Allen’s Crossroads Road, a .22 caliber rifle, 30-30 rifle, ammunition and passport were seized. During a search Aguilar’s 1992 Ford truck, deputies seized a holster, clothing, and other personal belongings, warrants revealed. Aguilar is currently in the Johnston County Jail, where he is being held without bond, on murder charges.

Charlotte Apprehends An Impostor and Three Passengers Using Fraudulent Documents

http://www.cbp.gov/xp/cgov/newsroom/news\_releases/local/11052010.xml

Charlotte, N.C. — U.S. Customs and Border Protection (CBP) officers at Charlotte-Douglas International Airport continue to intercept passengers attempting to enter the U.S. using fraudulent documents. During the month of October officers encountered two passengers with back-dated entrance stamps, another with fraudulent resident documentation and an outbound passenger posing as another person.

In the first week of October CBP officers encountered a Nigerian female as a person of interest for contraband. During her interview the enforcement officer noticed several anomalies in her passport and visa. She was identified as an impostor and the documents in her possession were found to be fraudulent. The following week a Costa Rican female attempted to hide her overstay by purchasing a fraudulent Costa Rican entrance stamp. Three days later a French male presented a fraudulent I-551 permanent resident card and social security card; he used the documents to obtain a firearms permit and was employed as a security guard. Later in the month another female from Costa Rica presented a valid Costa Rican passport with a fraudulent Costa Rican entrance stamp purchased to conceal her overstay.

“Charlotte CBP officers are highly trained in the detection of fraudulent documents. Our officers are vigilant and strive daily to keep our nation safe and secure from those trying to enter the U.S. without authorization,” stated Area Port Director Patricia Fitzpatrick.

Three of the passengers were removed from the U.S., administratively; the fourth was also carrying contraband and will remain in the U.S. awaiting her trial.

<http://www.myfox8.com/news/wghp-story-hit-and-run-101024,0,1723358.story>

ASHEBORO, N.C. (WGHP) — A man with numerous convictions has been charged with felony death by motor vehicle, felony serious injury by motor vehicle, three counts of felony hit-and-run and DWI after police said he ran into four people walking on the side of the road. A teenager later died from her injuries.

Jesus Gonzalez Morales, 27, of Candor, was arrested around 5:30 a.m. Sunday at his apartment, according to police.

Detectives said Morales was driving north on Cox Street with a stolen 1997 Ford Explorer when he ran into four pedestrians near Dorsett Avenue around 10:30 p.m. Saturday.

Brittany Blakely, 18, died at Wake Forest University Baptist Medical Center about 4:15 p.m. Sunday. Christopher Clanton, 17, is still at Baptist with serious injuries, and Megan Potaznick, 20, was treated and released from Randolph Hospital. A fourth person was uninjured.

According to the state criminal record database, Morales has been in trouble with the law before. Since 2004, Morales has been charged with various drunken driving offenses, assault charges and making harassing phone calls.

The Montgomery County Clerk of Courts said Morales had been charged at least 14 times there since 2004.

Charges include three counts of felony hit and run, DWI, possession of a stolen vehicle, and driving with a suspended license. The district attorney will determine if Morales will face any more charges after Blakely died of her injuries.

Morales, who police say is an illegal alien, is being held in the Randolph County Jail on $587,000 secured bond.

Mall worker charged with second sexual assault

<http://www.fayobserver.com/articles/2010/11/12/1047604?sac=Crime>

A second woman has accused a would-be employer of sexually assaulting her when she applied for a job at a Cross Creek Mall business.

Jose Antonio Cruz, 34, of the 2200 block of Wingate Road in Fayetteville, was charged Friday with two counts of second-degree sex offense.

A woman told police the encounters happened Aug. 27 and Sept. 9, according to Dan Grubb, Fayetteville police spokesman.

Cruz was charged Nov. 5 with second-degree sex offense, sexual battery and assault on a female.

The accuser in that case told police that Cruz, who was working at a T-Mobile kiosk in the mall, lured her into a back room, saying she needed to fill out paperwork, police said.

Cruz is accused of touching the woman inappropriately and slamming her against a wall several times, according to arrest documents.

Cruz was jailed Nov. 5 with bail set at $10,000. Bail on the new charges was set at $60,000.

Fayetteville pair charged with human trafficking

<http://www.wral.com/news/local/story/8646856/>

FAYETTEVILLE, N.C. — Federal authorities have charged two Fayetteville residents as part of an international investigation into human trafficking.

FBI agents and U.S. marshals arrested Seok Wo Cho, 58, and Hye Kyung "Tae Hee" Chon, 44, on Wednesday morning outside DaVinci Internet Cafe, at 5548 Yadkin Road. Cho owns the business, which allows people to play sweepstakes games online and provides other services like sending faxes.

"This network operated behind the facade of businesses represented as legal enterprises, but their cover has been blown," FBI Assistant Director-in-Charge Janice Fedarcyk said in a statement.

The Fayetteville arrests are part of a federal investigation based in New York City, dubbed "Operation Seoulmate" that charged 21 people with transporting prostitutes between several states in the Northeast, North Carolina, California and Texas.

"Trafficking in human flesh and sexually exploiting women for financial gain is all too common and simply will not be tolerated," Manhattan U.S. Attorney Preet Bharara said in a statement.

Cho and Chon are charged with conspiracy to engage in sex trafficking and violations of the Mann Act, a federal law prohibiting the transportation of women across state lines for immoral purposes. Cho also faces money laundering charges.

A federal indictment states that they arranged to bring prostitutes to North Carolina and Georgia from New York and Korea. They spoke many times with others charged in the case about the prostitution business and how many clients they had, according to the indictment.

The indictment also states that Cho tried to send $25,000 in drug profits to Korea. Cho and Chon were scheduled to make their first court appearance Friday morning in Raleigh.

A 52 year-old Benson man has been indicted for attempted to sexually assault an 18 year-old girl. Smithfield Police said the incident occurred on September 14. Herminio Saucedo Valle, AKA Herminio Saucedo, gave the Kenly teen a ride to Smithfield. However, during the trip, Police Detective Lt. Keith Powell said he attempted to force her to perform a sex act.

After stopping at a convenience store, the teen went into a restroom and dialed 911 from her cell phone. Police arrived and arrested Valle outside the business.

On November 1, a Grand Jury indicted Valle on attempted second-degree sexual offense. At last report, Valle was confined in the Johnston County Jail under a $50,000 bond

Facebook Comments Leads To Affray At School

Authorities still searching for driver in fatal wreck

<http://www.jdnews.com/news/driving-84943-area-authorities.html?cb=1290264053>

State and federal authorities have intensified their search for a Raleigh area motorist accused of killing a pedestrian in the Southwest area last month.

Candelario Vargas, 51, was charged Oct. 9 by the N.C. State Highway Patrol with driving while intoxicated, careless and reckless driving, driving left of center and having no operator's license.

Vargas, who was incarcerated in the Onslow County Jail the night of the wreck, made bail on a $2,000 bond before he could be served a warrant for felony death by motor vehicle in the death of 37-year-old Jamar Pettis, of Heritage Drive.

Troopers and U.S. Marshals have been trying to locate Vargas since then.

Authorities had hoped Vargas, of Rodeo Drive in Linden, who may have been unaware of the outstanding warrant, would show for his scheduled court appearance Tuesday in Onslow County District Court, but he did not, said Assistant District Attorney Matt Silva who expressed his frustration over the situation.

Pettis' family members said they were outraged that Vargas was released on bond prior to being served with the felony death by motor vehicle warrant.

"I want to know why this man was allowed out of jail when he killed Jamar," Pettis' mother, Helease Moore-Clapp, said.

Following the collision, Pettis was transported to Onslow Memorial Hospital where he was pronounced dead.

Vargas was driving a van west on Old Maplehurst Road at Melody Lane around midnight Oct. 9 when the van crossed left of center, pulled back into the lane, crossed left of center again and went into the shoulder of the road.

"A witness stated he saw something get hit; he thought it was a mailbox. Of course, we know it was a person," Trooper M.P. Jones told reporters at the time.

The van then swerved back to the right, jumped a private driveway, landed in another ditch and rolled over, Jones said.

Vargas had a few cuts but did not require medical attention. He had a blood alcohol content of 0.18, more than twice the legal limit in North Carolina.

Crime Stoppers of Onslow County is offering a reward of up to $2,500 for information leading to Vargas' arrest or apprehension.

Anyone with information about his whereabouts can contact the Jacksonville/Onslow Crime Stoppers at 910-938-3273 or the N.C. State Highway Patrol at 910-347-1751. Callers do not have to reveal their identities.

Suspect in custody after stabbing

<http://www.starnewsonline.com/article/20101127/articles/101129753&tc=yahoo>

Investigators believe a suspect in Saturday's stabbing cut a woman, then himself before deputies arrived, authorities said.

Investigators expect to charge Alexandro Escalona-Juarez, 24, after he is released from the hospital, according to the release. Detectives have not been able to interview Escalona-Juarez because of his condition.

"Obviously, he is heavily sedated," said Deputy J.L. Augst, spokesman for the sheriff's office. "As far as we know, right now, they're thinking that his wounds are self-inflicted."

Investigators haven't released the woman's name. She is stable, Augst said, but is in rough shape.

Deputies went to Cypress Tree Mobile Home Park at 222 Flemington Road about 8 p.m. for a domestic disturbance.

At the mobile home park, they found a woman and Escalona-Juarez with stab wounds, and both were taken to the hospital.

Investigators searched the area and detained someone but needed a translator to speak with him. After speaking with the translator, investigators determined he was a witness to the stabbing.

Witnesses said they heard a commotion and a woman yelling for help Saturday night.

Just back, charged again

<http://www.newsobserver.com/2010/11/30/833437/just-back-charged-again.html>

RALEIGH -- A man immigration officials deported in 2008 for drunken driving entered the country illegally only to be arrested again on an outstanding warrant charging him with a sex offenses against a minor, authorities reported Monday.

When Rey David Rosas-Rosas, 29, of Raleigh was deported back to Mexico on Dec. 18, 2008, by officials with the U.S. Immigration and Customs Law Enforcement, he managed to elude another warrant for his arrest by Garner police charging him with one count each of felony indecent liberties with a child and statutory rape, said Sgt. Scott Crawford of the Garner police.

Crawford said prior to Rosas-Rosas being charged in Wake County with driving while impaired, Garner police had obtained a warrant charging him with taking indecent liberties with a 14-year-old Aug. 1, 2004. But before Garner police could arrest him, Rosas-Rosas was deported.

Rosas-Rosas found his way back into the United States. He was stopped by Raleigh police Sunday on the 2000 block of South Saunders Street. He was charged initially with driving while impaired and with having an expired registration sticker, court records show.

Then an information check revealed the 2008 warrant, Crawford said. "There's no statute of limitations for a felony," Crawford said.

In addition to the criminal charges, the Wake County Sheriff's Office has placed a detainer on Rosas-Rosas with federal officials because they think he is again in the United States illegally, court records show.

Rosas-Rosas is being held in the Wake County jail. His bail for the DWI and expired registration charges is $5,000. Bail of $205,000 is required for the sexual offense charges.
