TARBORO, N.C. — A 2-year-old child beaten beyond recognition at a babysitter's house in Tarboro earlier this month was also sexually assaulted, authorities said Tuesday, after charging two people in the attack.

The mother said the injuries were so severe that she didn't even recognize her own child. She also said Speight told her a dog had attacked the child.

Speight, of 374 Northwoods Country Road, was initially arrested Nov. 4 and charged with felony child abuse and misdemeanor child abuse. She posted $1,500 bond and returned home.

But medical examinations confirmed the extent of injuries to the child, who has since been released from the hospital and is recovering at her grandmother's house, leading to the new charges against Speight.

No other information was released. The relationship between Speight and Torido-Bastida was not disclosed.

Cary Academy Director of Advancement Lynne Fountain said in a news release the alleged victim - while a minor - is not a current or former Cary Academy student. According to Cary investigators, the victim is a 14-year-old boy.

The victim's father was the first to call 911. He was with the child waiting for his mother to get off work. The mother is believed to be a contract worker at the school.

"As soon as this became knowledgeable to us police were called. Police immediately started talking to the alleged victim," Fountain said.

Fountain said an arrest warrant has been issued for a contract worker from a local cleaning company.

"I am saddened that this alleged incident took place on our campus," said Head of School Mitch McGuigan in a statement. "Our concern is for the alleged victim and the family."

2 Men sentenced for cocaine trafficking, money laundering

<http://www.ice.gov/news/releases/1211/121128charlotte.htm>

CHARLOTTE, N.C. — A Charlotte man charged with cocaine trafficking conspiracy and money laundering conspiracy was sentenced Tuesday to 11 years in prison, following an investigation by U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement's (ICE) Homeland Security Investigations (HSI) and the Charlotte-Mecklenburg Police Department.

Following the prison term, Rodolpho Trujillo, 45, of Charlotte, will serve five years under court supervision as ordered by U.S. District Judge Max O. Cogburn Jr.

Yesterday, Judge Cogburn also sentenced Trujillo's co-conspirator, Luis Fernando Gonzales, 49, of Mexico, to 87 months in prison, to be followed by four years of supervised release.

In September 2011, a federal criminal indictment charged both men with cocaine trafficking conspiracy and money laundering conspiracy. Gonzalez was also charged with possession with intent to distribute crack cocaine. According to court documents and related proceedings, in July 2011 law enforcement became aware of an intended cocaine transaction involving the shipment of 25 kilograms of cocaine to the Charlotte area. Law enforcement had identified Trujillo as the person from Charlotte involved in the anticipated cocaine shipment.

Approximately 10 days later, Trujillo was found in possession of $10,000. The cash was packaged within coffee grinds to avoid detection of the smell of any narcotics that may have been left on the money, court records show. In August 2011, law enforcement purchased one kilogram of cocaine from Trujillo. According to filed court documents, after observing Gonzales leaving Trujillo's business, law enforcement searched Gonzalez's residence and seized more than $270,000. The money was packaged in airtight $30,000 bundles and tested positive for the presence of cocaine. Law enforcement also seized approximately 48 grams of crack cocaine from Gonzalez's residence.

Trujillo and Gonzalez pleaded guilty in December 2011 and have been in local federal custody since arrested by law enforcement. Upon designation of a federal facility they will be transferred to the custody of the Federal Bureau of Prisons. Federal sentences are served without the possibility of parole.

The case was prosecuted by Assistant U.S. Attorney Steven R. Kaufman of the U.S. Attorney's Office in Charlotte.

Another home invasion

http://www.clintonnc.com/view/full_story/20895510/article-Another-home-invasion?

One person has been arrested following an early morning home invasion in the southern part of Sampson County, this one with a twist — the homeowner fired shots and the suspect fled without stealing anything or harming anyone in the residence.

Sampson County Sheriff's Capt. Eric Pope confirmed that officers have taken Martin Moreless-Perez, 24, into custody and have charged him with the 8 a.m. home invasion in the 1400 block of East Mt. Gilead Church Road.

Through investigation, Pope noted, it is believed Moreless-Perez has broken into the same residence on two other occasions, Oct. 2 and Nov. 14. The suspect has been placed in the Detention Center under a $60,000 bond, charged with two counts breaking and entering; one count felony larceny; and one count larceny of a firearm.

This case, he stressed, is not related to a series of four home invasions that took place over the weekend, all involving seasonal farm workers, most from Hispanic descent.

Although Tuesday's incident also involved individuals of Hispanic descent, Pope said investigators did not believe it was in any way tied to other recent crimes. "This, we believe, was an isolated incident," the captain stressed.

Employee accuses coworkers of sexual assault

<http://www.salisburypost.com/Crime/111912-WEB-Christos>

SALISBURY - Authorities charged two men this weekend with sexually assaulting a fellow employee in the kitchen of a local restaurant.

Martin Santos Cruz, 27, and Yonic Eduardo Sanchez-Garcia, 21, were arrested Sunday. The assault is alleged to have happened about 9:15 p.m. Saturday night at Christo's on East Innes Street.

Police said a 22-year-old woman victim and her boyfriend, who were also employees at Christo's, came to the police department following the incident.

The woman told officers Cruz forced her against a wall in the kitchen area and groped her. Sanchez-Garcia helped him, she said.

Cruz, of McClain Heights Court in Kannapolis, was charged with sexual battery and released after posting bond.

Sanchez-Garcia, of Larson Drive, remained in jail Monday under a $2,500 bond. He was charged with aiding and abetting sexual battery.

Following the incident, the report said, the woman and her boyfriend notified the owners they would no longer work there.

Sophia Talarantas, co-owner of Christo's, said she's looking into the allegations, but thinks there's more to the story.

"It was unfair from what I know," Talarantas said of the charges. "They were playing around.

"We are doing our own investigation - an internal investigation."

Prison for major drug runner

http://azdailysun.com/news/local/crime-and-courts/prison-for-drug-runner-caught-in-flagstaff/article_c8d846b0-9149-5226-b73c-781fc1000100.html

A North Carolina man caught twice driving through Flagstaff with large quantities of cocaine has been sentenced to five years in prison.

And Zaid Wakil, 42, faces potentially more time behind bars in a federal prison, accused of being a major drug runner for a man with ties to the notorious Sinaloa Cartel in Mexico.

Wakil's journey to prison began when Ohio state troopers found $1 million in cash in the trunk of his crashed BMW in January 2011.

He was released -- without the cash.

Months later, Arizona Department of Public Safety officers found more than a dozen kilos of cocaine in the trunk of Wakil's car as he passed through Flagstaff with his 15-year-old daughter asleep on the back seat.

The Coconino County Attorney's Office charged Wakil with transportation of narcotics.

In the meantime, Wakil had paid $100,000 to bond out of Coconino County jail and headed back home to North Carolina.

Two months after his first Flagstaff arrest, Wakil was stopped again by DPS on Interstate 40. This time, he didn't have a license plate on the new car he had bought days before in Los Angeles.

Both stops appeared to be random.

An officer cited him for the traffic violation and then asked if he could run a drug-sniffing dog around the car. Wakil agreed and the dog alerted to the driver's side door handle. The officers later found 11.8 kilos of cocaine the car's trunk.

Wakil waived his right to a jury trial last month and pleaded guilty to one count of possession of a narcotic for sale and one count of transportation of a narcotic drug for sale. He was handed over to the custody of the Arizona Department of Corrections and sentenced to five years in prison with credit for just over a year served.

TIES TO CARTEL

An indictment in U.S. District Court in central California now shows that federal agents had been tracking Wakil and other members of a purported multimillion-dollar drug trafficking organization for years.

The new federal charges accuse Wakil of being a major drug runner for what they call the Krokos drug trafficking organization, a group led by Canadian John Darrell Krokos, who was living in Puerto Vallarta, Mexico.

Wakil's Flagstaff attorney, Lee Phillips, said that federal agents accuse Krokos of having ties to the notorious Sinaloa Cartel, which is often considered by law enforcement to be the most powerful drug organization in the world.

Wakil now faces federal charges of possession to distribute a Class II narcotic. If convicted, he could face as much as 40 years in federal prison.

The charges against Wakil's more than a dozen co-conspirators include kidnapping and torturing people who allegedly stole drugs and cash from the organization and then holding them for ransom. The group, which appears to have been based in Los Angeles, stands accused of securing large amounts of cocaine in Mexico and selling it in the United States.

Wakil was allegedly responsible for moving the drug from Los Angeles across the country. He is listed as the owner of several businesses in North Carolina, including a trucking company, a construction company and a pastry business called Piety, Inc., which sells pies directly to mosques.

Phillips said he suspects that the DEA saw Flagstaff as being far enough from Los Angeles for Wakil's stops to appear random.

In reality, the DEA had provided Krokos with encrypted Blackberry phones in 2009 that the group thought would let them communicate undetected. Instead, agents were monitoring every message about the transfer of drugs and money.

Pair convicted in huge cocaine bust

<http://www.citizen-times.com/article/20121115/NEWS/311150041/1001/NEWS>

ASHEVILLE — Two California men were sentenced to at least 29 years each in prison in what authorities said was the largest cocaine seizure ever prosecuted in Buncombe County.

A jury convicted Eradio Velazquez-Perez, 36, and Edgar Ampelio-Villalvazo, 32, of cocaine trafficking, conspiracy to traffic and other charges at the conclusion of a weeklong trial.

The men were arrested during a traffic stop on Interstate 40 near the weigh station in the western part of the county on Sept. 4, 2011.

Assistant District Attorney Chris Hess said an officer found 53 pounds of cocaine with a street value of $2.4 million in fabricated compartments in the sleeper section of the tractor-trailer.

“In this case you had the largest prosecuted seizure that we're aware of it Buncombe County,” he said.

Hess said an officer with a drug interdiction task force created by the sheriffs of Buncombe and Henderson counties pulled the tractor-trailer over after it was observed traveling too fast on the ramp leading from the interstate to the weigh station.

The officer became suspicious after the driver, Ampelio-Villalvazo, and the rig's owner, Velazquez-Perez, made contradictory statements. Hess said the officer also found discrepancies between what the men said and the truck's logbooks and other documentation.

The men gave the permission to search the tractor and trailer.

"The officer discovered what they call fabricated or aftermarket compartments in the sleeper portion of the truck," he said.

Inside he found 24 individually wrapped bricks of compressed cocaine along with a bag containing $5,000 in cash in the liner. The wrapping included dryer sheets, carbon paper and rubber fabric in an attempt to disguise the scent from a drug dog, which wasn't used in this case.

Hess said the truck was hauling diesel generators from California to Williamsburg, Va. The destination for the cocaine wasn't known, he said.

Judge Marvin Pope sentenced the men this week to 350-438 months in state prison. They also were ordered to each pay a $500,000 fine and crime lab fees of $1,200.

Man arrested in Charlotte for cocaine trafficking

<http://www.charlotteobserver.com/2012/11/26/3689723/police-arrest-man-in-multi-state.html#storylink=cpy>

Charlotte-Mecklenburg police have arrested a Mexican national who they say picked up 40 kilograms of cocaine at a truck detailing shop.

Guadalupe Garza-Nunez, 42, was in Mecklenburg jail Monday, charged with trafficking cocaine.

The investigation began on Sept. 12, when DEA agents informed a CMPD drug task force detective that a confidential source had just picked up 40 kilograms of cocaine from Brownsville, Texas, on across the Mexican border.

The source, who is a truck driver, said he was told to drive the suitcase full of drugs to Charlotte and give them to someone at Express Detail, a car detailing shop on Pete Brown Road in northern Charlotte, according to an affidavit filed in federal court.

When the driver arrived in Charlotte, he was met by a man at the detailing store, the affidavit says. He was told to park his truck and wait for another man, who took the suitcase full of drugs and gave the driver $10,000.

Federal agents then detained Garza and another man, whose name was not released.

They had lodged the same charges against Raleigh apartment-mates Victor Hugo Arriaga, 26, and Sergio Lopez Reyna, 26, earlier this week.

Like them, Dominguez is from Mexico, and federal immigration officials issued a notice that they wanted to check his legal status in the United States.

Dominguez, listed on his arrest report as a Sanderson student, was freed on a $125,000 bond, Wake County Sheriff's Office records showed.

The charges all stem from an incident in which a Chevrolet Envoy was taken along with a man's gold ring and a wallet.

SALISBURY — A Salisbury woman suffered minor injuries in a two-vehicle collision at the intersection of Shue and Grace Church roads Wednesday morning. The collision happened about 10 a.m.

Justa Benitez, 40, of Hallmark Circle, Salisbury, was traveling on Shue Road when she failed to yield at the intersection, said North Carolina State Highway Patrol Trooper S.B. Marshall.

Men Charged With Running From Overnight Wreck

<http://www.witn.com/home/headlines/Men-Arrested-For-Running-From-Overnight-Wreck-177846331.html>

Washington police arrested two men who both said they were passengers in a van that flipped on Highway 17 late Wednesday night.

The wreck was reported on the drawbridge of Highway 17 near West Main St. in Washington at 11:25 p.m. Wednesday. Washington police responded and arrested two men they said ran from the crash.

Lt. William Chrismon with the Washington Police Department says there were no witnesses to the crash, so they're not able to prove who was behind the wheel when the minivan hit a railing and flipped over.

Both Sergio Esturado of Washington and Miguel Ponte of Greenville told police they were passengers in the minivan. Chrismon says it's not clear if there was anyone else in the vehicle, but officers believe one of the two men arrested was likely the driver.

Esturado and Ponte were charged with leaving the scene of an accident. Neither had injuries.

There was minor damage to the railing on the bridge, Chrismon said. However, the DOT checked the railing and determined it was safe for regular travel.

Man dies in nightclub shooting

http://sanfordherald.com/view/full_story_paid/20797165/article-Man-dies-in-nightclub-shooting?instance=homethirdleft

SANFORD — An “innocent bystander” was shot and killed early Saturday morning at a popular Hispanic night club, according to police.

The name of the 26-year-old victim has not been released — the man's relatives are out of state — and no charges have been filed as of press time.

This is the second shooting at Las Palmas Nite Club, located at 2613 Lee Ave., in the past six months, according to Sanford Police Capt. David Smith.

“This place is a continued problem,” Smith said. “Every time they rent it out to a private party, we are getting called out there. It’s not the first time we have had a shooting there.”

The club was rented out for a private birthday party Friday night, and more than 70 people were present at the club during the 1 a.m. shooting but witnesses are not forthcoming, Smith said. When police arrived, people were fleeing the parking lot and club, he said.

“There were two groups of different people there,” he said. “The person that was shot was an innocent bystander. He was there preparing food and had nothing to do with any altercation.”

Alexis Aguirre, owner of the Las Palmas, said getting the phone call at 2 a.m. Saturday from the police left him speechless and they’ve “never had an incident of this magnitude before.”

“We have never had anything this tragic,” he said.

Aguirre said he had one employee there, but the rest were hired through the private party — including security guards. He said he is still trying to figure out how someone was able to bring a weapon into the club, but they will be working to ensure security is tighter during private parties.

“There is no excuse for that,” he said. “That part of the contract will be strengthened and no one will be allowed in the building unchecked.”

The victim was pronounced dead at the scene, with at least one gunshot wound in the head, Smith said. The victim’s body was taken to UNC Hospital for further examination.

Member of Mexican drug gang arrested in Alexander County

TAYLORSVILLE N.C. – A Morganton man was arrested on drug charges Tuesday in connection with a drug trafficking operation in Alexander County and surrounding counties.

Jose Ivan Gallardo, 27, of John Coffey Road was charged with possession of a schedule II controlled substance and placed under a $50,000 bond in the Alexander County Detention Center.

An Alexander County Sheriff’s Office patrol sergeant observed a suspicious vehicle in a residential driveway at 7154 N.C. 16 South in Taylorsville, according to a news release from the Alexander County Sheriff’s Office. The sergeant approached the vehicle and the driver identified himself as Gallardo.

Gallardo told the officer he was a caretaker for the residence. The sergeant continued to investigate and requested a drug detection canine and handler respond to the scene. When the canine arrived, officers were alerted to the presence of illegal narcotics in the passenger compartment of Gallardo’s vehicle.

Officers discovered about 16 grams of methamphetamine concealed inside a baby diaper container in the vehicle.

The residence where Gallardo’s vehicle was stopped has been under the surveillance of the Narcotics and Patrol Divisions for the past six months. The release states that the residence has been identified as a possible narcotic storage location used by Mexican nationals involved in large-scale drug trafficking.

Based on the narcotics seized from Gallardo’s vehicle and intelligence gathered in the investigation of the residence, officers obtained a search warrant for the residence. Inside, officers discovered and seized nearly one pound of crystal methamphetamine, a quantity of cocaine, heroin and marijuana, and an assault rifle.

Department of Homeland Security Immigration and Customs Enforcement agents have also become involved in the investigation due to Gallardo’s status as a possible illegal immigrant.

Gallardo admitted to officers during the investigation that he is a member of the Zetas Mexican drug cartel.

More arrests are possible as the investigation continues.

John M. Lewis said. "Out of the wreck there were two unrestrained children in the back of the vehicle that ran the stop sign, and they were ejected and died as the result of the collision."

The two children killed were 11-year-old Samantha Mondragon and 2-year-old Ashley Mondragon.

Two of the ejected occupants were 2-year-old twins. Lewis said the twins were in children's seats but weren't strapped in. They were injured in the crash, he said. Victor Cruz-Antonio also was ejected.

The driver of the pickup was James Hall, 61, and his passenger was Tamika Smith, 61. Both are from Elizabethtown. Smith wasn't wearing a seatbelt, and both were injured in the accident, Lewis said.

http://www.whiteville.com/news/worth-of-meth-seized-here-tuesday/article_718c3ec6-2fee-11e2-87fc-0019bb2963f4.html

The seizure of about four pounds of methamphetamine, with an estimated street value of $200,000, is the largest amount of the crystal drug ever found in Columbus County.

Sheriff's Drug Unit detectives, working with the SBI and authorities in Cumberland and Moore counties, seized the meth Tuesday by stopping a Ford Explorer on U.S. 701 Bypass here in front of the State Employees Credit Union.

Detectives "ordered" the meth and it was brought from Fayetteville by one of three Hispanics arrested in the case.

Johnny Andreas Savva Jr., 35, of Sand Hills Drive, Fayetteville, was by himself in the Ford vehicle. The meth was found in the back seat of the vehicle.

The investigation led back to Fayetteville where authorities there went to a residence and arrested Samuel Olivares, 18, of Houston, Texas.

Still another group of law officers, including some from Moore County, went to a home in Robbins and arrested Felipe Benjume Rodriguez, 36, living along Littlefield Lane there.

Sheriff's Drug Detective Lt. Steven Worthington said another two ounces of the drug, believed to have also been manufactured in Mexico, and transported to Fayetteville, was found in the Fayetteville home.

Four charged following parking lot fight

<http://www.salisburypost.com/Crime/111212-WEB-parking-lot#.UKGl8wTRbb8.facebook>

SALISBURY — Police charged four after a McDonald's parking lot tussle Sunday night.

Salisbury Police said Javier Avila and his wife, Holly Cauble, both of South Oak Street in Granite Quarry, stopped at a McDonald's on East Innes Street and were watching a movie on a laptop in the parking lot.

Two employees came out and got into a nearby car and began playing music loudly, officers said.

Avila, 19, told police the two men were also looking at Cauble, which escalated the situation and quickly led to a brawl between the three men.

Authorities said the two men then began assaulting Avila near the vehicle when Cauble grabbed a tire iron from the vehicle and shattered the employees' back window and mirror of their Honda Civic.

Cauble also attacked one of the men with the tire iron, officers said.

The two men were identified as Giancarlo Solorzano, 18, of Fifth Street in Spencer, and Kihrie Holmes, 18, of North Yadkin Avenue in Spencer, Avila, Solorzano and Holmes were cited for affray. Cauble, 23, was charged with assault with a deadly weapon and injury to personal property.

She was released on a written promise

The Henderson County Sheriff's Office is on the lookout for five suspects believed to be involved in a string of identity thefts throughout Western North Carolina. They are seeking the public's help in identifying the suspects. All five are described as being Hispanic.

"These men have cashed stolen checks in Mitchell County, Avery County, Cherokee County, Henderson County and Rutherford County that we have documented," said Capt. Frank Stout of the Henderson County Sheriff's Office.

All of the checks were forged, he added. Law enforcement is looking into whether the suspects are working together.

"Many of the checks cashed by this group of men have been stolen from construction companies, utilities companies or food service vendors," he said. "When they go in the banks and cash the checks, they normally are leaving with $10,000 to $15,000 between all the participants."

Stout said the Henderson County investigation began in June and "further investigation has revealed (the same men) are still operating in Western North Carolina."

In the Henderson County case, the checks were stolen from an area business, and then cashed by men who showed false identification cards with addresses in Henderson and Buncombe counties.

Police seek tips to help find killers

<http://www.newsobserver.com/2012/11/20/2497267/the-killers-of-raleigh-father.html#storylink=cpy>

RALEIGH -- Police continue to search for three people thought to be involved in the shooting death of a 42-year-old father of five children late last month.

Alfonso Canjay Rincon, a self-employed landscaper, was shot around 1 a.m. Oct. 31 at the Foxhall Village mobile home park on Foxhall Village Road. Neighbors say Rincon was shot when he pursued two men who appeared to be attempting to break into a neighbor's car.

Police have not identified the three suspects, but on Tuesday they released a sequence of events that led up to the shooting.

Investigators think Rincon was awakened when he heard a noise outside his home at 6100 Dogtrott Court. When he looked outside, he saw two men around the neighbor's car.

As he watched, the men crossed the street and went behind his home, where they began to peer into one of his vehicles.

The men fled when Rincon opened the door of his home. Rincon told his family to call 911, then left in pursuit of the two men.

While Rincon was gone, a witness told police that the two men returned in a dark-colored sedan driven by a third man.

The sedan traveled toward the office area of the complex about a block away, and a gunshot was heard shortly afterward. Police found Rincon near the mobile home park's office, where he died.

Witnesses told police all three men appeared to be Hispanic. The two men on foot appeared to be in their 20s or early 30s, stand about 5 feet 6 inches to 5 feet 8 inches tall, and both wore gray-and-blue hooded Nike sweatshirts. Witnesses say one man had short dark hair with a thin mustache, while the other was bald and wore a black or blue bandanna.

The driver, who remained in the sedan, was bald and was wearing a black or blue bandanna.

On August 31, 2011, a Superseding Criminal Information was filed charging MOYE with conspiring to distribute and possession with the intent to distribute 5 kilograms or more of cocaine and 280 grams or more of cocaine base (crack), in violation of Title 21, United States Code, Section 846. On October 13, 2011, MOYE pled guilty to the charge.

According to the investigation, MOYE came to the attention of law enforcement after information was received regarding his illegal drug distribution in the Pitt County area since 2005. Man killed in trench cave-in

<http://www.newsobserver.com/2012/11/23/2501948/johnston-county-man-killed-in.html>

RALEIGH -- The Johnston County man killed Tuesday when the trench where he was working caved in has been identified as Luis Javier Martinez.

Martinez, 39, was working in a four-foot trench at the edge of a series of soccer fields on N.C. State's centennial campus, NCSU police Lt. David Kelly reported this week.

Martinez, buried under three feet of dirt, died while working for J.F. Wilkerson Contracting Co. of Morrisville. The company's employees were installing a water line for the city, Kelly said. Other workers were with him at the time and called for help at about 12:30 p.m.

Martinez's body was freed at about 2:18 p.m., Kelly said. The trench is at the edge of an intramural soccer field at the corner of Main Campus and Achievement drives.

Officials with the N.C. Occupational Health and Safety Division will determine whether J.F. Wilkerson followed safety standards and utilized equipment that could have prevented the worker's death, said Neal O'Briant, a spokesman for the state Department of Labor. The process will likely take three to four months, O'Briant said.

In 2007, state labor inspectors found five serious violations at J.F. Wilkerson, including the absence of a "trench box," designed to protect workers from cave-ins.
