23 defendants plead guilty in Human/Sex Trafficking Investigation ‘Dark Night’

<http://www.baxleynewsbanner.com/archives/5337-All-23-defendants,-including-two-from-Baxley,-in-custody-have-now-pled-guilty-arising-out-of-HumanSex-Trafficking-Investigation-Dark-Night.html>

United States Attorney Edward J. Tarver announced on September 25 that Joaquin Mendez-Hernandez, a/k/a “El Flaco,” 35, formerly of Mexico, pled guilty last week before Senior United States District Court Judge B. Avant Edenfield for his role in a sex trafficking organization which operated in Savannah, Georgia, parts of Florida, South Carolina and North Carolina, and in Mexico. Mendez-Hernandez faces a possible life sentence for his role in the sex trafficking organization.

Each of the 23 defendants charged earlier this year in an operation dubbed ‘Dark Night’ have pled guilty. Two additional defendants, Eugenio Prieto-Hernandez and Daniel Ribon-Gonzalez, remain fugitives. Operation Dark Night represents the largest sex-trafficking investigation ever prosecuted in the Southern District of Georgia.

According to evidence presented during numerous guilty pleas, local and federal law enforcement agencies identified and dismantled an international sex trafficking enterprise that spread from Mexico to Savannah, Georgia. Members of the organization enticed women from Mexico, Nicaragua and elsewhere to travel to the United States with false promises of the American dream.

Once inside the United States, these women were threatened and forced to commit acts of prostitution at numerous locations in Savannah and throughout the southeast. Women were forced to engage in sexual activity with as many as 30-50 people a day. To make sure the women complied, members of the organization threatened the women, used violence against the women, and held children hostage in Mexico. Members of the organization would also trade their victims to other members who operated in other states.

United States Attorney Edward Tarver stated, "It is with great pride that I announce the convictions of all of the defendants who were indicted and arrested in connection with 'Operation Dark Night.' This case serves as an example of how local and federal law enforcement can work together to rescue women, save lives, and prosecute criminals. In this case, justice was swift; and we expect the punishment to be severe."

"The conviction of the monsters arrested in this heinous sex trafficking scheme marks the end of a life of misery inflicted on these innocent victims of human trafficking. The perpetrators, ranging from street-level customers to international sex traffickers, will be held accountable for their repeated victimization and exploitation of these vulnerable women," said Brock D. Nicholson, Special Agent in Charge, Homeland Security Investigations (HSI) Atlanta.

"We are deeply gratified by the significant support we received from our law enforcement partners, non-governmental service organizations and the U.S. Attorney's Office for the Southern District Georgia for bringing Operation Dark Night to a successful conclusion."

Charlotte-Mecklenburg police say a man they believe killed and dismembered a woman, then left her body in an SUV parked in the Hidden Valley neighborhood, has committed suicide.

Detectives identified the woman as Mara Garcia, who turned 36 on the day she was found dead. They have identified Lenin Noel Turcios Corea, 29, as a suspect in Garcia's killing.

Officers haven't given more details about what led to Garcia's death. They said Garcia and Turcios were in a romantic relationship and lived together.

Garcia's body was found Sunday after neighbors on Dove Tree Lane in northern Charlotte noticed a foul smell coming from an abandoned Toyota 4Runner and dialed 911. Officers had the SUV towed to police headquarters and found the body inside.

Garcia's body was so badly decomposed that investigators had a hard time identifying her, according to WCNC Charlotte, the Observer's news partner.

The suspect's face was splashed across television news stations and newspapers this week as investigators tried to learn his identity. The photos appear to be video camera stills snapped as he pushed a cart at a Walmart store.

Police say those images helped identify the suspect, who "was discovered deceased from what detectives are investigating as an apparent suicide," according to a statement from police.

<http://www.wtsbradio.com/pages/localnews.html>

The Clayton Police Department needs your help to find a man who's swindled more than 18 different people out of a total of $45,000 by promising them NC drivers licenses and immigration papers, then disappearing with their money.

Clayton Detectives have obtained eighteen separate warrants against 24-year-old Alfonso Pasillas Carrillo for felony obtaining property by false pretenses.

Reports filed with police indicate that between February and October 2013, Carrillo defrauded 18 different victims out of thousands of dollars. He reportedly promised to provide these victims with North Carolina drivers licenses as well as legal immigration documentation for their payments, which were never provided.

If you have seen Carrillo or know where he might be, please contact the Clayton Police Department at 919-553-4611 or Clayton Crime Stoppers at 919-359-TIPZ (8479). A reward is available for confidential information that leads to an arrest.

BOONE, N.C. -- An Appalachian State University student is accused of striking an elderly man in a Boone Walmart.

Police arrived at the store on Watauga Village Drive around 8 p.m. Monday for an assault investigation.

Witnesses tell officers Diogenes Gabriel Morales, 21, jumped into a bin in the store, then hit the man in the face. Surveillance cameras also captured the incident.

Police arrested the suspect outside of the store.

“ASU students are such a big part of this community, and this type of behavior is uncharacteristic.
