Day after search, wanted MS-13 gang member still on the loose

<http://www.wwaytv3.com/2013/09/20/day-after-search-wanted-ms-13-gang-member-still-the-loose>

WILMINGTON, NC (WWAY) -- A member of the MS-13 gang is still on the loose after yesterday's manhunt near Mayfaire was called off.

Now both law enforcement and neighbors are left wondering where he will turn up next.

Investigators say they were landscapers by day, but dangerous criminals associated with the gang MS-13 by night. According to a Department of Homeland Security agent the men had been working under false identities in Landfall. When homeland security tried to serve warrants on them, one of the men took off.

"My initial thought was, 'What's going on?' All the neighbors were coming out and trying to figure out what the excitement was about. I felt like I needed to stay inside the house," said Susan Lew, who lives near the area searched.

A multi-agency search for the man stretched out for hours and carried over into an area near Mayfaire, but when night fell, officers called off the search.

"If they called off the search they must not think that he's extremely threatening right at this moment," Lew said.

But investigators say that as a member of MS-13 he is violent by nature.

According to the FBI, MS-13 has close to 10,000 members spread across 42 states. In 2008 the FBI director said MS-13 is America's most dangerous gang.

Both men have prior charges against them and both were deported at one time.

Despite that fact, residents near the search area say they still feel safe at home.

"I think we're pretty safe now," Ross Marino said. "Everybody seems to have taken off so if they're not worried I won't get worried either."

The suspect who was arrested was taken to the Duplin County Sheriff's Office; however deputies would not confirm his identity or his charges.

Man charged with indecent exposure in Dobson hair salon

<http://www.wxii12.com/news/local-news/foothills/man-charged-with-indecent-exposure-in-dobson-hair-salon-/10626528/21880216/-/1512eb/-/index.html#ixzz2eg4bHWe2>

A 20-year-old county man has been charged with indecent exposure after authorities say he exposed himself to a Dobson business owner.

According to Dobson Police Chief Shawn Myers, the incident occurred on Aug. 21, when Officer James Harrison was dispatched to Hair Unlimited, located on East Atkins Street.

"Beverly Peele, the owner of Hair Unlimited, reported that a male subject came into the hair salon and was asking questions about the rates of the tanning sessions," Myers said.

Peele told police that the suspect, later identified as Lira Eduardo, of 339 Rockford Road in Dobson, asked for a pamphlet with the prices listed.

"She turned around and picked up the pamphlet to give it to (Eduardo), and at that point noticed that the male subject had his private part exposed to her while standing inside her hair salon," Myers said.

After being seen, the suspect ran outside the salon and around the building, according to police.

Myers said Peele was able to describe both the suspect and the vehicle in which he left her business.

"Officer Harrison, after a short investigation, was able to locate the suspect, who was later identified by Peele as the male subject that indecently exposed himself in her hair salon," he said.

Eduardo was arrested Thursday and was booked into the Surry County Jail on indecent exposure charges under a $500 secured bond.

DURHAM, N.C. (WTVD) -- The search is on for two men who held up a mother and her children at gunpoint in their own home.

The pair apparently came in through a window at the home in the 300 block Dacian Avenue just after 7:30 a.m.

The men entered with their faces covered and showed their weapons. The woman said she screamed and they told her to calm down and forced the family into another room.

The suspects then took items from the home, including the victim's cellphone, credit cards, and the family car. The car was recovered a few blocks away along with her cell phone.

Even though some of the items have been recovered, the family is sharing their frustration over the incident and is sending a message to the suspects.

"Stop doing that because you terrified some families. Nobody wants to have this experience," said the victim's husband Carlos Caballero.

The woman was able to tell police that the men spoke with an accent.

Durham police are asked for help finding the men. Anyone with information is asked to call CrimeStoppers at (919) 683-1200.

Was killing a gang hit or random shooting?

Police investigating motive in Freeman Park slaying

<http://www.wilsontimes.com/News/Feature/Story/25547244---Random-or-gang-hit->

A man shot and killed in the park across from his Wilson home Tuesday night was shielding his girlfriend and brother from a spray of gunfire, a witness said.

Estevan Martinez, 20, of 1210 Woodard Ave., died of a gunshot wound to the torso in the shooting reported around 10 p.m., according to police. Patricia Munoz, whose sister Maricela Munoz was dating Martinez, said he sacrificed his life to save his loved ones.

"When he heard the shooting, he was like, 'Get down!' to my sisters and them," Patricia Munoz said. "He protected them. He took that bullet for his friends and his family."

Martinez was hanging out at Freeman Park with his girlfriend, her brother, his brother and one of his friends. Munoz said he was killed in a drive-by shooting and his selection appeared to be random.

"What was the purpose of them shooting when there was no cause to it?" she said. "He was just minding his own business at the park."

A second man, 18-year-old Douglas Castro Medina of 910 Wainwright Ave., was shot along with Martinez. Police said he survived the shooting with minor injuries.

Detectives were working to determine who shot the men and had not made any arrests as of Wednesday night. Capt. Keith Pendergrass said Martinez "had some ties to a gang," but it wasn't clear whether gang affiliation was a motive in the shooting.

"We haven't determined whether it was gang-related," Pendergrass said. "We certainly haven't ruled out anything. Right now, we're just trying to get evidence collected. We're just going back and reviewing as much information as we can, and hopefully something will fall into place."

Police didn't call the killing a drive-by shooting, but Pendergrass confirmed that "vehicles were involved." He said detectives were still working to find out whether Martinez and Medina were targeted.

"It's still undetermined whether this was a random act," Pendergrass said. "It's still too soon to say."

Martinez had attended Fike High School in Wilson but dropped out so he could get a job and support his family, Patricia Munoz said. He worked as a housepainter in Raleigh and had been living at the Woodard Avenue home with Maricela and Patricia Munoz for about four months.

"He was a caring person who was always watching out for everyone," mother Maria Guadalupe said. "He was like big brother bear."

Guadalupe spoke in Spanish and her daughter, Marisol Martinez, translated her sentiments into English.

"He had a great personality," Guadalupe said through her daughter. "He got along with everyone. He never had a grudge against anyone."

Patricia Munoz said Martinez was a people person who made friends easily.

"He was well-known and he really didn't have beef with nobody," she said. "He was outgoing. He'd just come up to people and talk to them. He was really friendly."

Munoz said Martinez never complained about the sacrifices he made to provide for his family.

"He never showed his problems," she said. "He had to hide his problems so people wouldn't see him sad. He put his problems aside and just helped people out."

Martinez has no history of criminal convictions resulting in prison time or probation in North Carolina and had no pending charges in Wilson County, according to court records. Medina also has no criminal record and no pending charges.

Patricia Munoz is confident that police will find her sister's boyfriend's killer. She said the person who took Martinez's life deserves to spend the rest of his or her life in prison.

"I want to say he can feel the pain that we're feeling right now," she said. "How would he feel if it was one of his family members, if it happened the same way?"

Police are asking for the public's help to identify and prosecute those involved in the shooting.

"Anybody who's heard anything or has any information, please call us," Pendergrass said.

Pedro Serrano, 31, of Long Ferry Road, was turning out of Five Row Street, he said, when his 2003 Dodge Ram 2500 hydroplaned, sending him across the center lane and into the path of an oncoming car. He attributed the crash to the heavy rain. The collision happened at 6:35 p.m.

The sheriff's office said 39-year-old Jihad Abou Haidar was in court Wednesday to answer a charge of making threatening and harassing telephone calls.

Deputy Kevin Suthard said Haidar bought a gun from Remington Arms in Mayodan and claimed there was a problem with it. The manufacturer examined the gun and found no problems. Suthard said Haidar then made the threatening calls.

During the hearing in Rockingham County, Haidar argued with the judge and was also found in contempt of court. Suthard said it was when he was taken to the jail that Haidar threatened the judge.

Haidar is scheduled to appear in court on Oct. 23rd.

<http://abclocal.go.com/wtvd/story?section=news/local&id=9251381>

RALEIGH, N.C. (WTVD) -- A Wake County Sheriff's Office deputy arrested a man Monday who allegedly had 7.5 pounds of methamphetamine in his car.

Carlos Eduardo Segura Olivares, 26, was stopped on I-40 near Aviation Parkway around 2 p.m. for an alleged traffic violation.

The deputy who stopped him was writing him up for also driving without a driver's license when Olivares allegedly got out of his car and ran. He was captured after a brief foot chase.

Asked why he ran, Olivares admitted he had drugs in his car.

Deputies searched the car and found bricks of meth with an approximate street value of about a half million dollars hidden behind the carpet lining of the trunk.

Olivares was booked into the Wake County jail under a $150,000 bond on drug trafficking and other charges.

Two charged with heroin trafficking as Wake deputies seize 2 kilograms

<http://www.newsobserver.com/2013/09/20/3212231/two-charged-with-heroin-trafficking.html#storylink=cpy>

RALEIGH — A man and woman from Georgia were arrested with 2 kilograms of heroin in the pair's BMW outside a Comfort Inn hotel Thursday night.

Fernando Hurtado, 25, of 525 Parkway Circle South in Atlanta and Janely Yajaira Higuera-Cardenas, 26, 883 Wilton Lane Northwest in Lilburn, Ga., were each charged with two counts of trafficking in heroin and maintaining the 2006 BMW as a place to keep drugs. Two kilograms is just under 4.5 pounds.

Cardenas was being held in lieu of $500,000 bail, and she and Hurtado were scheduled for court appearances Friday afternoon.

In an unusual aspect of the case, Wake County magistrates set cash bail for each of them eliminating the opportunity to use a bail bondsman.

Most suspects are given a secured bail, which lets someone post a percentage of the amount with a bondsman who then gives the court a promise for the whole amount if the suspect does not appear in court.

Authorities say he was a member of Los Pasacos, a violent kidnapping gang infamous for disfiguring and sometimes killing its victims.

Barahona-Castillo was deported by U.S. immigration officials and flown Wednesday to Guatemala City, where he was handed over to authorities in the Central American country.

Investigators said that Avalos' vehicle was his personal vehicle. 35-year-old Daniel Sanford was pronounced dead at the scene. 27-year-old Elaine Debenport was airlifted to Wake Forest Baptist Hospital. According to the highway patrol, Debenport has been moved out of intensive care and is expected to make a full recovery.

Vazquez Avalos was released on $5,000 unsecured bond and he is scheduled to appear in court September 23. The Highway Patrol is still awaiting reports from the medical examiner; they did say the moped was stolen.

The case is still under investigation.

Former Morganton resident charged with murdering maid in Oregon

<http://www.unifournews.com/>

A former resident of Morganton has been charged in connection with the murder of a maid in a downtown Pendleton, Oregon motel.

Police had been looking for the suspect in the murder for a year, until earlier this month, when surveillance cameras along a jogging path captured video of a man hiding a length of steel pipe behind his back, sneaking up on a woman who was brutally beaten.

According to timesunion.com, two officers recognized the attacker as a local homeless man who went by the name of Danny Wu. DNA from the pipe used in the attack on the jogging path matched a sample from the motel murder, according to Pendleton Police Chief Stuart Roberts. But Wu's name, fingerprints and the DNA samples did not match any nationwide databases, and while Wu's picture was circulated around the region, and there had been sightings for weeks, they had all turned up empty.

According to the timesunion.com report, on Wednesday night, workers at the local convention center spotted Wu eating leftovers in the kitchen, Roberts said. They called 911, and officers armed with assault rifles surrounded the vast building. A state trooper looking through a window spotted a leg hanging down from a ceiling in a stairwell.

Confronted by officers and a police dog, the suspect came quietly, and under questioning, revealed he was a Marine Corps meteorologist, wanted for desertion after getting on a bus at Camp Pendleton, California, and never going back. He apparently enlisted right out of high school in Morganton, and ran out of money when he got to Pendleton.

23-year-old Lukah Pobzeb Chang, a former student at Patton High School, was arraigned Thursday on charges of murder in the Aug. 14, 2012, stabbing of 19-year-old Amyjane Brandhagen in a room she was cleaning at the Travelodge in Pendleton, and attempted murder in the Aug. 9, 2013, beating of 53-year-old along the jogging path, authorities said.

Chang was placed in jail under $10 million dollars bond. A preliminary hearing is scheduled for September 4.

It happened around 3:40pm on Eldridge Road, Newton Grove, in southern Johnston County.

Deputies said the caller reported a Ford Taurus was speeding and weaving, and nearly struck several oncoming cars, on Highway 50 South. The caller was able to get the vehicle stopped on Eldridge Road and waited for officers to arrive.

Trinidad Ruiz Velasquez, 46, of Unity Drive, Newton Grove later registered 0.26 on the Breathalyzer, more than triple the legal limit of 0.08.

Velasquez was charged with DWI and driving without a license.

Sheriff speaks out against newly passed immigration bill

<http://www.wect.com/story/23363405/sheriff-speaks-out-against-newly-passed-immigration-bill>

COLUMBUS COUNTY, NC (WECT) - Columbus County Sheriff Chris Batten is backing the Governor and blasting lawmakers who he says did not stand up against illegal immigration.

Sheriff Batten says he, and others, were told the Reclaim North Carolina Act would give immigrants 90 days to prove they are here legally. But the final version, which the governor vetoed expanded that time limit to nine months.

Governor McCrory publicly said Batten and others supported his veto, encouraging lawmakers to do the same.

Instead, the majority voted to over ride the governor and put the nine month timeframe into play.

Batten believes many state lawmakers are catering to special interest groups, who Batten says whine and complain about not having enough workers.

"If they're working illegal employees that are there and here illegally and they have criminal records and they're sex offenders and other people out there working under the same status and they're working for these employees, and if they commit a crime and rape a child or person within area where they're working...I feel like they should be held completely accountable for their actions," said Batten.

He says another issue he has with the bill is that it puts driver's licenses in the hands of illegal citizens. Others say the illegals will have permits and not full-fledged licenses.

The bill became law Wednesday.

<http://www.wtsradio.com/pages/localnews.html>

A quantity of prescription pills, including some reportedly stolen in a break-in last Friday in Durham, were seized from a vehicle stopped by law enforcement officers on Highway 301 North in Selma around 1am Saturday.

A deputy stopped the suspects vehicle after the driver failed to dim his headlights and the officer also noticed the bumper on the vehicle was about to fall off, according to Tammy Amaon, Public Information Officer with the Johnston County Sheriff's Office.

Driver Arrested After High-Speed Chases

<http://www.wtsradio.com/pages/localnews.html>

A Benson man is facing felony theft charges and a multitude of traffic violations following two high-speed chases last week.

According to reports, Benson officers were patrolling the area of East Main Street around 11 p.m. when they noticed a silver Chrysler 300 sedan in the area along Fayetteville Street.

A person was leaning into the passenger window, speaking with the driver in the parking lot of a local business. Officers pulled into the area and ran the plates on the vehicle, which came up as a Ford four-door with a revoked license plate and canceled insurance.

During the time it took to enter the information into the computer, the Chrysler had pulled back onto Main Street, the report noted. Officers followed, but as soon as they were behind the car it accelerated and turned onto I-95 South.

Officers caught up with the vehicle at the bottom of the exit ramp and turned on their blue lights — the car slowed, but continued to head south. Officers reported lots of movement in the vehicle.

After a mile, the Chrysler pulled over around the 78-mile marker along I-95. Officers exited their patrol car, but as they approached the back bumper of the sedan, it sped off. A high-speed chase along the interstate ensued, reaching speeds of 90 to 100 mph weaving through traffic, according to reports.

The vehicle veered off the highway at Exit 72, running through the stop sign and turning left onto Long Branch Road. Area authorities were notified of the incident and after five miles, Benson officers called off the pursuit.

Less than an hour after returning to the Benson Police Department, dispatch notified the officers the Highway Patrol had stopped the vehicle in Cumberland County and the driver was in custody.

Officers met with troopers along Hayfield Road in Wade, where they learned the driver had attempted to flee from the Highway Patrol as well. After checking the VIN number, authorities discovered the Chrysler had been stolen out of Wayne County.

A .45 caliber handgun was also found in the passenger floorboard of the vehicle.

Officers transported Juan Antonio Martinez, 35, of the 800 block of Siles Moore Road, Benson, back to the Benson Police Department. He was charged with felony motor vehicle theft, felony speeding to elude and driving with a revoked license.

In addition, the Highway Patrol charged Mr. Martinez for several traffic violations including fictitious registration, improper lane change, speeding 100 mph in a 65-mph zone and careless and reckless driving.

Martinez was also charged with three failure to appear warrants for driving while impaired and driving with a revoked license. He was held at the Johnston County Jail under a $54,500 secured bond.

NC Mechanic Sentenced for Fake Inspections

<http://www.wwaytv3.com/2013/09/26/nc-mechanic-sentenced-for-fake-inspections>

CHARLOTTE, N.C. (AP) - A man who prosecutors say falsified emissions inspections has been sentenced to one year in federal prison.

The Charlotte Observer reported (<http://bit.ly/1fqCarx>) that José Manuel Cabrera must also pay a $10,000 fine, perform 100 hours of community service and serve three years of probation.

Prosecutors say Cabrera worked at Carolina Tire in Pineville in 2011 and 2012 where he conducted 164 illegal vehicle inspections.

Prosecutors say he entered information for one car but had the testing equipment hooked up to another car. He charged $60.

The store has been banned from doing inspections for 10 years.

The case was handled by federal prosecutors because the U.S. Clean Air Act requires that cars in 48 North Carolina counties be inspected to ensure they do not exceed air quality standards.

Police arrest man connected to University City robberies

<http://www.charlotteobserver.com/2013/09/09/4300365/police-arrest-man-connected-to.html#.Ui53xMasgdo#storylink=cpy>

Police have arrested a 31-year-old man in connection with two attempted armed robberies and a completed robbery with a dangerous weapon in January 2013 in the University City area.

Police say that on 1:38 a.m. on Jan. 8, Alexander Garcia Fuentes robbed a man at gunpoint after he pulled up to an ATM at 8300 Medical Plaza Drive.

The man told police that the suspect forced him to withdraw funds and then the suspect ran away, police said.

Then at 12:44 a.m. on Jan. 21, officers responded to the same ATM in reference to an attempted armed robbery.

A woman told police that after she drove up to the ATM, someone walked up behind her and tried to rob her.

The victim was able to drive away before being robbed.

In both cases the suspect wore clear tape over his face and had what appeared to be a large mole under his left nostril.

On August 21, the CMPD's Crime Reporting Unit received a tip on the identity of the man involved in these armed robberies.

A detective called Fuentes, who was living in Puerto Rico. She convinced him to voluntarily return to Charlotte and speak with her about the robberies.

On Sept. 6, the detective interviewed Fuentes, who admitted to the attempted and completed armed robberies at 8300 Medical Plaza. He also confessed to a Jan. 14 attempted robbery at the same location.

Fuentes is in the custody of the Mecklenburg County Sheriff's Office.
